THE DATE HAS BEEN FIXED

As noted in the Star several days ago, Mr. E. P. Rentz, the Fort McCoy saw mill man, has arranged with the S. A. L. railway to make a run over that road from Silver Springs to this city.

NEW ARRIVALS IN THE CITY

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Converse and Mr. Converse's sister, Mrs. L. M. Tidd, arrived in town Monday and will spend the winter in Ocala, having rented a cottage where they will keep house.

The automobile committee, Messrs. Holder, Spencer and Robinson, waited on the board of county commissioners this morning and asked the board to straw ten miles of the Dunnellon road, also some five miles of road between Lowell and the Alachua county line, near Micapony.

Mr. W. T. Perry of Oxford, was in town this morning. He is one of the party of Floridians who returned from California. He said that those who went with him were W. M. Kirk and T. N. Caruthers with their families of Wildwood.

Major T. D. Lancaster was down town the first time this morning in more than a month. He was taken with a violent cold while visiting his old home near Opelika, Ala., this summer and at the time he took a sleeper for home he did not believe he would see his folks again, but careful nursing and good doctoring restored him.

Mr. W. V. Weathers, a substantial young farmer of York, was in town today and made the Star an appreciated call. Mr. Weathers in company with Kirk Carter and R. D. Harrison, of the York community, have been spending a week at Crystal River, fishing and eating oysters.

Messrs. John Taylor and Marlon Little are being mentioned as candidates for the office of mayor. Both are excellent gentlemen and count their friends by the hundred.

Mr. John McClymonds, of San Francisco, son of Mr. J. H. McClymonds of this city, is visiting his father. Mr. McClymonds was a former citizen of Orange Lake and one of the pioneer orange growers of Marion. At present he is in the railroad business.

We see by the Gainesville Sun that Mrs. Alice E. Youngblood and son, Gilbert, are residents of the University City. They formerly lived in Ocala.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. LaRue and two daughters arrived today from Chicago, and are guests of the Ocala House. Mr. LaRue is with the land company operating at Fort McCoy, and will make his future home in Ocala. They were busy this morning house hunting and found it no easy matter as desirable houses are scarce in Ocala. That is, empty ones.

Postmaster G. C. Crom did some fine soliciting for membership in the Ocala Automobile club, organized to promote good roads in Marion, today. The membership fee is $6 a year.

Mr. and Mrs. McMellen of Morrison, are rejoicing over the advent of a baby boy into their family and Mr. and Mrs. Howard of Romeo are in the same state of mind because of a similar happening at their home.

Mr. Harp of Eureka, who was an inmate in the hospital for treatment a week, returned home today very much improved.

Miss Ada Bumby, of Orlando, who has been the guest of Miss Annie Atkinson and also Alice Bullock for the past ten days, returned home yesterday.

Will Counts of Granamville, who has been suffering for some time with bone disease of his ankle, was brought to the Ocala hospital Monday. The doctors amputated the right foot yesterday afternoon.

Jack McCully is displaying at the Commercial Bank a stalk of sugar cane that has 23 joints and measures nine feet ten inches. Jack is a farmer from way back in the Berlin section and knows how to tickle mother earth to make her laugh with a bountiful crop.

Mr. Charles Rheinauer is thinking seriously of purchasing himself a Buick automobile.

MEETING OF THE VETERANS

The old veterans held a decidedly interesting meeting yesterday in the council chamber. Those present were Commander L. M. Graham, Alfred Ayer, L. L. Aiken, James N. Badger, L. M. Beck, F. W. Blitch, B. L. Carroll, R. E. Carlton, T. N. Davis, M. P. Frink, Frank Harris, T. D. Lancaster, H. W. Long, F. H. Lytle, A. McIntosh, D. W. McDonald, D. A. Miller, C. C. Stevens, J. D. Shaw and E. T. Williams.

Mr. H. H. Love, of the Robert E. Lee Camp, Jacksonville, was a visitor and participated in the meeting. General Henry W. Long, of Martel, chairman of the memorial committee, read the following memorial tribute to the late Seth R. Brown:

Seth R. Brown was born in Alabama in the year 1829, and with his parents moved to Marion county, Florida, in the early forties, who as farmers threw the full force of their energies in establishing American civilization, and transforming the nameless forest of the country into fruitful fields, and beautiful hamlets, thereby laying the foundation for a great and prosperous state.

Comrade Brown was happily married to Miss Grace Gibson of Marion county, Florida, during the year 1858. He enlisted in a company raised by Capt. S. M. G. Gary, as a private, April, 1862, which afterwards became Company G of the 6th Florida Battalion commanded by Major Pickens Bird. His company together with the other nine companies constituting the battalion, was ordered to Camp Finegan near Jacksonville, Florida, in the fall of 1863, which were located in exposed localities of the surrounding country, his company being located at Doctor's Lake. He was in the memorable march from Camp Finegan via Trail Ridge to Lake City, Florida, February 8th to 13th, 1864, and as a gallant soldier participated in the battle of Olustee, February 20th, 1864. The 6th Florida Battalion was soon after this made the 9th Florida Regiment by appointment of John M. Martin, colonel of the same. His command constituting a part of Finegan's Brigade was transferred to the army of Northern Virginia, arriving at Hanover Junction near the Southanna river, May 28th, 1864, and was assigned to Mahone's Division, Hill's Corps at that point. In addition to numerous skirmishes, he participated in the battles of Cold Harbor, Petersburg, Weldon Railroad, Kern's Station, Hatcher's Run and Farmville, and was paroled at Appomattox Court-house, Virginia, after the surrender of General Lee April 9th, 1865. He then returned to his home in Marion county and resumed the peaceful walks of civil life as a farmer.

