

Dr. J. W. Fuller, of California.

Pe-ru-na the Remedy. D. E. J. W. FULLER, Scientific Optician, 208 North Main St., Los Angeles, Cal., writes: "I was troubled with catarrh of the head for many years. It affected my sense of smell, hearing and sight. I spent lots of money with doctors and the use of local applications to relieve me, but to no purpose until my attention was called to the wonderful effects of Peru-na. "I must say that I met with most surprising and satisfactory results. Peru-na took hold of the complaint and drove it entirely out of my system. "Although well along toward the allotted span of man's life, I am as pleased as a child over the results, and feel like a young man again."

Through Dream Mother Finds Lost Daughter

rying, Mrs. Ellis states that she had a dream. This was that she had read an advertisement in The Pensacola Journal, in which her daughter was advertising for her mother. On awakening, she realized that it was only a dream, but it so impressed her that she could not dismiss it from her mind. To relieve her mind, she wrote to a man she had formerly known in Jonesboro. She did not write to her daughter at the address given in the dream, for she knew that she could not stand the shock if she did not receive an answer. The man answered the letter, stating that her daughter was there and had been married for four years to a jeweler in good circumstances.

DAUGHTER RECEIVES NEWS.

The news was immediately conveyed to Mrs. Dunn, the daughter, and the shock caused her to go into a faint. She had been led to believe, it is stated by the people who had adopted her, that her mother had died in Texas. She had been formally and legally adopted by the family and had been given an excellent education. She is an accomplished musician as well as a proficient stenographer and bookkeeper. Mrs. Ellis goes to Jonesboro with the expectation of bringing her daughter and son-in-law back to Pensacola with her.

WILLIAMS VS. WILLIAMS IN THE COURTS TODAY

It will be Williams against Williams in the police court, and later in the county courts, today. An electrician named Williams was arrested by city officers yesterday charged with assaulting a young man named Williams contained in the opinion of the Hon. Scott M. Loftin, County Solicitor, Pensacola, Fla. "Dear Sir: Will you kindly give me your written opinion regarding matters contained in the opinion of the Hon. Messrs. Blount, Blount & Carter to Law and Order League, which has been handed you by my deputy. Very truly yours, J. C. VAN PELT, Sheriff.

LAW AND ORDER LEAGUE AND SUNDAY LAWS

SHERIFF VAN PELT CALLED ON TO ENFORCE STATUTES AS INTERPRETED BY LEGAL AUTHORITIES—WILL SERVE ALL WARRANTS PLACED IN HIS HANDS.

