BOOST, BOOM, BUILD—THAT'S ALL.

Panama City has "bought" a dock—bravo! How about Pensacola?

O, for ten thousand bales of cotton stored in a fire-proof warehouse!

Spanish cabinets and Russian bureaus are equally unpopular articles for either use or ornament.

He is a poor specimen of humanity who throws the blame for his misdeeds on any person or thing except himself.

BOOST, BOOM, BUILD—THAT'S ALL.

Proper care of the city parks—what a valuable asset it would be, both for beauty and for the health and joy of the children.

The Quincy fire department is organizing a brass band, but will, as formerly, play on burning houses with hose and nozzle.

There will be a considerable airing of ancient skeletons and shaking of dry bones if the new Spanish cabinet is allowed full swing.

Florida will now manufacture real "Havana" cigars as a factory is about to be installed in the town bearing the name of the Cuban capital.

It may be that a broken heart had as much to do with Pat McCarren's death as the effect of the operation he underwent—for Murphy is on top.

THE TIME DRAWS CLOSE FOR THE TRI-COUNTY FAIR AND EXHIBITORS SHOULD HASTEN TO MAKE THEIR ENTRIES.

All that money borrowed by New York banks from foreign countries must be paid back with interest, and thereby hangs a tail—not a fairy tale either.

The free correspondence course in agriculture offered by the University of Florida should be taken advantage of by every young farmer who admits he does not "know it all."

The first number of Editor John C. Trice's publication, "Florida," issued at Tallahassee, is a credit to the press of the state and augurs long life and a broad field of usefulness.

PEERLESS PENSACOLA, THE BEST PORT SOUTH OF PORTSMOUTH.

The organization or reorganization of boards of trade and chambers of commerce in many Florida towns is a notable occurrence these days. It speaks of commercial activity and all that that means to city, county and state.

The Columbus, Georgia, board of trade, indignant with President Taft because his promised visit to the city will be limited to ten minutes—scarcely long enough to eat a sandwich—has tabled a resolution to welcome him officially. Thus the great "harmonizer" has produced a discord which will give the "shakes" to the empire state of Jawlaw.

PEERLESS PENSACOLA, THE BEST PORT SOUTH OF PORTSMOUTH.

The Sun is a strong believer in probation sentences for violators of the law for the first offense. A jail sentence at hard labor, with a parole of the culprit pending good behavior, will do more to deter people from committing crime the second time than the heaviest fine that could be imposed.—Gainesville Sun.

Editor McCreary herein shows his knowledge of humanity and a humanity equal to his knowledge.

BOOST, BOOM, BUILD—THAT'S ALL.

Words To Freeze The Soul.

"Your son has Consumption. His case is hopeless." These appalling words were spoken to Geo. E. Blevens, a leading merchant of Springfield, N. C. by two expert doctors—one a lung specialist. Then was shown the wonderful power of Dr. King's New Discovery. "After three weeks' use," writes Mr. Blevens, "he was as well as ever. I would not take all the money in the world for what it did for my boy." Infallible for Coughs and Colds, it's the safest, surest cure of desperate Lung diseases on earth. 50c. and $1.00. WHISKEY AND BRASS KNUCKLES

Whiskey, brass knuckles and disorderly conduct generally was the combination which caused R. S. Crockett, a widely known young white man, to spend last night in a cell at the police station. Crockett was sent in by Officer Collins who in searching him found the knuckles in his pocket. The weapon was entrusted to Wagon Officer Roach, who carried the same to the station. Crockett endeavored to get out on bond, but Captain Wilde would consider nothing less than $500, and the friends of Crockett balked.

To be caught with brass knuckles in the pocket in Florida means a fine of not less than $100 in either city or county courts. The law makes the minimum at that figure, but in some cases in the criminal court when surrounding circumstances have so justified, in the opinion of Judge Beggs, an even more severe penalty has been imposed.

85 GATHERED IN FROM RAIDS

Eighty-five white women from alleged immoral houses were gathered in from a series of raids in the restricted district late last night by deputies from the sheriff's office. All made bond for their appearance in preliminary trial or before Judge Beggs in the criminal court at the regular term next month. Justice Nickelsen was summoned for the purpose of approving bonds, which were in the sum of $50 in each case. Two hours after the first batch reached the county jail had signed securities for their appearances.

Deputies Johnson, Nichols and Jones made the raids. Trouble was experienced in but one case when one of the unfortunates refused to walk to the county jail and announced such refusal in strong language. She was the only one of the entire bunch locked in a cell, but for only a short time. The raiding attracted considerable attention and scores of persons standing idly around watched proceedings with interest.