He was a gallant soldier, a useful citizen, a devoted husband and father, an esteemed member of Marion Camp No. 56, U. C. V., and by his cheerful temperament in the darkest hours of depression enthused his associates with a ray of sunshine and cheer. Comrade Seth R. Brown died from the effects of cancer at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Knox, in Micapony, Florida, October 13th, 1909, and was buried at Ocala, Florida, October 15th, 1909, by the side of his beloved wife who preceded him a number of years. Again we mourn the loss of another brave soldier among our members. Who next?

Resolved, That in the death of Comrade Brown this camp has lost one of its highly esteemed members, and the community at large a useful citizen. Received, second, That a copy of this memorial be furnished his bereaved children, a copy be published in the Ocala Banner and Star and that it be recorded in our historic book. Respectfully submitted, H. W. Long, F. E. Harris, T. D. Lancaster, Committee.

Then followed reminiscences of the Live Oak reunion. General Long said it was the greatest meeting he had ever participated in. The hospitality of the people was unbounded. Everything was free, including hotels, carriages, cigars and summer drinks. A basket dinner, barbecue and reception, which ended in a dance, were given in honor of the visitors.

Mr. Alfred Ayer vouched for all General Long had said. It was his first experience at a Confederate reunion, but it will not be his last, and he was already anticipating the Bar-tow gathering in 1910. He told of the reunion in a manner that was truly characteristic and, as everybody knows what a raconteur he is, he delighted his comrades. Comrades Ayer and Long then stated the steps that were being taken to erect in every state—(24 of them)—a monument to the women of the Confederacy, but only $800 has so far been subscribed. It developed that some generous soul had donated $5,000 to each of the monuments on condition that the Confederate camps of the different states would supplement this amount with $5,000 each toward these memorial shafts.

The cause so appeals to the old veterans to honor their heroic women that there can be no question that in due time the money will be contributed, and to that end Marion Camp pledged $200 toward the Florida monument. So infectious was this sentiment on the monument question that one comrade in the course of his touching remarks presented his pension check for the last quarter, as his contribution to this purpose. He was stirred to this generous act by the memory of these noble women but for whose care and attention in his sickness his bones would now be bleaching on the mountains of North Carolina. The comrade was thanked for his generous contribution and it inspired others. Comrades Long, Ayer and Harris were appointed a committee to raise funds.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE FOR A LITTLE GIRL

Celebrating the eighth birthday of their daughter, Francis, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Yonge, of 1711 Market street, gave a delightful surprise party at Springfield Park yesterday.

The little folks, forty-five in number, met at the home of Mrs. Yonge and marched to the old Indian mound in the park, where Miss Francis had previously sent unaware of the pleasure that was soon to follow.

Reaching the park, the gift bearers made a final dash for the mound, and showered pretty presents upon the astonished little honoree.

The old mound is a delightful place for surprise parties, and this one was a true surprise, all the children being kept in ignorance until the moment had arrived for starting.

After much fun over the first stage of the surprise the little friends circled around the mound and began to enjoy the cream and cakes that followed and soon were in the midst of a real party. Games followed, and the happy crowd of boys and girls enjoyed the afternoon. Little Miss Francis was overjoyed at the presents she received from her little friends. They were many and very pretty.—Jacksonville Metropolis, 2nd.

ROADBED IS ALL RIGHT

Travel to Knight's Key Will be Resumed Sunday

The Miami News-Record says it is expected that train service will be resumed on the East Coast Railway from Miami to Knight's Key not later than Sunday. Since the hurricane over 1,000 men have been engaged in making repairs to the track and trestles, and it is reported that the track is now in very good condition. This would indicate that the damage to the roadbed was not so serious as it was at first reported.

GAYNOR WON IN GOTHAM

BUT TAMMANY LOST ITS GRIP ON THE CITY FINANCES

Tuesday Was a Cold Day for Democrats and Reformers

New York, Nov. 3.—Tammany elected another mayor of Greater New York yesterday, but lost its grip on city finances. William J. Gaynor, of Brooklyn, swept the five boroughs to victory as mayor by at least 70,000 plurality, defeating Otto T. Bannard, republican fusion, and William H. Hearst, independent. He failed, however, to carry his ticket with him, and the republican fusion forces will control absolutely the board of estimate and apportionment, which will distribute approximately a billion dollars during the administration.

In addition the republican fusionists elected Charles S. Whitman, district attorney of New York county, who defeated George Gordon Battle, the democratic nominee, by at least 13,000 plurality, and John S. Shea, for sheriff over Christopher D. Sullivan, democrat, by approximately 10,000.

Virginia Remains in the Democratic Ranks

Washington, Nov. 3.—The elections held yesterday throughout the country show that Massachusetts and Rhode Island have re-elected republican governors, while Virginia has returned a democrat to this office. New York City has elected the democratic candidate, Judge Wm. J. Gaynor, to the office of mayor, while in Philadelphia the efforts of the reformers to break the republican organization has failed.

In New Jersey the republicans held their own everywhere. Tom L. Johnson, democrat, had been defeated for mayor of Cleveland, Ohio.

The latest returns from San Francisco indicate that Francis J. Heney, democrat, has been defeated for district attorney.

In Maryland the paramount issue is the so-called disfranchisement amendment designed to eliminate the negro as a political factor. The returns in this state come in slowly and the result is uncertain. The indications are, however, that the amendment has been defeated.

In Indiana the republicans scored several important victories, particularly in Indianapolis, where Samuel Lewis Shank, republican, was elected mayor and the entire republican ticket returned.

The republicans carried Massachusetts by the narrowest margin in the history of the Bay State for nearly a quarter of a century. The entire party ticket was re-elected, but Governor Ben Draper's plurality was cut down from 60,900 last year to 8,900.