"Warrants placed in my hands will be served, and I am ready upon proper affidavit being made to execute any warrant issued by the proper authorities," was the reply of Sheriff Van Pelt last evening when asked regarding his stand against the action of the Law and Order League which called upon him as sheriff to see that the laws concerning Sunday observance as enunciated by high legal authority, were enforced. The entire correspondence bearing upon the agitation is as follows: Letter From League, Pensacola, Fla., Sept. 29th, 1909. Mr. J. C. Van Pelt, Sheriff Escambia County, Pensacola, Fla. Dear Sir: The Law and Order League of Pensacola hereby submit to you an opinion given it by Messrs. Blount, Blount & Carter concerning the Sunday law of the state. We hereby request that you see that the law is carried out as above interpreted. Respectfully, W. B. FERRISS, President. N. C. McMILLAN, Sec. The Opinion. "Rev. C. W. Gavin, City. "Dear Sir: The writer, at your request, has investigated the question submitted for our opinion, whether the laws of this state, which prohibit the sale of articles from certain places of business and the carrying on of certain pursuits, business or trade on Sunday. We shall first consider the question from the standpoint of the state statutes, which will be found in Sections 3665-7 general statutes of 1906. The subjects inquired about are: 1. News stands; 2. Moving pictures and kindred shows; 3. Cigar stands; 4. Drug stores; 5. Meat and grocery markets; 6. Fruit and confectionery stands. We shall treat them in the order named. 1. News stands—If newspapers only are sold no violation of the statutes occurs, but the sale of any article of merchandise or other periodical, is illegal. 2. Moving Picture and Kindred Shows—If operated by manual labor or with mechanical power, they are illegal. 3. Cigar stands, drug stores, meat and grocery markets, fruit and confectionery stands—If sales of articles of merchandise are made from these places the statute will be violated except that in cases of emergency or necessity (not merely for the convenience of the customer), the comforts and necessities of life may be disposed of, where the doors are not kept open. Under the city ordinances, selling or keeping open store for the purpose of selling drugs, fruit, fresh meat, breads, newspapers and periodicals, and fresh vegetables, cigars, tobacco, ice cream, soda water, fish or oysters, (if wares are not exposed in doors or on sidewalks), is permitted, but in other respects, the city ordinances are similar to the state statutes so far as the sale of merchandise is concerned. There is no Sunday ordinance prohibiting moving picture or kindred shows. "Very truly, BLOUNT, BLOUNT & CARTER. The Sheriff's Reply. October 2, 1909. Mr. W. B. Ferriss, President Law and Order League, Pensacola, Fla. Dear Sir: I beg to acknowledge the receipt of communication from the Law and Order League of this city, of date of September 29, A. D., 1909, in reference to violations of the Sunday law, and enclosing opinion of Messrs. Blount, Blount & Carter, given to said league. In reply to same, say that while I have a high regard for the opinion of said firm and am ready at all times to perform my duty to the letter relative to the enforcement of the laws of this state, before acting herein I desire to obtain the opinion of the county solicitor, whose duty it is to prosecute such violations, as to his interpretation of the Sunday law, in order that I may not make wrongful arrests and lay myself liable for imprisonment by reason of failure or refusal of said solicitor to file information against parties arrested. I have, therefore, submitted the opinion of Messrs. Blount, Blount & Carter to him, the Hon. Scott M. Loftin for his opinion regarding said Sunday laws, and will take pleasure in communicating to the league his views upon the same as soon as same can be obtained. Yours truly, J. C. VAN PELT, Sheriff.

Solicitor's Opinion. October 2, 1909. Hon. Scott M. Loftin, County Solicitor, Pensacola, Fla. "Dear Sir: Will you kindly give me your written opinion regarding matters contained in the opinion of the Hon. Messrs. Blount, Blount & Carter to Law and Order League, which has been handed you by my deputy. Very truly yours, J. C. VAN PELT, Sheriff. Van Pelt's Decision. October 7, 1909. W. B. Ferriss, Esq., President Law and Order League, Pensacola, Fla. Dear Sir: In compliance with my promise of date of October 2, addressed to you as president of said league, I herewith enclose a copy of the opinion of the county solicitor, as follows: "Replying to your letter of the second instant, requesting me to give you my written opinion regarding matters contained in the opinion of Messrs. Blount, Blount & Carter to the Law and Order League, I beg to state that I have examined said opinion and my conclusion is that it correctly states the law governing the matters therein referred to. I am ready upon a proper affidavit being made to execute any warrant issued by the proper authority for the arrest of anyone violating said laws. Yours very truly, J. C. VAN PELT, Sheriff.

Pirates Win First Game of Series From Detroit Tigers

(Continued From First Page) lin and Schmidt; umpires, Johnstone and O'Loughlin. Time, 1:50. IMMENSE CROWD PRESENT. What was a record-breaking crowd for a world's championship baseball game began to gather early at Forbes field today to witness the opening contest of the big series. Those who were not lucky enough nor rich enough to secure reserved seats at an early hour besieged the gates which were opened several hours before the game was scheduled to begin. A tremendous rush for seats followed and in a short time all but the reserved sections and boxes were filled to overflowing with a baseball mad crowd. Many were content to remain without the gates, straining every nerve to get a glimpse of what was going on behind the high fences. Both teams warmed up in lively fashion and showed plenty of snap and ginger in their work. Managers Clarke and Jennings warmed up three pitchers, Adams, Willis and Leifield were on the warming pan for Pittsburgh, and Mullin, Donovan and Millett were working out their arms for Detroit. Clarke's final choice was Adams, the phenomenal youngster from the Louisville American team who has made such an enviable record for himself with Pittsburgh this season, while the reliable veteran, George Mullin, was the twirler for the American league champions. Following was the line-up of the two teams: Detroit—D. Jones 1b., Bush ss., Cobb rf., Crawford cf., Mortuary 3b., Delehay 2b., T. Jones 1b., Schmidt c., Mullin p. Pittsburgh—Byrne 3b., Leach, cf., Clarke lf., Wagner ss., Miller 2b., Abstein 1b., Wilson rf., Gibson c., Adams p.