Sixty negro women were arrested last week and all succeeded in making bond. Unless many plead guilty before the regular court term opens, it will mean the heaviest docket that has ever been made out at any one term of the criminal court.

A SHAKING UP

COMPLIMENT FOR LOCAL AD WRITER

The October number of "The Laundryman's Guide," published in Atlanta, contains a reproduction of an advertisement run in a recent issue of The Journal by the Star Laundry of this city.

That the ad. is one of educational value in the "Guide's" campaign against disease spreading in laundry work is the reason given for its reprint as well as the fact that it is a good ad. in itself.

The writer of the advertisement is one of the members of the above firm and he should feel highly complimented by the "Guide's" selection of his work.

Charcoal Lozenges Powerful Absorbents

Offensive Breath and Stomach Gases Cannot Exist When They Are Used.

Charcoal, by virtue of its porous nature, takes up gases mechanically just as a sponge takes up water. Its capacity in this respect is in proportion to the number and fineness of its pores. Charcoal made from poplar, beechwood, vegetable ivory, cocoa-nut shells and willow-wood, is a compact, heavy substance, having a metallic luster, the pores being quite invisible.

Chemical tests of various kinds performed by expert chemists have revealed the fact that charcoal made from willow wood, is not only absolutely harmless, but that it is by far the most powerful absorbent of all kinds of gases. Certain other woods, mentioned above, are used by some manufacturers in making charcoal, and besides not being half as effective in absorbing stomach-gases, have also been found to be positively harmful to the digestive system.

Willow-wood charcoal is, then, the very best for the purpose of absorbing excessive gases from the stomach, relieving intestinal flatulency, and purifying foul breath. Charcoal to be effective against gastric flatulence must be introduced among the gases of the stomach in the same state as when fresh from the crucible. The means of effecting this is to compress some of the charcoal into lozenges, and before being dissolved in the mouth and swallowed, the charcoal is "set free", and at once begins its work of oxidizing and absorbing foul gases, and also, through its antiseptic properties, of purifying the entire alimentary tract.

It is definitely known that the absorbent and cleansing action of charcoal is protracted and continued through the intestinal system as well as in the stomach, and it proves beneficial there also.

STUART'S CHARCOAL LOZENGES have a gas-absorbing remedy which readily takes precedence over all others. The charcoal used in them is the very best that can be obtained. They are composed of the finest young willow-wood, converted into charcoal by the special carbonizing Stuart Process, and before being compressed into lozenges, the powdered charcoal is rendered sweet and thoroughly agreeable to the taste by being mixed with pure honey, and the result is a product equally as palatable as candy.

Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges have attained a wide popularity among the people, millions of boxes being sold every year. They have, over and over again proven their efficiency as rapid and powerful absorbents of foul stomach-gases, relieving and curing flatulence, belching, or the eructation of gases, and finally in the purification of offensive breath.

Buy a package of these little lozenges from your druggist for 25 cents and forward us your name and address for free sample package. Address, F. A. Stuart Co., 200 Stuart Bldg., Marshall, Mich.

SELMIANS AND LOCALS PLAY

Differing in weight averages about thirty pounds, the heavier being the Alabamians, did not work much to the disadvantage of the Athletics of this city who played in Selma Friday a team from the Selma Military Institute. This was the initial game for the Pensacola youngsters, and they worked wonders. Their average weight was 135 pounds, against that of the Selmians of 165 pounds, and the later was made up of players of note in Alabama. They were used to meeting teams of Auburn University and Marion Military Institute. They really expected to walk away with the P. A. C. boys.

The gridiron in Selma interfered greatly with playing by Pensacola boys. The dust was fearful and in plenty. The S. M. I. boys scored a touch-down after two minutes of play. Then came the brilliant work of the P. A. C. boys. On line plunging and end runs they were outclassed, but on defense they succeeded in holding their own. After seven minutes of play a splendid forward was made by Capt. Barrow to Tackle Boyett, who, after a splendid run of 75 yards, succeeded in crossing the S. M. I. goal line with effective interference. This goal made the first one scored against the Selma boys this season. Palmes kicked the goal to complete the score of 6. A short time afterward Capt. Barrow was knocked out and Palmes took his position at quarter-back. Then, after another touch-down and no kick by the S. M. I. the ball was never carried from the field on account of fast playing by both teams. The fumbling of the S. M. I. team and the quick recovery by F. A. C. accounted for this. P. A. C. was fast in recovering their punting, and making great gains in this manner. The game ended with a score—S. M. I. 11, P. A. C. 6.
