A SUMMER REVERV AT VILLA ALBA
 (BY HUGH GAYLORD.)

I gazed in idle wonder at the growing moon,
 Whose silver crescent beamed upon the restless sea;
 Its brilliant beauty, mellowed, lit that night in June
 At old Coden, while I was lost in reverv.

I watched the moon's slow rising, as the sun sank low,
 And lower still, to rest beneath the gloaming sky;
 And I, still idly dreaming in the moon-lit glow,
 Did dare, in dream, to question as the moon climbed high.

Why, this gorgeous herald, in robes of light arrayed,
 Should flash its matchless splendor o'er the trackless waste
 Of endless space, and all the beauty God has made?
 Was it to guide man's thought to ideals more chaste?

Or, was it but to teach Earth's glory soon must fade?
 Tonight the moon is glorious, full and round it shows;
 Tomorrow, and each coming day, a change displayed,
 'Till the fast waning moon into the darkness grows.

But, no matter what the answer; we know full well,
 That all this wondrous loveliness that fills us with awe,
 And wonder, and worship, is one way God would tell
 The grandeur of His Universe, without mar or flaw.

The Swine or the Flower?
 Ah, me! I saw a huge and loathsome sty,
 Whence a drove of wallowing swine
 were barred,
 Whose banquet shocked the nostril and
 the eye;
 Then spoke a voice, "Behold the source of life!"
 I fled, and saw a field that seemed at first
 One glistening mass of roses pure and white,
 With dewy buds 'mid dark green foliage
 nursed;
 And, as I lingered o'er the lovely sight,
 The summer breeze, that cooled that
 Southern scene,
 Whispered, "Behold the source of COTTOLINI!"

Could Not Raise Head From Pillow, Says Jennie B. Kirby, of Valley Heights, Va., Till I Took Cardui.

Valley Heights, Va.—"My family doctor," writes Jennie B. Kirby, "said I had change of life and I was sick in bed for about 9 months. "I had a bad spell this spring and was so weak I couldn't raise my head off the pillow. "I commenced to take Cardui in April and have now used three bottles. It does me so much good. I saw it was helping me before I had taken half the first bottle. Now I can work all day. "I think Cardui is the best medicine in the world, for women who suffer from female troubles. I have not taken a dose of any medicine but Cardui for 9 months and am feeling very well. "No other medicine is needed, but Cardui, for weakness, loss of appetite, tired feeling, female pains and distress, etc. "However, if you are taking any other medicine, Cardui will not interfere with it, but rather help it. "As a general tonic, for weak women, you can get no medicine so good as Cardui, the woman's tonic. "To prevent unnecessary pains and misery, nothing, for 50 years, has been found that would take its place. "No druggist keeps Cardui in bulk, for prescription purposes, but every druggist sells Cardui, in original bottles. "Try a bottle today.

The brilliant wedding of Miss Virginia Allen Lyons, a beautiful young society woman of Mobile, and Lieutenant Charles Adams Blakely, U. S. This is an event of unusual interest here and at the Navy Yard, as the popular young groom is in command of the torpedo boat Thorton, now in port. Of the approaching event yesterday's Register has the following comment:

"For some months now a great deal of interest has centered about the marriage of Miss Virginia Allen Lyons and Lieutenant Charles Adams Blakely, U. S. N., because Miss Lyons since her debut three years ago has been one of the belles of society and because a wedding in which the groom is a navy officer always occasions much interest in navy circles as well as a flutter of anticipation in social circles.

The marriage will be solemnized Monday evening at 8:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Amelia Lyons, 161 St. Anthony street, with Father Hackett as the

CARGO OF COAL GOES TO MEXICO FOR RAILWAYS

MORE THAN TWO THOUSAND TONS SHIPPED BY STEAMER FROM PENSACOLA TO VERA CRUZ—PART OF BIG CONTRACT.

With a big cargo of coal, the Mexican steamer Sonora will sail this morning for Vera Cruz, the coal being intended for the Mexican National Railway, and this is part of a contract which has been running for some time and which has all been handled at Pensacola, averaging about one steamer load per month.

The Sonora is a vessel which plies regularly to New Orleans, carrying cargo each way. On the downward trip the vessel loads out with merchandise, and usually returns with steel grass or other Mexican products. At times the steamer carries cattle from American shores to Cuba. This is the first time that this vessel has engaged in the local contract, out in the past all vessels handling the coal have been small ones. As a consequence the Sonora's cargo is the largest of the very recent ones.

In addition to 2250 tons carried as cargo, the steamer carried out 225 tons as a bunker supply.

MANY VISITORS CAME TO CITY TO SEE THE CIRCUS

LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE ROAD BROUGHT IN ABOUT 3,000 AND AS MANY MORE CAME BY BOATS AND OTHER CONVEYANCES.

The circus was here yesterday and so were the people. They came by train load, boat load, wagon load, on foot, on horseback, and every other way. Barnum & Bailey's show is the first large circus that has been in Pensacola for several years and it naturally gathered the people in. It is estimated that from 12,000 to 15,000 attended both performances. The L. & N. brought in about 3,000 and as many more came by various conveyances from the surrounding country. The circus crowd was, in fact, the largest Pensacola has ever had with the exception, probably, of the last Mardi Gras attendance.

The show is a marvelous attraction and it presents a clean and wholesome amusement throughout. The parade is a pageant of gigantic proportions and the streets were thronged with pleased and interested spectators as it swept by yesterday morning. Those who for any reason did not see the circus inside the big tent saw a free show in the street parade that was worth traveling miles to witness.

In order to handle the crowds that
