RESULT OF BAD READING

A Louisville Boy, Inspired by Dime Novels, Won Evil Notoriety in New Albany, Ind.

Louisville, Ky., Nov. 13.—In an attempt at a bank robbery, a young man entered the Merchants' National Bank, at New Albany, Ind., shortly before noon yesterday and killed J. Hangary Fawcett, cashier of the bank; seriously wounded John K. Woodward, president of the bank, and wounded James R. Tucker, a negro chauffeur, probably fatally.

When Hall entered the bank he carried a pistol in each hand. After commanding everyone to hold up their hands and get into the vault, Hall began shooting. He was shot through the chest and neck and died almost instantly. President Woodward was shot through the liver and his intestines were perforated. Tucker, the chauffeur, was shot through the body.

Following the shooting the murderer rushed from the bank and tried to escape in an automobile which he had taken from the curb in front of the residence of its owner, Mrs. Walter E. Scott, in Louisville. He had forced the negro chauffeur at the point of a pistol to drive him to New Albany.

After the shooting at the bank the chauffeur was paralyzed with terror and apparently incapable of action, sat still when the robber jumped into the car and ordered him to speed up the machine. The robber then jumped out of the automobile, shot the negro in the back and ran two blocks to the Ohio river. He seized a skiff and was on his way to Louisville side of the river before the frightened citizens of New Albany knew what had transpired.

An alarm was given through a megaphone on a dredge boat and in a short time several policemen had started in pursuit in a fast motor boat. Capturing their man, they brought him to shore where, by force, Police Captain Adams kept back the crowd of 200 persons, which crowded around the dock as the police boat landed. Commanding the prisoner to lie down, Captain Adams announced to the crowd that the man had taken poison and was dead, meanwhile carrying him to the patrol wagon and giving the word to drive ahead. The bandit was taken to the New Albany jail.

A few months ago he was removed to the Southern Indiana Reformatory at Jeffersonville to escape the mob which realizing that it had been tricked, had assembled at the jail.

The bandit is good looking, in a boyish, somewhat effeminate way. His red hair had been recently cut, and is not over 20 years old and is five feet six inches tall.

The bandit was identified as Thomas Jefferson Hall, and according to William Jefferson Hall, his father, the desperado is but 17 years old. The older Hall, who has a furniture store at 802 South Preston street, in this city, said that young Hall was a household tyrant and not insane at all.

THE MAN FROM BRODNEY'S

A Thrilling Story of Law and Love and a Struggle for Life and Wealth with Semi-Savages.

BY GEORGE BARR McCUTCHEON
(Copyright 1908 by Dodd Mead & Co.)

A handsome young soldier of fortune, a princess of enchanting beauty, two eccentric adventurers who leave wills disposing of the island of Japat and its ruby mines, two heirs who must marry within a year to inherit the property despite the fact that they are already married, a shrewd American lawyer, a scheming British solicitor, a pretty stenographer, a prince who is musical and profligate and a horde of fanatical Moslems who will inherit the riches of Japat provided the heirs do not marry each other—these are the leading characters in a romance which for genuine novelty, thrilling and unusual situations, live American humor and the pathos of a great but apparently hopeless love has rarely been equaled and never surpassed.

CHAPTER I THE LATE MR. SKAGGS.
THE death of Taswell Skaggs was stimulating, to say the least, in applicable though the expression may seem. He attained the end of a hale old age by tumbling aimlessly into the mouth of a crater on the island of Japat, somewhere in the mysterious south seas. The world had quite thoroughly forgotten him during the twenty odd years immediately preceding his death. It was, however, noticeably worth while to remember him at this particular time. He left a last will and testament that bade fair to distress as well as startle a great many people on both sides of the Atlantic.

In Boston the law firm of Bowen & Hare was puzzling itself beyond reason in the effort to anticipate and circumvent the plans of the firm of Bosworth, Newnes & Grapewin, London, E. C., while on the other side of the Atlantic Messrs. Bosworth, Newnes & Grapewin were blindly struggling to do precisely the same thing in relation to Messrs. Bowen & Hare.

Without seeking to further involve myself I shall at once conduct the reader to the nearest of these law offices.

"Pretty badly tangled, I declare," said Mr. Hare, staring helplessly at his senior partner.

"Hopelessly," agreed Mr. Bowen, very much as if he had at first intended to groan.

Before them on the table lay the contents of a bulky envelope, a long and stupendous letter from their London correspondents and with it a copy of Taswell Skaggs' will. Mr. Bowen recently had been named as joint executor of the will, together with Sir John Allencromble of London, W. C., one time neighbor of the late Mr. Skaggs.

SERVED HIM RIGHT

Detroit, Nov. 13.—A betrayal of faith led to the killing of a man by a woman in this city yesterday.

Samuel F. Morley, a wealthy young farmer who resides near Detroit, was the victim and was shot down by Miss Bertha Lietzau because he refused to redeem his pledge and marry her. It is the old story of a woman's trust and a man's perfidy. The young woman says Morley compromised her and then refused to keep his word and wed her. She was placed under arrest. She did not attempt to deny the crime, pleading betrayal as her justification.

DIRE DISTRESS
It is Near at Hand to Hundreds of Ocala Readers
Don't neglect an aching back. Backache is the kidneys' cry for help. Neglect hurrying to their aid. Means that urinary troubles follow quickly. Profit by a sufferer's experience. Miss Rose Kremer, 67 Ohio ave., DeLand, Fla., says: "I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have proven of more benefit to me than any other kidney remedy I have used. I suffered from dull, nagging backaches and distressing pains through my loins. My feet and limbs became swollen and I was also caused annoyance by too frequent passages of kidney secretions. I finally decided to try Doan's Kidney Pills, as they had been very highly recommended, and procured a supply. I used only two boxes, but am now free from the backache and soreness across my loins and my kidneys have become normal. I feel like a different woman since taking Doan's Kidney Pills and am pleased to recommend them to other sufferers."

LIQUOR WON IN LAFAYETTE
May 9, Nov. 13.—After a campaign of several weeks with both factions diligently at work, Lafayette county in the election of Wednesday went wet by a majority of eleven.

It was not until yesterday that all precincts were heard from, and the result proved most disappointing to the prohibitionists, who were sanguine of success.

ICE! ICE!
Buy Ice From Red Wagons
They say, but if you will examine carefully the ice which melts so rapidly you will note that there seems to be holes in it, that the center is what is called "snow ice," which, being more porous, allows it to melt quickly.

"Crystal Ice"
The kind we turn out is as clear and perfect as it is possible to make ice, and is the most economical ice to use. Ask the man on the Red Wagon to stop and see you.
