KISSING THE ROD.
 O heart of mine, we shouldn't Worry so!
 What we've missed of calm we couldn't
 Have, you know,
 What we've met of stormy pain,
 And of sorrow's driving rain,
 We can better meet again,
 If it blow.

We have erred in that dark hour
 We have known,
 When our tears fell with the shower,
 All alone—
 Were not shine and shower blent
 As the gracious Master meant?
 Let us temper our content
 With His own.

For we know not every morrow
 Can be sad;
 So, forgetting all the sorrow
 We have had,
 Let us fold away our fears,
 And put by our foolish tears,
 And thru the coming years
 Just be glad.
 —James Whitcomb Riley.

PROGRESS.
 Near the town of Up-against-it, in the
 land of Root-or-die,
 We have found our very finest inspiration, you and I,
 Tolling up the hill of Have-to, with Complacency for a while,
 We have made the sort of effort that was never yet denied.
 In the way were Can't and Couldn't,
 with their brother, What's-the-use.
 While our dearest foe, Born-weary,
 seized with joy each poor ex-
 ceuse,
 Yet behind us, unrelenting, drove our heartless master, Must,
 And our feet essayed no lagging spite
 of hill or heat or dust.
 It was there we grew the sinews for the struggle—you and I—Near the town of Up-against-it, in the land of Root-or-die.

Near the village, Up-against-it, in the
 land of Root-or-die,
 We discovered possibilities undream-
 of—you and I.
 Were there heartaches in that journey? Little, then, our master cared.
 As along that stony highway under whip and spur we fared,
 Bread-and-butter traded beside us,
 with a keen and ruthless road,
 That should quicken halting footsteps
 if we loitered on the road.
 Pride and Spunk, two comely sisters,
 lured us on with myriad wiles—
 All the master's wiles were patness
 as we feasted on their smiles.
 So our hearts grew strong to conquer,
 as we plodded—you and I—Past the hamlet, Up-against-it, in the land of Root-or-die.
 —Strickland W. Gillilan.

His father, Colonel W. F. Stewart, with Mrs. Stewart and Miss Florence Stewart are also well-

CAREFUL DOCTOR
 Prescribed Change of Food Instead of Drugs.
 It takes considerable courage for a doctor to deliberately prescribe only food for a despairing patient, instead of resorting to the usual list of medicines.

There are some truly scientific physicians among the present generation who recognize and treat conditions as they are and should be treated regardless of the value to their pockets. Here is an instance:
 "Four years ago I was taken with severe gastritis and nothing would stay on my stomach, so that I was on the verge of starvation.
 "I heard of a doctor who had a summer cottage near me—a specialist from N. Y., and as a last hope, sent for him.
 "After he examined me carefully he advised me to try a small quantity of Grape-Nuts at first, then as my stomach became stronger to eat more.
 "I kept at it and gradually got so I could eat and digest three teaspoonsfuls. Then I began to have color in my face, memory became clear, where before everything seemed a blank; my limbs got stronger and I could walk. So I steadily recovered.
 "Now after a year on Grape-Nuts I weigh 153 lbs. My people were surprised at the way I grew fleshy and strong on this food."
 Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.
 "There's a Reason."
 Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

NOW ON STRIKE

Millions of Stomachs Refuse to do Their Work Properly.

All over this broad land millions of stomach owners are being led by humiliating subjection just because they are so stubborn that they will not accept a fair, square and broad minded offer.
 Life is short for all of us; it will be shorter for those who let their stomachs go from bad to worse.
 Hannah Bros. have a famous prescription called Mi-o-na and they believe so thoroughly in its remarkable curative powers that they say to every owner of a distressed stomach that they will guarantee Mi-o-na tablets to cure acute or chronic indigestion and all stomach ailments on money back, and the price is only 50 cents a box.
 And still there are stubborn people right in Pensacola who won't accept this offer but continue to suffer from gas on stomach, belching of sour food, stomach pains, foul breath, dizziness, biliousness and headaches just because—just because—that's all, there is no other reason.
 Mi-o-na tablets stop dyspeptic agony in five minutes; they cure obstinate cases of indigestion and turn the old stomach into a new one in a few weeks—or money back.

The present fine hunting weather, with the well-known prowess of these three particularly wily hunters augers unusually bad for the game up in that neck of the woods, and the results of the trip will doubtless be something tremendous.

ALL ARE URGED TO SEND FLOWERS TODAY.
 All those interested in the chrysanthemum show to take place tomorrow at the old Dairy Kitchen, will do the association a favor and show the very best spirit possible by sending flowers early today for the purpose of decorating. Both potted flowers and those which have been cut will be welcome, and the fact that generosity in this direction on your part may wonderers for the success of the interesting event should serve to make the "loans" very plentiful indeed.
 The Journal was informed last Saturday that on account of various conditions there would be no show this year. However, it is exceptionally glad to correct this statement, for these affairs are interesting, and of high value and real importance. Those who are identified with the movement, in fact, deserve every encouragement and a word of credit.

Owners of truck house No. 6, which is at the northeast corner of Intendencia and DeVilliers streets, will be forced to move the building from the street lines, and if they do not comply with the orders which they will receive today or tomorrow, the city engineer will proceed to enforce the rights of the city in the matter. It was stated by the city engineer last evening to the board of public works, which held a special session, that the building encroached for several feet over the street line, and that he had notified the owners that the line which had been staked out for the building was in the street and would have to be moved back. The engineer also stated that this information was given those who erected the building long before work had started, thus giving them ample opportunity to have changed the floor plan. He notified them officially, writing a letter to this effect.
 The board of works will have DeVilliers street sidewalks built in a short time, as that street holds the car line and the appearance of the walks thereon now do not impress strangers favorably with the city's advancement. Before that work is started, however, the buildings along the street for a distance of several blocks will have to be moved or the blocks cannot be put down. The board ordered a letter sent the owners of the truck house building last evening, and unless there is an early compliance, the city attorney will step in and take a hand in the enforcement of the city's rights.