Taft Sleeps at Top of Great Granite Cliff

(Continued From First Page) three-mile trail to the foot of the Canyon and spend the day traveling to points of interest at the top of the granite walls. Saturday night will find the president again at the park entrance at El Portal and Sunday morning he will board his special train and head for Southern California. The president is not adhering to the strict diet he started out to follow; the hospitable west has made this impossible. The result has been a considerable taking on of weight. BOTH BOYS SAVED. Louis Boon, a leading merchant of Norway, Mich., writes: "Three bottles of Foley's Honey and Tar absolutely cured my boy of a severe cough, and a neighbor's boy, who was so ill with a cold that the doctors gave him up, was cured by taking Foley's Honey and Tar." FOUND WANDERING ON STREET IN UNDERCLOTHES

Officer Carlsen last night found a white man named George Carter wandering aimlessly on the street attired in underclothes and socks. Carter carried a tin cup and claimed he was in search of water. He talked wildly and acted as if he was bereft of reason, so he was locked up as a dangerous and suspicious character. An hour afterwards when Marshal Sanders called him from his bunk in his cell he said he came from Liverpool. When asked where he had left his clothes he said: "Hin 'bis henmy' house near the newspaper office, 'up 'up 'up' hon the street." It was made out that the "newspaper office" was that of The Journal. The marshal and Turney Roach searched an empty two-story frame building on East Intendencia street and found his clothes.

NO ACTION TAKEN ON C. W. MURPHY'S CASE

By Associated Press. Forbes Field, Pittsburgh, Oct. 8.—The National Commission met at the Schenley Hotel, but did not take the expected action on the re-opening of the Pfeiffer case. President Charles W. Murphy of the Chicago Nationals, has asked for the re-opening of the case for which he was fined $500 for the alleged tampering with Pitcher Pfeiffer of the Toronto Eastern League club. It is thought Murphy will be given 72 hours in which to pay the $500 or be read out of organized baseball. It is also thought he will be reprimanded for his conduct in this case. The commission decided how the umpires were to work throughout the series and especially cautioning the players of both teams concerning rowdism of any sort during the series. It was announced officially that Johnstone would work behind the bat today with O'Loughlin on the bases. Tomorrow Evans will work behind the bat with Klem on the bases.

MONTGOMERY OFFICER RETURNS WITH SANKEY

George Sankey, colored, wanted in Montgomery county, Alabama, for arson at a grand larceny, and also in connection with a postoffice robbery case, was taken in charge by an officer from Montgomery yesterday and returned to that city for trial. Marshal Reynolds, of Tharin, Ala., came after the negro. Read The Journal's Want Ads. and profit thereby.

SUPT. COOK TELLS ABOUT SCHOOL BOOKS

REPLIES TO THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN CRITICIZING ACTION OF BOARD AND STATES THAT THE COST IS LESS THIS YEAR THAN LAST.

Regarding several articles which have appeared in the Vox Populi columns of The Journal, Supt. N. B. Cook, in reply to these writers, yesterday submitted a statement, together with the books in use this year and last, and the respective costs for each. Mr. Cook said: "For the benefit of those who seem to think that radical changes have been made in the text books to be used in the public schools of this county, I request that you publish these two lists of text books in parallel columns. The old list as you see, foots up to $33.34, while the new list is only $23.35, a clear gain of $9.99. Instead of radical changes being made the changes are only a few and in every instance where a change was made, in the opinion of a committee of leading teachers of the county a better book than the old one has been selected. "This list of books covers a twelve-year course, grades 1 to 12 inclusive. No member of the board of public instruction ever stated that they were running free schools, for while there is no tuition charge and the poorest child is admitted without charge, the people are taxed to the tune of $82,000 to pay for these public schools. SUPREME COURT IS IN SESSION

HAD A SITTING MONDAY, WITH ALL MEMBERS OF THE BENCH PRESENT EXCEPTING JUSTICE HOCKER.

