Refused Twenty Thousand For One Year's Crop on Trees

Every homeseeker now in Florida and every person who has the slightest interest whatever in Florida, should read the following from the columns of the Bartow (Fla.) Record and, after reading it, if he is not firmly convinced that Florida is the "poor man's paradise" as well as the "rich man's playground," he must indeed be hard to please.

"Charles Blood, of Terra Ceia, Florida, has a grapefruit grove of eleven acres which he irrigates with an artesian well. He has refused $20,000 for this year's crop on the trees. Now how does this bare statement of fact strike the inhabitants of our cotton growing states? A few years ago Mr. Blood was a genial and deserving citizen of Bartow. He may have had his troubles, (as who has not?) but among them was no perplexity as to how to spend his income. He had optimism, energy and initiative and now he has wealth. And not this alone, but happiness and content. The mere statement that a man has an income of $20,000 need occasion no surprise of comment. However, couple this statement with the fact that this man has achieved this by a few years' efforts, out in the open amid the laughing waters of the Mexican gulf whose breezes fan his cheek as he works to the music of the mockingbird, who sings in December as in May; that his wants during this time have been few and easily supplied; that the waters at his door teem with fish, the forest with game; that his soul is satisfied with the perfume and beauty of the oranges, magnolia and jessamine that rot in tropical luxuriance everywhere; and that no rent collecting landlord haunts his dreams. Add to all of this that this man is living the life of a god and not a slave; that the fear of no man's displeasures cowers his will or curtails his enjoyment of the unrivaled beauty of his environment and the intoxicating joy in a climate that God vouchsafed to no other place in equal degree. I say considering these things, if I lived in another place than here and knew of this, if I had not the price of a railroad ticket 'I'd commence to count the ties' between here and there tomorrow.

"Where else on earth can so great value be created from an acre? Mr. Blood gets nearly $2,000 per acre from truck in various parts of the peninsula. It is being done right now, and can enjoy a good income from one acre of Florida soil. Where else can he do it?"

ASSAULT ON AN AGED MAN

MUCH INDIGNATION AT TALLAHASSEE WHEN IT BECOMES KNOWN THAT JOHN NIMS AND HIS SONS HAVE POUNDED BUSINESS RIVAL, TAYLOR.

CONTEMPT CASE COMES TUESDAY

MRS. BEVILLE, SENT TO JAIL FOR REFUSING TO TESTIFY AGAINST HUSBAND, SEEKS TO GET OUT ON WRIT OF HABEAS CORPUS.

Special to the Journal.

Tallahassee, Nov. 13.—Citizens of Tallahassee are aroused to a high pitch of indignation over the assault recently made here upon Mr. Taylor, an ex-Confederate soldier and an offensive, law-abiding citizen, who came here several years ago from Virginia.

The attack on Taylor was made by John Nims, a white man and his two sons, John, Jr., and Joe, who are mulattoes. It was the outcome of the bad feeling which has existed for some time.

One of the Nims boys and Taylor are rivals in business, each being the proprietor of a small store in the French Town suburb of the city. Some weeks ago the well on the premises of the former went dry and permission was given by Taylor for drinking water to be obtained from his place. However, when Nims, who is a butcher, began to take his stick into Taylor's yard to be watered and otherwise abused the privilege granted him, Taylor rescinded his permission. This engendered bad blood, and Nims refused to abide by Taylor's decision; whereupon Taylor told him that he would shoot him if he continued to trespass upon his property, and then ordered him off the place.

Nims left, for the time being, but he sent for his father and brother and proceeded to arm himself with a Winchester rifle. Then, reinforced by his people, similarly armed, he returned to Taylor's place and called him out. Taylor came out onto his porch and tried to argue with his assailants, proposing that they should settle their dispute by law. The older Nims, however, declared the case would be settled then and there with guns.

