Typhoid Fever can be Prevented—If You Know How—

and the "How" is in Pearson's Magazine for December. The United States Army has found a positive prevention for typhoid fever. In Pearson's Magazine for December James Creelman describes vividly the way the thing has been done; what means are employed to prevent one of the most dreadful and destructive diseases to man, and what the definite results have been. There were 400,000 cases of typhoid in the United States this year. 40,000 deaths resulted—and they might have been prevented. Don't fail to read this story if you fear typhoid. It is more important to you than the North Pole, aeroplanes, or almost anything else in the world.

A story of barbed dogs and wistful babies that will stir the soul of any real human being is in the same issue. Another story gives the cause of the tremendous increase in divorces. One marriage out of every twelve ends in divorce. The barbaric manner in which insane people are allowed to rot in almshouses is told by Dr. Arthur P. Herring. The real meaning of the Cannon Congressional rule is explained. There is the life story of Senator Hughes of Colorado, and seven complete fiction stories that have one common quality—they are all good.

an active part in this great work by attending the meetings and contributing some articles toward the bazaar. It may not be generally known that the object of this bazaar is to establish a free hospital and home for the friendless in connection with the Mission. The manner in which this charitable and praiseworthy work is being instituted, and the many features it covers, giving a full demonstration of active Christian work in aiding and ministering to the poor and sick and outcast, besides striving to educate and better the conditions of the young should appeal to every woman.

The next meeting will be held in the Mission prayer rooms, No. 8 North Palafox street, next Tuesday at 3:30 p. m. Anybody with articles for the bazaar may leave them at this place.

The adjourned meeting of the Mission Bazaar committee was held yesterday afternoon and a good attendance was present. Mrs. T. V. Kessler, the president, presided at the meeting, which proved to be of an enthusiastic character.

It was especially urged by the president that the ladies of the city take

HARBOR, RIVER AND MARINE NEWS

Shipping Transactions and Notes of Interest Along the Bay Front.

The British steamship Brantingham, 1568 tons, five days from Brunswick, Ga., in water ballast, arrived yesterday afternoon, taking an anchorage in the stream until a berth is secured at the L. & N. docks. The Brantingham comes for the purpose of loading lumber and timber and a quantity of cargo for South America, and a portion of the cargo is at present in the railroad yards. The steamer will take about 5,000 tons.

With Nitrate of Soda. Another steamship with nitrate of soda arrived yesterday. This was the British steamship Angio-Chilian, 2442 tons, 56 days from the Chilean port of Iquique. The cargo consists of 5,900 tons, all of which will be discharged at the L. & N. docks for transportation to inland points. The Angio-Chilian for a number went from the Chilean coast up to Newport News, and thence was ordered to Pensacola to discharge cargo. The steamer will be docked at once for discharge. In fact, the harbor-master went aboard last evening to bring the big vessel to the railroad wharf.

Three Steamers Sailed. Three steamships got away to sea yesterday afternoon. The Rockdale, with rails for South America, hoisted anchor at 4 o'clock, the last one to get away during the day. The Homerus, with lumber and timber and a quantity of naval stores, for Rotterdam, and the Dordrecht, with lumber for Antwerp, were the others. The Kathleen and the schooner Melba may get away today.

Pecans Exported. The Dutch steamship Dordrecht, which cleared yesterday with lumber worth $34,000, also carried as part of her cargo 70 pounds of Pensacola pecans, the nuts having been gathered from trees growing in the city. Just what use the master will have for them could not be ascertained, but they were on the ship's clearance papers.

Captain's Wife With Them. Captain Eastwood, of the British steamship Brantingham, has his wife along with him on the present trip. Captain Freeman, of the steamship Angio-Chilian, has with him his wife and child, and all form pleasant gatherings on the respective steamers, both of which arrived in port yesterday afternoon. They will accompany their husbands on the voyages from Pensacola.

Po is Discharging. The big Italian ship Po, lying at the west side of Palafox wharf discharging cargo, has placed on the dock a number of tons of clean stone and rock, which would make excellent road building material if crushed. Northern visitors on the docks yesterday expressed surprise that the city did not make use of the thousands of tons so easily available. When told the cost of getting the ballast, one of them said: "It would be cheap at ten dollars a ton, for a road with such material would last a lifetime." There are hundreds of tons on the wharves right now and the large amount is being added to daily.

Ticino in Stream. The Italian bark Ticino, which finished discharging ballast at Baylen street dock yesterday, was hauled to a stream anchorage where her cargo will be supplied by the Pensacola Lumber Co.

Looking For Craighall. The steamship Craighall, under charter to the Kersey-Muldon company, is due and that firm has been expecting the vessel to show up for several days.