Special to the Journal. Tallahassee, Oct. 8.—The supreme court had its first sitting Monday with all the members of the bench present except Justice Hocker, who is expected here by the end of the week. Chief Justice J. B. Whitfield has recently returned from a visit to relatives in Connecticut and seems greatly benefited by the trip. At yesterday's session the following lawyers were admitted to practice in the court: Cleveland R. Pierce, Key West; Alonzo McMullin, Byrd Sparkman, Lawson Magruder, J. Hall Brunsey and Martin Carraballo, all of Tampa. Governor Gilchrist is expected today from Quincy where he went Tuesday to make a speech at the laying of the cornerstone of the Gadsden County Academy. He was joined there yesterday by Hons. W. M. Holloway and Park Trammell, who were en route from Marianna, where they had been in attendance upon the opening meeting of the educational campaign. The governor made an excellent address at the laying of the cornerstone, and was followed by the two members of his cabinet in brief but appropriate remarks. A Tallahasseean who was present both in Marianna and Quincy has said that the governor's speech was the best he had ever heard him make, and that Mr. Holloway excelled any previous effort. Mr. Holloway had this subject of educational awakening and reform near at heart, consequently he is easily aroused to enthusiasm and eloquence when opportunity is given him to present it before the people. Hons. H. Clay Crawford and W. W. Trammell report a delightful outing at Woodville, the occasion being the dedication of the new hall of the Woodmen of the World. The two distinguished visitors made speeches and afterward joined the large audience of more than 200 persons in a delightful moonlight picnic. Messrs. J. M. Barrs and Francis P. Fleming, two distinguished gentlemen of the bar at Jacksonville, have visited Tallahassee this week. John W. Burton, of Arcadia, and Bowers Campbell, of Marianna, are registered at the Leon. Dr. H. E. Palmer has resigned his position as State Medical Examiner and the governor has appointed Dr. George B. Glover, of Monticello, in his stead. Mr. and Mrs. Louis S. Peck and Mrs. Florence A. Gibbons, of Jacksonville, stopped over in Tallahassee last night en route to Panama Springs. Hon. J. M. Rivers, prosecuting attorney for Alachua county, was in the city yesterday. Hon. Henry Sheppard, of Quincy, tax assessor for Gadsden county, is in Tallahassee on business connected with his office. Hon. John L. Neeley, one of Leon's representatives in the last session of the legislature, and a prominent lawyer of Tallahassee, has gone to Pensacola on business before the U. S. court. Hon. D. A. Simmons, former private secretary to Governor Broward, now of the law firm of Newley and Simmons, spent a few days in Jacksonville this week, on legal business and in attendance upon the meeting of the executive board of the Florida Life Insurance Co., of which company Mr. Simmons is medical examiner. He was accompanied by Mr. E. J. Evans, secretary of the company. Mrs. J. F. Park, of Tampa, who has been the guest of her nephew, Hon. Park Trammell, has returned home. Mr. T. R. Hodges, auditor of the Southern Express Co. in Tallahassee, has rented the beautiful residence of Dr. A. A. Murphree, Mr. Hodges' mother has come up from Key West to visit her son in his new home. Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lutz have decided to make Tallahassee their permanent residence and have rented rooms for light housekeeping at the residence of Mr. Rugely, on Park avenue. Miss Belle Lyday is visiting her brother, Mr. Eugene Lyday, manager of the Leon hotel. Miss Lyday is recovering from a severe illness. Mr. and Mrs. William Bell have returned from a pleasant visit to Panama Springs. Mrs. L. A. Perkins left this morning for Texas, where she will visit her mother and other relatives.

