WATCH YOURSELF GO BY.

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.
 Think of yourself as "he," instead of "I."
 Note closely, as in other men you note,
 The bag-kneed trousers and the seedy coat.
 Pick flaws; find fault; forget the man is you.
 And strive to make your estimate ring true.
 Confront yourself and look you in the eye—
 Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

Interpret all your motives just as tho' you looked on one whose aims you did not know,
 Let undisguised contempt surge thru you when
 You see you shirk, O commonest of men!
 Despise your cowardice; condemn what'er
 You note of falseness in you anywhere.
 Defend not one defect that shames your eye—
 Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

And then, with eyes unveiled to what you loathe—
 To sins that with sweet charity you'd clothe—
 Back to your self-walled tenement you'll go
 With tolerance for all who dwell below.
 The faults of others then will dwarf and shrink,
 Love's chain grow stronger by one mighty link—
 When you, with "he" as substitute for "I,"
 Have stood aside and watched yourself go by.

—Strickland W. Gillilan.

QUERIES FOR DISCUSSION FOR THE BROWNING CLUB.

BOOK II.
 Is the speaker who represents Half-Rome individual or typical?
 What sort of public opinion does he represent in speaking of Guido and Pomfalia, the escape with Caponsacchi, and Violante and Pietro?
 Does he show bias? Can you point out any evidence. Does his desire to influence the opinion of the man with whom he is gossiping lead you to guess anything of his story?
 Do his pen pictures of Carlo and Luca Cini show humor and knowledge of human nature?
 Does he show shrewdness in his way of telling how the murder came to pass?
 Is his narrative to be depended on for some qualities, if not for the facts altogether?
 Is the cynical picture of the cold comfort Guido's friends offer him life-like?
 What is his moral outlook on life? Does his talk give you a clue as to what his judgment is worth in the case? What is his view of domestic lynch law?
 In considering that the civil process of justice is inadequate to cure such wrongs as he thinks to be Guido's, is he altogether wrong?
 Does his proposition to make every husband his own judge throw light on the difficulty of or on his own character?
 In his point of view, is he historically true to half of public opinion in the seventeenth century?
 Is his distinction between the wrongs done a man personally and those done to his property and the power of the law to redress them, well taken?
 How would it apply in the present time in comparison with the seventeenth century?

W. C. T. U. TO MEET THIS AFTERNOON.

AT THE SALVATION ARMY LAST NIGHT.

Special services took place last night at the Salvation Army hall on West Government street, apropos to the plan of Adjutant Grimsaap to conduct a regular campaign of saving souls. The Rev. Mr. Sibley, of the First Presbyterian church, spoke on appropriate lines, there having been a good sized audience present. Mr. Gavin, of the First M. E. church, will speak tomorrow night.

MANY ATTENDED ALL-SOULS' DAY-OBSERVANCES.

Many were present at the various All-Souls' Day observances at the local Catholic churches and cemeteries yesterday, the candles having been lighted last night at dusk, transforming old St. Michael's, especially, into a spot of weird beauty. Waxen white flowers mingled their dying breath with that of the night wind, and the tapers, even as waxen, burned brightly in memory of the loved ones. At Warrington fitting observances also occurred.

Facts For Sick Women

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or secured so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every woman you meet has either been benefited by it, or knows some one who has.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made exclusively from roots and herbs, and is perfectly harmless.

The reason why it is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the female organism, restoring it to healthy and normal activity.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials such as the following prove the efficiency of this simple remedy.

Minneapolis, Minn.:—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women, I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. Within three months I was a perfectly well woman."

"I want this letter made public to show the benefits to be derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

Mrs. John G. Moldan, 2115 Second St. North, Minneapolis, Minn.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

THE HALLOWEEN DANCE LAST NIGHT OF THE "JOLLY CLUB."

Pensacola's new social organization, the "Jolly club," lived up to its name fully last night, when one of the most novel affairs of the season took place at the K. of C. hall under the auspices of that very interesting new organization. The ladies, who had been asked to come garbed in orange and black, and to appear masked, proved an attractive, if mystifying, group, there having been no end of conjectures as to "who was who" and "why." Splendid music had been provided, the dance having been one of the most successful Halloween affairs which has been conducted this year.

Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey, of the Navy Yard, Mr. Lee, Mr. Mansfield Moreno, Mr. Tino Brent, Mr. McMillan and Dr. Ernest Quina.

IN HONOR OF DR. CLARENCE HUTCHINSON AND WIFE.

Mr. H. H. Thornton entertained yesterday afternoon with a gay party on the "Monarch," complimentary to Dr. Clarence Hutchinson and his charming wife, who is so pleasantly remembered as Miss Marguerite Skinner.

The Monarch left the dock about noon, steaming down the bay, past the Navy Yard and forts to the mouth of the harbor, and after a peep at the gulf turned up to the Monarch hotel, where the party landed and idled on the beautiful sands of Santa Rosa beach until called to the hotel. There a fish dinner was served on the front gallery, and enjoyed while watching the rolling surf from the large zinc gliding softly on to the snow white beach.

The afternoon was ideal—the company congenial, but the sinking sun gave warning that it was time to return, and the jolly party started for home, enjoying a glorious sun set and wishing for the popular young couple, in whose honor the party was given.

ORANGE BLOSSOM SUPPOSITORY IS A GRAND REMEDY FOR ALL FEMALE DISEASES.

Mrs. Ida Gilmore, 127 Jerome Ave., Owasco Mich., writes: "I can truly say that the Orange Blossom Compound is worth its weight in gold and more to any woman suffering with female weakness as I did for years. I was an invalid for two years, not able to wash a dish or make my bed. Four of the best physicians gave me up and said I could not live. The fifth physician said there was one chance and that was an operation. At this time a friend sent me a circular telling about Orange Blossom Compound. I read it carefully and as a last hope decided to give it a trial. I purchased a box of Orange Blossom Compound and the first treatment gave me a little relief. I used four months' treatment and from that time until now, which is about eighteen years, I have never known what it was to have backache, headache or any other pain or ache from this old trouble. I feel it my duty to make known to suffering women the great good that the Orange Blossom Compound has done for me. $1.00, by all druggists. Call on The Crystal Pharmacy, Pensacola, Fla., for a book and free sample."

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING OF THE FIVE HUNDRED CLUB.

The Five Hundred club held one of its very delightful meetings last night at the handsome home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Davis, on Lee street. Both Mr. and Mrs. Davis are ideal in the role of entertainers, and the jolly membership made the hours slip rapidly with not only the fascinating game of 500, but also with various games which had a tinge of Halloween's propors to the season. An apple ducking contest proved exceptionally interesting, in which Mr. Cranston "shone" beautifully. Mr. Peter Murphy and Mr. Davis with Mr. Beyers having proved close seconds.

Mrs. Beyers also exhibited great skill in this particular process. Other Halloween games were played, a fruit course having put the right touch to the prettily planned evening. The club will meet next time with Mrs. Dan Murphy, but great plans are under way just at present for a general "time" on circus day, when the entire membership will go to see the elephant and things as offered by Mr. Barnham. Ten cents worth of the peanuts, in fact, are already as-

OFFICIAL CALL FOR W. C. T. U. CONVENTION

The twenty-sixth annual convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union of Florida will convene at Ferris, Tex.—A letter from Mary Kilman of this place, recites how Cardui, used as a tonic, made her well and brought back her strength.

"I was confined to my bed for three months" she says, "and during this time suffered untold agony. I had a rising tumor or something of the kind in my right side. The doctor said an operation was almost inevitable and it really looked as if there was no other way. The rising burst and I was in a critical condition, when I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic. I used two bottles and now I am well and able to do a great part of my work. I can always speak a good word for this excellent tonic medicine."

Do you need a tonic? Nobody knows, so well as you, whether you do or not. A tonic is to help you over the hard places, to relieve headache and other unnecessary pains, the signs of nerve exhaustion or over-work. It is to make you feel fresh and bright when you feel tired, mopey and drowsy. To help you feel a pleasure in your work when you wish you were dead, rather than have to do it. Don't cry, or worry. Take Cardui, the woman's tonic.

Wine of Cardui for sale at The Crystal Pharmacy.
