Just a Minute About Sewing Machines

Why Not Buy The Best? There is no economy in buying machines that are cheap in mechanism, and high in price, that you will want to trade off in a short time. A 'SINGER' is always the pride of its owner.

The Man From Brodney's By GEORGE BARR M'GUTCHEON

CHAPTER X. THE SLOUGH OF TRANQUILLITY. THREE months stole by with tantalizing slowness. The autumn passed on into winter without a change of expression in the benign face of nature.

And all this time the islanders toiled as they had toiled for years. They reckoned in years, while the strangers cast up time's account in weeks and called them years.

From London came disquieting news for all sides to the controversy. The struggle promised to be drawn out for years, perhaps.

Lady Deppingham and Mrs. Brown should not be misunderstood by the reader. They loved their husbands—I am quite sure of that—but they were tired of seeing no one else, tired of talking to no one else.

"I've got a rippling idea," Saunders said one day. "Let's have it. You're always got 'em. Why not divide with me?"

At last she came to a letter of many pages covered with a scribble that looked preposterously rhapsodic. Lady Agnes gave a sudden shriek and, leaping to her feet, performed a dance that set her husband and Bobby Browne to gasping.

"Who's coming, Aggy?" roared her husband for the sixth time. "The princess! Deppy, I'm going to squeeze you! I must squeeze somebody! Isn't it glorious? Now—now life will be worth living in this beastly place."

"It's all right so long as they don't kill you," was Browne's consoling remark. "By Jove!" said Deppingham, starting up with a look of horror in his eyes, sudden comprehension rushing down upon him.

Miss Pelham made it a point to look as fascinating as possible on the occasion of these interesting trips into the enemy's territory.

World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

Woman's True Friend Experimenting with new and untried medicines is foolish, and often dangerous. It would take a medicine more than forty years, to prove itself so universally good as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

Women use Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription in preference to all other advocated medicines for it contains no alcohol or habit-forming drugs—is not anything like advertised, secret, or patent medicines—does not claim to be able to do impossible things.

You can't afford to allow yourself to be over-persuaded into accepting any secret nostrum as a substitute for this honest square-deal non-secret medicine. Don't do it. No honest druggist will attempt to cheat you in this way.

CASH IN CHICKENS What Can be Done in Florida With a Few Fowls on a Small Tract of Land.

Mrs. W. A. Paschall, of Lukens, Florida, is an authority on fowls in this state. In a recent letter she said: "If a poultryman or woman can raise most of their feed they can make a good thing of the poultry business, for the old hen is forging ahead according to size above everything else on the farm, and eggs are soaring up now in price, and as beef has been climbing up until it is now a luxury to thousands of city people and they resort to eggs if they are cheap, but alas! they are anything but cheap now. And anyone who has only an acre or two can go in the poultry business on a small scale. By wiring long narrow runs made with wire setting one run can be planted in green stuff while the fowls are in the other, and by alternating the plantings one can have a fine run of green food that will save many dollars in the feed bill."