BUSY TIMES AT MUSCOGEE

CANE GRINDING AT THE MAGNOLIA FARM—YIELD OF 110 BUSHELS OF CORN TO ACRE. NEW DRY KILNS BEING ERECTED.

Special to the Journal. Muscogee, Oct. 8.—The big stock farm, known as Magnolia farm, belonging to the Southern States Lumber Company, is now busy making preparations for grinding cane. They expect to make about ten thousand gallons of syrup this fall. The cane this year was not as good a crop as they expected, but they made a very fine crop of corn. The prize acre of corn yielded one hundred and ten bushels. Morgan Bros., of Pensacola, were visitors to the farm Saturday for the purpose of buying stock. Men are now busy working on the two new dry kilns and the stock sheds near mill No. 4. They expect to have them completed by November 1. The kilns are built of brick with tile roofing, thus making them fire-proof. The Muscogee school opened Friday, Oct. 1. The teachers for the present year are Miss Eva G. Vaughn, Miss Alice Henderson, Miss Cena Coley and Miss Jean Patterson. One hundred and eleven children were present.

Sunday Was Rally Day

Sunday, Sept. 26, was Rally Day in the Muscogee Sunday school. A large number of pupils were present. Mr. Cottrell, the photographer from Pensacola, was out and took a number of views of the Sunday school. For the past two years the Muscogee Sunday school has been in a very flourishing condition, and it is now larger than ever before. Much of its success is due to the ability, faithfulness and untiring efforts of its superintendent, W. C. Lott. Superintendent Lott took the school in charge two or three years ago and since that time it has made rapid progress and done much good work. Last Sunday the school was presented with eight large flags in red and white, a flag for each class. Besides these flags, two other flags were presented, one for attendance and one for collection. These two flags are to be given at the end of each quarter to the class which had the best attendance and collection for that quarter. Personal Mention. Misses Vera and Erma McDavid, of Pensacola, are visiting at the home of Mrs. Alex McKinnon. Miss Mary Lewis, of Pedro, Ala., who has been visiting this summer at the home of her sister, Mrs. E. M. Price, returned to her home Saturday. Mr. Lewis, Mrs. Price's father, is now visiting her. A. Moore, of Pensacola, has accepted a position in the Muscogee store. His friends here are glad to know that he has returned to Muscogee. Mrs. Ollie Mullins and little son returned home Wednesday from a visit to her mother in Pensacola. Lyman Nellums was a visitor to Pensacola Saturday. Miss Alice Henderson, of Lancaster, Ky., returned to Muscogee Wednesday. Her many friends here are glad to welcome her back again. Miss Henderson, who has been spending her vacation in Kentucky and Virginia, holds a position here in the Muscogee school. Rev. Mr. Abbott, of Cottage Hill, conducted services here Sunday. This was the last Sunday of Mr. Abbott's year here. At a meeting of the members of the Baptist church, which was held after services Sunday, Mr. Abbott was recalled for another year by the Muscogee Baptist church. We are glad to know that he is to be with us again. Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Bonifay spent Sunday at Roberts. Steve Lee, of Pensacola, was a visitor to Muscogee Monday. Mrs. Richard Mosley and little daughter, Gladys, returned Saturday from a very pleasant visit to relatives in Alabama. Miss Sophia Lang, who has been on the sick list for the past week, is able to be out again. Miss Mabel Merritt has returned to Beulah to resume her duties as assistant teacher in the Beulah school. She will be missed very much in Muscogee. Her friends here are glad to know that she will be able to spend her Saturdays and Sundays at home in Muscogee. Charlie Seals, of Samson, was a visitor to Muscogee Saturday, the guest of his daughter, Mrs. George Lewis. J. R. Henderson, Jim Dickson and F. M. Henderson spent Tuesday and Wednesday on a fishing trip on the Escambia river. Making Up Laps. Mrs. Backbay—That lussy from Chicago is trying to push her way into society. I wonder if she realizes that our family is at least three hundred years older than hers. Mr. Backbay—Probably; but at the rate she's marrying they are only about two generations behind us now.
