WHO HIT EPPS'S QUESTION WITH POLICE

MARSHAL SANDERS HAS TAKEN UP INVESTIGATION WITH WILL AND SAYS HE HOPES TO MAKE ARRESTS WITHIN SHORT TIME.

Who hit John Epps? That is the question which the police are now making an attempt to have answered, and Marshal Sanders said late yesterday afternoon that he hoped to have a party or two parties in the toils if certain reports which have come to him can be substantiated. He has been making a thorough investigation of the case and does not appreciate the idea of a citizen being attacked in such a manner and no one punished for the act. The attack, made on the principal street of the town and within the distance of a block of the police station, is no good recommendation for the efficiency of the police, either, and the marshal knows it. He has tried out several clues, but none of them has turned out to be any good.

A WAREHOUSE AND CONTENTS DESTROYED

BUILDING OWNED AND OCCUPIED BY A. V. CLUBS ON ALCANIZ STREET TOTALLY LOST IN EARLY MORNING BLAZE.

At an early hour yesterday morning, at just about dawn, the warehouse of A. V. Clubs, at No. 115 North Alcaniz street, was discovered in a blaze and then the firemen reached the scene some few moments afterward, the building was a seething mass of flames. The building had been built with cement wall covering. This had led to the belief that the fire and its origin inside of the building and had been burning since the fire broke out. A switch engine discovered it and the engine's whistle sounded an alarm.

SANDERS TO ASSIST MOBILE. PENSACOLA CHIEF OF POLICE IS NAMED AS ONE OF PUBLIC SAFETY COMMITTEE DURING CONFEDERATE REUNION.

Police Chief Sanders of this city has been selected as one of a committee of safety to act during the reunion of the Confederate Veterans in Mobile. Nothing is the appointment, the correspondent of the Times-Democrat at Mobile, writing his paper Thursday, sent the following:

When The Stomach Stops

Working Properly, Because There is Wind in It. Use Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets to Set it Going Again.

A Trial Box Free. THE DOCTORS call it flatulency, but unprofessional folks know it as "wind on the stomach," and a most distressing state of things it is. It is a serious condition which gives the sufferer much trouble and is often a sign of indigestion. Always annoying and painful in the extreme, at times often leading to bad and fatal results. The stomach embarrassed and hampered with wind, cannot take care of its food properly and indigestion follows, and this has a train too appalling to enumerate. The entire system is implicated—made an active or passive factor in a questionable life soon becomes a questionable life.

ALL THIS IS EXPLAINED in doctor books; how undigested food causes gases by fermentation and fermentation which process some essential fluids are destroyed—burnt up, wasted by chemical action, followed by defective nutrition and the distribution through the alimentary tract of chemical wrong elements and as a consequence the stomach and intestines are starved. Plenty of food, you see, but spoilt in preparation and worse than worthless. A DERANGED STOMACH is the epitome of evil; nothing too bad to emanate from it, but the gas it generates is probably its worst primary effect and the only way to do away with this is to remove the cause. STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS go to the root of this trouble. They attack the gas making foods and render them harmless. Flatulency or wind on the stomach simply cannot exist where these powerful and wonderful working little tablets are in evidence.

THEY WERE MADE for this very purpose to attack gas making foods and convert them into proper nutriment. This is their province and of office. A whole book could be written about them and then not all told that might be told with profit to sufferers from this painful disease. Open your mind to the years of patient and expensive experiment in effort to arrive at this result—of failures innumerable and at last success. It would make mention of the different stomach correctives that enter into this tablet and make it faithfully represent all.

P. C. S. AND P. H. S. TIE IN THE ANNUAL GAME

BATTLE FOR GRIDIRON SUPREMACY YESTERDAY AFTERNOON RESULTED IN SCORE OF 0 TO 0—BOTH ELEVENS PLAYED A GOOD GAME.

The annual Thanksgiving battle for gridiron supremacy between the two high schools of this city has been fought and the outcome was a surprise to more than one of the many football enthusiasts and supporters of the two teams. The final score was a tie, nothing-nothing, and in view of the fact that the Classics had been defeated by a large score only last Saturday, while the High School had won three games and lost but one, playing the same schools that the former school had played, it is quite natural that there is a feeling of exultation in the district camp, and a disappointment reigns in that of their opponents.

