THE WEEK'S EVENTS

Mr. and Mrs. John Pfeiffer Celebrate Their 25th Anniversary.

Twenty-five years ago last night, there occurred, in the city of Mobile, the wedding of two prominent young people, the linking together of two worthy lives which were each to be made infinitely more beautiful and more complete by the impressive words of the man of God, said so many years ago on that October night. The marriage was an important affair in social circles, and all the ushers and all the bridesmaids still live to remember the event.

Last night the couple said the old vows over again—pledged a new troth with the exchange of silver rings in keeping with the silver threads in the hair of the bride and groom—and they were Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Pfeiffer, who in their lovely home on North Palafox street, celebrated the 25th anniversary of their marriage with one of the brilliant receptions of the season.

Perhaps no home ever appeared in a manner so nearly akin to fairyland itself than did the Pfeiffer home last night.

The first floor had been garlanded with flashing silvery ropes of tinsel, while great white throated bells and those which were tiny and silver, and which tinkled pleasantly in groups of two and three, swung from archways and chandeliers, and from every point of artistic display. Great palms had also been used for the general decorative effect, and it was in a bower of the deep shadowy greenery of the plants, over which swung more wedding bells in soft white profusion, that the ceremony of the evening occurred.

When the wedding march had been played and the wedding party appeared before the Rev. J. F. W. Reinhart, an interesting scene presented itself.

Attending the bridal couple were their children, Messrs. Arthur, Clarence and Herbert Pfeiffer, with Miss Louise Pfeiffer, their two nieces, Misses Emma and Ida Kramer, and their nephews, Mr. Jno. Kramer, Mr. J. E. Taylor, Mr. J. E. Taylor, Jr., and Mr. J. E. Taylor, III.

Impressive words of the marriage ceremony were re-read, and the old sweet vows, made sacred things indeed with the winters and the summers of 25 years that had passed, were taken over again.

Mr. and Mrs. Pfeiffer were a fine appearing, happy bridal pair as they turned to receive the congratulations of their friends. To those who know Mrs. Pfeiffer, whose sweet face radiates the glad that is in her heart, where tranquil thoughts and deeds that are noble and pure find delightful expression, her appearance was even a source of pleasant surprise and exclamation. Her silver gray satin gown, made princess, accentuated the girlish lines of her figure, and silver passementerie glistened beautifully as the most attractive of trimming. She wore white slippers and white gloves, her jewelry having been a diamond sunburst. A dainty little silver hair ornament lit up her pretty hair. Mrs. Pfeiffer, in fact, made one of the daintiest "silver brides" imaginable, the idea having been carried out perfectly by all the little niceties of her costumes.

In the reception hall was Mrs. F. Rust Smith, handsome in a gown of green silk tissue, and Miss Louise Pfeiffer, a pretty young lady who looks like her pretty mother, in an elaborate blue messaline dress trimmed in silver. Mrs. Chas. Rice, another very attractive young matron, attired in a beautiful green and chamois gown, presided at the registration table.

In the dining room, where the handsome decorations still prevailed, were displayed the gifts, a beautiful array of costly things which bespoke the loving esteem in which both Mr. and Mrs. Pfeiffer are held. Among those received was a silver tea service from the Frzen Vereln, of which Mrs.

MRS. GARDNER KNOWS VALUE

Of a Medicine That Prevented Necessity For an Operation—Cardui, The Woman's Tonic.

Waco, Tex.—Mrs. M. B. Gardner, of A. F. D. No. 4, Waco, Tex., writes: "I will recommend Cardui to all my friends for I know its value."

"I suffered with female trouble for twenty years and five doctors declared that I would have to have an operation, but I took Cardui instead and believe that Cardui is the cause of my improvement in health."

Take a tonic when you are tired, all the time, when your night's sleep does not rest you; when your head is dull and dizzy and frequently aches, when everything seems to go wrong and your thoughts are blue.

The trouble is that you need a tonic—Cardui, of course, the woman's tonic.

The weak, worn-out nerves show the effects of strain, the tired racked body needs help to build up the nerves.

Cardui will give it.

Made of purely vegetable, perfectly harmless ingredients, Cardui is no ordinary drug medicine.

No physician can prescribe a medicine made from Cardui ingredients, because not in the pharmacopoeia or in any drug store.

The principal herb ingredients are especially imported by us from Europe—collected there especially for us—to make the medicine that for over 50 years has been helping sick women back to health.

Try it.

Helpful Hints on Hair Health

Scalp and Hair Troubles Generally Caused by Carelessness.

Dandruff is a contagious disease caused by a microbe which also produces baldness. Never use a comb or brush belonging to some one else. No matter how cleanly the owner may be, these articles may be infected with microbes, which will infect your scalp. It is far easier to catch hair microbes than it is to get rid of them, and a single stroke of an infected comb or brush may well lead to baldness. Never try on anybody else's hat. Many a hand is a resting place for microbes.

If you happen to be troubled with dandruff, itching scalp, falling hair or baldness, we have a remedy which we believe will completely relieve these troubles. We are so sure of this that we offer it to you with the understanding that it will cost you nothing for the trial if it does not produce the results we claim. This remedy is called Rexall "93" Hair Tonic. We honestly believe it to be the most scientific remedy for scalp and hair troubles, and we know of nothing else that equals it for effectiveness, because of the results it has produced in thousands of cases.

Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is devised to banish dandruff, restore natural color when its loss has been brought about by disease, and make the hair naturally silky, soft and glossy. It does this because it stimulates the hair follicles, destroys the germ matter, and brings about a free, healthy circulation of blood, which nourishes the hair roots, causing them to tighten and grow new hair. We want everybody who has any trouble with hair or scalp to know that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is the best hair tonic and restorative ever existed, and no one should scoff at or doubt this statement until they have put our claims to a fair test, with the understanding that they pay us nothing for the remedy if it does not give full and complete satisfaction in every particular. Two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember you can obtain Rexall Remedies in Pensacola only at our store—The Rexall Store. The Crystal Pharmacy, Brent Building.
