

Avoid Harsh Drugs Many Cathartics Tend to Cause Injury to the Bowels

If you are subject to constipation, you should avoid strong drugs and cathartics. They only give temporary relief and their reaction is harmful and sometimes more annoying than constipation. They in no way effect a cure and their tendency is to weaken the already weak organs with which they come in contact.

We honestly believe that we have the best constipation treatment ever devised. Our faith in it is so strong that we sell it on the positive guarantee that it shall not cost the user a cent if it does not give entire satisfaction and completely remedy constipation. This preparation is called Rexall Orderlies. These are prompt, soothing and most effective in action. They are made of a recent chemical discovery. The principal ingredient is odorless, tasteless and colorless. Combined with other well known ingredients, long established for their usefulness in the treatment of constipation, it forms a tablet which is eaten just like candy. They may be taken at any time of the day or night without fear of their causing any inconvenience whatever. They do not grip, purge nor cause nausea. They act without causing any pain or excessive looseness of the bowels. They are ideal for children, weak, delicate persons and aged people as well as for the most hearty person.

They come in two size packages, 12 tablets 10 cents, 26 tablets 25 cents. Remember you can obtain them only at our store, The Rexall Store. The Crystal Pharmacy.

dark of the case. Let's on—the road shall clear I promise you." (11-312-315.) Next—here is his first safe adjudication of the case: "Now, here take breath and ask— which bird of the brace deceived the other into clapping? who was fool, who knave? Neither and both, perchance." And here is his final verdict—(11-503-505). "The long and the short is, truth seems what I show—all this talk talked was not for nothing that we talked I hope? Both know as much about it, now at least, As all Rome: no particular thanks, I beg." (11-1808, 1625-8).

This is the whole upshot: particular thanks, indeed! We may well class him with the mob, with what he chooses to name the rabble's brabble of reasonless unreasoning Rome. In the second place, this book is not, as some have suggested, a stroke at the institution of democracy. The bourgeois of the two halves of Rome is no worse than the 1st word quality has to say. Besides, what is the inference, if each class alone has a wrong opinion or none? What save this, that it is better to trust the whole people than any warped section of them? In this third place, why did Half Rome admit of thirteen interruptions? Other Half Rome of none, and Tertium Quid of only seven? Perhaps it is because no supporter of Guido could hold his man so firmly: because Browning wants perfect attention when Pompilia receives her first favorable presentation; and because, in the third instance, His Highness and His Excellency, though buttonholed in a window corner, had gone half asleep.

interested in the case. He was undoubtedly the least interested of the three. It would be truer to say that they were all interested in the case, none of them in the person; although Half Rome and his fellow would have hotly denied this; yes, and taken some hundred or more extra lines to do it in. Browning's ironical dramatization of this representative aristocrat is a shrewd blow at mankind rather than at aristocracy. He does indeed expose the follies incident to blue blood gone anaemic. But the follies of the low-lorn are elsewhere un-

AT THE MISSION THIS AFTERNOON.
An interesting meeting will take place this afternoon at the Mission, a feature of which will be a vocal solo by Miss Nell Richards with a full Mission chorus. There will be some good, strong mission talk, and plans laid for the future. All are invited to attend.

HIGH SCHOOL DANCE WAS A PLEASANT AFFAIR.
The Athletic association of the Pensacola High School gave a delightful dance last night at the Catholic Knights hall in honor of the High School girls and the Brewton Collegiate Institute. The hall had been decorated in the maroon and white, white gayly colored pennants were also used as attractive decorations. Fruit punch and cake were served, the guests having been received by a committee composed of High School girls. High School affairs are always full of a zest and snap which characterize few social events of other varieties, and last night's bright event was no exception to the rule. The Brewton young people who are a fine set of students, left on the night train last night, after having been given just the finest sort of send off imaginable by the local boys and girls.

Mr. Walter A. Halbert of Chicago.
Leaving the city about 11:30, the visitors were shown the points of interest in our beautiful harbor, the boat running past the bay shore homes, Navy Yard and forts, to the bar.

Of course, this is an old story to Capt. O'Brien, but Capt. Sanner (the head of the Baltimore pilots) was very much impressed with the fine entrance to Pensacola harbor, with its straight channel of never less than 32 feet depth, as well as with the magnificence and beauty of the harbor itself, and said that Pensacola had every reason to be proud of it.

Returning from the bay the party stopped at the Monarch hotel, at Santa Rosa beach, where a fish dinner was enjoyed, after which the steamer was boarded, and the happy party returned to the city about 5 p. m., the visitors leaving for home that evening.

MISS LURLEYNE FULGHUM TO PLAY AT GADSDEN STREET M. E. CHURCH TODAY.

Among the attractions at the Gadsden Street M. E. church today will be a fine violin solo, which is to be played by Miss Lurleyne Fulghum at the morning services. Miss Fulghum is a young musician in whom the local musical world holds much interest, and she is always heard with pleasure.

NEW ORCHESTRA FOR THE GADSDEN STREET M. E. SUNDAY SCHOOL.