First Half. Captain Shuttleworth, of the High School, won the toss and chose to defend the goal. The ball was advanced several yards before the runner was downed and then the High School squad started on its march from the field but was checked after a few good gains and the ball went over to the opposing side. The Classics, to the surprise of many, showed that they, too, could make consistent gains through the line and succeeded in making their distance twice before being forced to kick. The ball was thus carried back and forth until the half was nearly over, when the Classics out possession of the ball in the middle of the field and, by a series of line plunges and short end runs, carried it to their opponents' 17-yard line. On the next play captain Vinson punched the line beautifully and with two men helping him placed the ball between the goal posts, but the two opposing backs did not try to stop his progress as the referee's but the STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS brought back, as it was said the formation was illegal. However, the ball was kept by the Classics, first and ten. The next three attempts failed and the ball went over to the High School punter but the ball was fumbled and a High School end fell on it. By a series of plays it was carried to the Classics' 20-yard line, where time and possession of the ball were Captain Shuttleworth's to win the forward pass. The pass was touched successfully but rolled over the goal line, where a Classical School player fell on it. The half ended here. A disruption caused by the referee's whistle down was a touchback or safety. It was at first declared the latter, but was finally decided a touchback, and the score was nothing-nothing, instead touched back to the High School. The Classics had far the better of this half.

Second Half. The second was practically a repetition of the first, once play being still resorted to by both teams. The High School kicked more in this division than they did in the first, trusting that one of the punts would be fumbled and recovered by one of their fast ends, but the fumbles had ceased with the ending of the first half. The last whistle blew with the ball in the High School's possession on the Classics' 40-yard line. The High School justly claims the honors for this half. The game was a very pretty one to watch, inasmuch as the play was quite varied and well free from penalties, which are usually being given during the whole contest, and this for an incomplete pass. Very little time was taken out, neither time finding it necessary to use a single substitute. For the High School, Captain Shuttleworth and Coleman played a beautiful game. The punting of the former and the running back of punts by the latter was especially noticeable. By at end, played spectacular ball, while Laney, Hall and Bell are worthy of mention.

For the Classics, Motta was by far the star. He was down the field at all times and was quite frequently ahead of his ends, although he had to go through the opposing line. Captain Vinson's tackling was hard and sure and gains through the line were always noticeable. Brent played almost a star game, with Finch, H. Vinson and McLain close seconds. It is hard to pick out the individual players for the best play for every given of the 22 pined good, consistent ball.

Nature's Gift from the Sunny South

Cottolene Comes from Dixieland!

The source of lard is against it. Lard-cooked food may not cause indigestion and throw your stomach out of kilter, but it will be only a matter of luck if it doesn't.

The source of Cottolene is pleasing—the product is healthful. The oil is extracted from the cotton seed grown in the fields of the Sunny South. It is then refined and rendered odorless and neutral in taste. From Cottonfield to Kitchen—human hands never touch the oil from which Cottolene is made.

Cottolene is an absolutely pure product—of pure origin and ancestry, and will make palatable, digestible, healthful, wholesome food. It is the best frying and shortening medium made to-day. If the best is none too good for you, ask your grocer for Cottolene, and do not let any prejudice stand in the way. The only way to know Cottolene is to test it yourself.

COTTOLENE is Guaranteed. Your grocer is hereby authorized to refund your money in case you are not pleased, after having given Cottolene a fair test.

Never Sold in Bulk. Cottolene is packed in pails with an air-tight top to keep it clean, fresh and wholesome, and prevent it from catching dust and absorbing disagreeable odors, such as fish, oil, etc.

4 POLICEMEN SUCCESSFUL IN EXAMINATION

OFFICERS JONES, HENDERSON, CLARK AND FILLINGIM WERE ON MAT AND PASSED THROUGH FIRE OF IMPORTANT QUESTIONS.

Some secrecy was maintained about the examination of police officers Wednesday night at the police station to see if they possessed enough practical knowledge of the city and surroundings to hold a job on the police force. They are said to have passed successfully, and by the result Officer Fillingim will be restored to mounted duty, having been given an indefinite term of suspension when he made a very low average on the first examination. Officer Jones is an old man on the force. So is Officer Henderson. The latter is now under charges to appear for trial at the next meeting of the board of safety for alleged infraction of the police rules and regulations. Officer Clark is a new man, but he knew enough to retain his position, and henceforth will be a regular officer.