Seeing their determination was to kill him, Taylor stepped back into the house, got his shotgun, and as he came out again, to confront the raised guns of the ruffians, he threw his own gun into position to fire. The ball of one assailant passed through the barrel of his gun and ripped open one of Taylor's fingers, while Taylor's shot killed a horse belonging to Nims. A second shot fired by one of the assailants from a different angle, lodged in Taylor's arm. A third passed through his door. He succeeded in reaching his room before further shots could take effect.

The Nims are not yet under arrest, as the county judge is absent from the city and Taylor is physically unable to undergo the exertion necessary to obtain a warrant from some official not near at hand, but it is generally thought that steps will be taken upon Judge Meginniss' return to bring the miscreants to justice.

PRACTICAL JOKE ON MR. JACOBIE

YOUNG BRIDEGROOM, VENTURING OUT TO FIRE COMPANY MEETING SOON AFTER WEDDING, HANDCUFFED AND TAKEN HOME TO ASTONISHED BRIDE.

Special to the Journal.

Tallahassee, November 13.—Mrs. Margaret Beville and her sister-in-law, Miss Beville, of Center Hill, are in Tallahassee, the former under the custody of A. T. Coleman, sheriff of Sumpter county.

Mrs. Beville is the wife of John Beville, now in prison on a charge of the murder of his wife's father and another. It is being urged to give testimony in the case. She is accompanied by her counsel, Hon. Thomas Palmer, of Tampa.

Mrs. Beville was recently sentenced to one month's confinement in Judge Bullock for contempt of court in refusing to testify against her husband. She is now petitioning the Supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus, by which she may be dismissed from custody. Of course, such dismissal would be equivalent to a support of Mrs. Beville's contention that she is innocent of the crime.

The court will grant a hearing Tuesday.

ANNIVERSARY OF PONCE DE LEON

ST. AUGUSTINE PLANNING TO CELEBRATE ON ELABORATE SCALE IN 1913 GREAT DISCOVERY OF 400 YEARS AGO—UNCLE SAM WILL HELP.

Special to the Journal.

St. Augustine, Fla., Nov. 13.—The executive committee of Ponce de Leon celebration held a meeting for the purpose of launching the big exposition in 1913, celebrating the discovery of Florida by Ponce de Leon.

The proposed exposition will be on a scale surpassing anything ever attempted in the South and will be of international character. In magnitude it will rival the great world's fairs. Only dimly can the people of St. Augustine realize what this will mean for this city and the state of Florida at large. It will bring many thousands of visitors from all quarters of the world and will fill every hotel in the state. The national government will be asked for a large appropriation and foreign nations will be invited to participate. All Florida will join in the effort to make this a huge success.

St. Augustine being the oldest city in the United States and the spot where civilized man first planted foot has an unrivaled claim for recognition in this exposition. This will not be a local affair, but as this city is virtually the cornerstone of the nation the entire country will be interested in the discovery of St. Augustine, Florida and the United States.

The committee has launched the campaign for the exposition, and from now until it materializes St. Augustine should boom beyond the wildest hopes of the most visionary.

PRACTICAL JOKE ON MR. JACOBIE

YOUNG BRIDEGROOM, VENTURING OUT TO FIRE COMPANY MEETING SOON AFTER WEDDING, HANDCUFFED AND TAKEN HOME TO ASTONISHED BRIDE.

Mr. O. M. Jacobie, whose unexpected marriage to Miss Elizabeth Lewis last week took the town by surprise, was retaliated upon Tuesday night by his fellow-members of the Tallahassee Volunteer Fire company, who resent his lack of confidence in their discretion.

After the regular monthly meeting at the station, at which Mr. Jacobie was present, the following dialogue took place:

"Is there among us tonight a young married man?"

"There is."

"Where should a young married man spend his evenings?"

"At home, with his wife."

"What, then, should be done with this young married man who is not at home with his wife?"

"He should be handcuffed and taken home, and turned over to the tender mercies of the young wife whom he had so neglected."