A very creditable new orchestra, organized among some well known local artists, is attracting much attention of late and will make its first appearance at the Gadsden Street M. E. Sunday school this morning. The fine new musical organization has the following membership: Mrs. C. M. Wilson, Jr., first violin; Miss Leo Burton, second violin; Clyde Williams, cornet; Mr. Crossap, trombone, and Miss Lillie Williams, pipe organ.

ARE ENTERTAINING MR. AND MRS. JACKSON RICHARDS.

A General Utility List For Practical, Sensible People

For several weeks, you see, we've been out of some of our strongest, best selling lines, and, as a logical result, our people have been calling for them incessantly.

Some recent arrivals, however, in the popular Sampson Galateas (colors guaranteed), in our special double-fold Gingham, and in other strong, reliable stuffs, place us right with the trade again. In other words, call on us for most anything, just now, for we've a mighty fine, mighty complete all-around line in these practical numbers, all told. Here's a memoranda of this special list:

- 25 Pieces BEST QUALITY CURTAIN SWISSES, in assorted styles, the thing for fresh, clean windows, which are shining now after the autumn house cleaning. Some have rings and dots, others fanciful tracings of various designs, and the material is of unusually good value. Special, 10c per yard.
- THE NO-BUTTON MOLINE UNDERWEAR, which fits without the suspicion of a wrinkle anywhere, and does away entirely with the buttoning nuisance, is the very style for the close-fitting, one-piece Moyen age effects, just now. A clever arrangement of draw ribbons closes the garments with a precision and an exactness which makes them desirable, indeed, for careful dressers. There is only one mill in the world, by the way, where these particular garments are made, and we've their exclusive sale in this city. Fleece lined, ribbed, and in regular sizes 25 and 50c, out sizes 35c and 65c at yard at 20c.
- VERY SATISFACTORY and a REAL DELIGHT, in their good, practical durability, are our new, special double-fold Gingham. They fill so many needs and are so generally sought after by our people, who know the kind we carry, that they need no further introduction. All colors, all styles, per yard 12½c.
- Our line of SEASONABLE KNIT UNDERWEAR is attracting any amount of attention from the careful buyers, right now. First place, we carry the famous Merode line, known by everybody everywhere. Some styles are silk and wool, some are all wool, and others are all cotton. We've union suits and separate garments in all weights and all styles. They range in price per garment 50c to $2 from.

If you're a practical, far-seeing person, you'll see mighty fine, spanking values here. Leave it to us!

EVERYTHING TO WEAR.

is remarkably spry and young. Probably the most remarkable characteristic with him is his memory, which reaches back to the days of General Andrew Jackson, who was a personal friend to the Richards family.

Mr. Richards also has the distinction of being an Indian interpreter of some note in years gone by.

After a stay of a few days in Pensacola, he will visit relatives on Bayou Grande.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chaffin, of Florence, Italy, will spend the winter here.

Miss Daisey Hyer was to have sailed from Liverpool for home yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Hyer will remain several weeks longer.

Mrs. Julian S. Sibley is visiting in the east.

Mrs. J. E. Conchannon is entertaining her nieces, the Misses Laverne of Indiana.

Hon. Emmet Wilson is in Chicago.

Miss Louise Bond will leave at noon today to be the guest of relatives and friends in Montgomery.

Miss Francis Walker is visiting her sister at Casswell, Ala.

Little Miss Nellie Bell the bright little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Fleming, is convalescing, after a siege of typhoid fever, to the delight of her parents and friends.

Miss Rosie Thompson, of Bay Minette, is the charming guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Fleming.

Many school children suffer from constipation, which is often the cause of seeming stupidity at lessons. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are an ideal medicine to give a child, for they are mild and gentle in their effect, and will cure even chronic constipation.

Lots of people want ostrich feathers. Lots of people want to pay around 98c. See Miss Herriman's special sale tomorrow. By attending early, you'll have your pick. (FINE BLACK AND WHITE OSTRICH PLUMES ON SPECIAL SALE. GO!)

ASK YOURSELF

- WHY were we awarded the contract for steam-heating the $50,000.00 Methodist church at Dawson, Ga., THIS WEEK?
- BECAUSE we installed a similar heating plant for the same parties six years ago, in a most satisfactory manner and at a reasonable price.
- WHY were we awarded the contract for the plumbing in the marine barracks at the navy yard, THIS WEEK?
- BECAUSE we submitted a reasonable price and the officials know that we are installing $10,000.00 worth of plumbing at Fort Barrancas in a very satisfactory manner.
- WHY are we installing the plumbing in Mr. J. T. Hughes' $20,000.00 residence in Florida, Ala., THIS WEEK?
- BECAUSE we were recommended to him by one of our satisfied clients for whom we had installed work years ago.
- WHY are we installing the plumbing in the new bank and office building at Milton, Fla., THIS WEEK?
- BECAUSE the owners have known us for the past ten years and know us to be a responsible firm and first-class mechanics.
- WHY are we installing plumbing in some twenty-five houses in Pensacola, THIS WEEK?
- BECAUSE our client, knowing that he has obtained satisfactory results at a reasonable price and desiring that his neighbor share with him in his good fortune, he advises him to have McGHAN do his work.
