HOW BROUGHTON LOST HIS LOCKS

DISTINGUISHED ATLANTA DIVINE HAS HAIR-RAISING EXPERIENCE WITH CHUNK OF CHEWING GUM IN BERTH OF PULLMAN SLEEPER UP NORTH.

Tampa, Nov. 20.—Twelve months ago Dr. Duke, pastor of the first Baptist church, asked Rev. L. G. Broughton, of Atlanta, to help him in a meeting in Tampa.

Everybody who has ever once seen America's greatest pastor-lecturer would at once recognize him at second sight. He has, however, changed greatly since his lecture visit to Tampa several years ago.

As he was preparing to retire at the DeSoto after the tedious 24 hour trip, the writer was granted a brief interview. The question of his abbreviated hair was raised and the story as told by him is too good to keep.

The meeting at the tabernacle was attended by about 1,000. Dr. Duke preached a helpful sermon. He unfolded in a masterly manner, starting with creation and ending with glory, the scriptural story of how God has given preferment to Jesus the Son.