Whereupon the offending bridegroom suddenly found himself a manacled prisoner. He was marched home with a guard about 20 strong. At the door he was turned over to his wife and the key of his fetters was surrendered to her, with permission to liberate him if she so chose. It is said that Mrs. Jacobie did not seem in any hurry to set her prisoner free,—at least, it took her about 15 minutes to discover how to manipulate the key so the lock would open. However, as soon as their victim was a free man again, his captors proceeded to make amends for the indignity they had put upon him by presenting to him and his wife a handsome silver ladle, on the handle of which was engraved the crest of the company.

Panama City, Nov. 13.—About 200 Confederate Veterans of Southeastern Alabama came here Wednesday morning, accompanied by members of their families and friends, the whole party some 600. After enjoying the sights and pleasures of the day, they left for their homes at 6:30 Thursday evening.

Mr. Frank Wihell has sold his launch Lenore to Mr. Rhodes of Millville.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Caswell are the parents of a baby girl, which was born Nov. 5.

The West Florida Telephone company is putting in a central station at Millville.

A special engine brought to Panama City the president's car of the Delaware, Lackawanna, and Western railroad, containing President W. H. Truesdale, Vice-President E. E. Loomis, and President W. S. Jenny. Engineer M. H. Doughty and Timber Agent J. E. Moore. The car stayed on the railroad wharf till Tuesday morning, when it was taken to the S. A. L. line, at the junction here, and the party is now spending a few days in the woods between here and Alachua.

Before leaving Tuesday morning the party visited the home of Mr. G. M. West, at Old Town, and spent some time picking oranges and viewing Mr. West's fine home. They expressed themselves as being greatly pleased with the bay.

HOW HE CURED HIS CATARRH

I wrote you some time ago, giving you an account of my sufferings with an awful case of Catarrh. I had all the symptoms which accompany this disease, such as mucus dropping back into the throat, a constant desire to "hawk and spit," feeling of dryness in the throat, cough and spitting upon arising, scabs forming in the nose which required much effort to blow out, sometimes causing my nose to bleed and leaving me with a headache. I had thus suffered for five years, all the time trying different local treatments of inhalations, snuffs, douches, etc., with no real good effect. Of course I was greatly discouraged. As soon as I heard from you I commenced S. S. S. as you advised and after using it a short while noticed a change for the better. I continued to take it believing the trouble was in the blood, and S. S. S. made a permanent cure for me. I am now entirely free from Catarrh.

JUDSON A. BELLAM.
224 Randolph St., Richmond, Va.

The symptoms Mr. Bellam describes in his case of Catarrh are familiar to every one who suffers with this disease. For five years he had endured the discomfort and suffering, and was greatly discouraged as one treatment after another failed to cure him. When at last he realized that Catarrh is a blood disease, he knew that the former treatments had been wrong, and only a blood purifier like S. S. S. could produce permanent good results.

Catarrh is not merely an affection of the mucous membranes; it is a deep-seated blood disease in which the entire circulation and greater part of the system are involved. It comes from impurities accumulating in the circulation, and as the blood goes to every portion of the body the catarrhal matter irritates and inflames the different mucous surfaces and tissues causing an unhealthy and inflammatory discharge, and producing the other well known symptoms of the trouble.

The failure of local treatment to produce permanent good results in Catarrh is due entirely to the fact that such measures do not reach the cause of the trouble. Temporary relief and comfort may often be had by using some douche or inhalation, but no cure can be effected until the blood is purified of the irritating cause.

S. S. S. cures Catarrh by cleansing the blood of all impure catarrhal matter, and at the same time building up the system by its unequalled tonic effects. It goes down into the circulation and removes every trace of foreign matter or impurity. In other words S. S. S. cures Catarrh by purifying the blood so that the mucous surfaces and linings of the body are all supplied with healthy blood instead of being irritated and diseased from a continual saturation of catarrhal impurities. Then the inflamed and irritated membranes heal, the discharge is checked, the head noises all cease, the stomach is toned up, the throat is no longer clogged with phlegm, but every annoying symptom of the disease is corrected. There is but one way to cure Catarrh—purify the blood, and there is but one absolutely safe and sure blood purifier—S. S. S. We have a special book on Catarrh; we will send this book, and also any special medical advice desired free to all who write.
