FLOURNOY BUYS ENTIRE SPECIAL BOND ISSUE

Bid of DeFuniak Attorney Accepted and Award of Bonds Made Him.

IN SPECIAL SESSION CITY COUNCIL PASSES UPON TWO VERY IMPORTANT MATTERS WHICH HAD BEEN PENDING—SPECIAL ASSESSMENT FOR ADDITIONAL WOOD BLOCK PAVEMENT.

Reporting upon the sale of the $100,000 4-1/2 per cent. special improvement bonds, Chairman Bushnell, of the board of bond trustees, informed the city council last night that there had been two bids received. One was from the Union Savings Bank of Cincinnati, O., which offered the sum of $92,800 for the lot. Another, and the successful bid, was that from W. W. Flournoy, of DeFuniak, Fla., who offered the sum of $96,825 for the lot with interest coupons detached from July 1, 1901. The bid of Mr. Flournoy was accepted and the award of bonds made to him. A resolution offered by Alderman Bear confirmed the action of the bond trustees, and the regular procedure in the award will be followed out of course.

Chairman Bushnell attended the special meeting of the council, which was convened at 7 o'clock. President Greenhut presided, and Aldermen Moyer, Rocheblave, DeSilva, Dunham, Bear, Concannon, Renshaw and Welsh were present. The city attorney was also on hand.

At the outset, the question was asked by Alderman Bear if all aldermen had been properly served with notices of the meeting. Along this line, Chairman Bushnell said that it was very important that such should be known and made a part of the record, as the New York attorneys, Messrs. Dillon & Hubbard, who are in charge of the bond issue proceedings, were very careful on that point. A short recess was declared until the marshal, who had the returns on the serving of notices, could be heard from. The marshal reported that all members had been properly served. Against that declaration, however, Alderman Rocheblave said that he found the notice addressed to him on his door mat when he opened the front door to get his morning paper. The marshal said that he would look up this, and the president of the council cautioned the police chief that more care should be exercised in the service of the notices hereafter.

Immediately upon convening, the chairman of the board of bond trustees was asked if he had a report. Mr. Bushnell immediately arose and read the report from his board. It was, in effect, the same as above reported. The report was received and adopted, and the adoption of a resolution offered by Alderman Bear confirmed the board's action in the premises.

MORE STREET PAVING Alderman Bear introduced an ordinance providing for the paving of Dublin street from the north line of Gregory to the north line of Wright streets. This is a special paving venture, and to provide for the payment of such, the district is made into a special assessment district, the costs of which are taxed against M. H. Sullivan and George W. Wright. Such announcement was made in a communication which had been addressed to the board of bond trustees.

TO USE WOOD BLOCKS. The paving material will be that of wood blocks, and the contract will call for a twenty foot centre of paving, with curbing and the proper grading. This will give a grass plot on either side of the paved district of about seven feet, as the street is given a thirty-four foot width. The contract will be made with the U. S. Wood Preserving company, of New York, the same company that is now doing some extensive paving in Philadelphia.

sacola, and it will be in accordance with the present contract held by the city and made June 11, 1909.

The ordinance was read the first time and referred to the ways and parks committee and also the finance committee, as its final adoption will entail the expenditure of some money. It was adopted on its first reading.

This was all that the special meeting of the council cared to consider, and a motion to adjourn was made after a session of about half an hour. The council meets in regular session next Wednesday night.

L'ENGLE TALKS OF CAMPAIGN

CANDIDATE FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE SAYS HE WANTS TO BE ELECTED BY ALL THE PEOPLE AND NOT BY ANY CLIQUE.

Claude L'Engle, candidate for United States senator, who has been in Pensacola for two days, leaves this morning for all points in Escambia county that can be reached in a two days' rail and buggy trip. He has started on his second trip through Florida to carry out his declared intention of seeing as many people as possible before the voting time arrives.

To those who ask him about the senatorial campaign, Mr. L'Engle says:

"It is impossible for a man to tell how he is getting along in a campaign that has to be made under conditions that exist in present Florida. Under our present law as amended by the legislature, the people have the election of their representatives absolutely in their hands, and each individual, qualified to vote, can exert his influence in the choice of public officials. I cannot understand how a candidate can estimate his chance of election until he has seen or heard expressions from all the people who will vote in the primaries, and when he has seen them all I know just how the case stands. Information of the intentions of the voters on which to make an estimate that is worth anything. Met 12,000 Voters.

"On my first tour of the state—just countless on account of visiting more than 200 Florida towns, I have personally met twelve thousand voters to whom I have given one of my folders in which I have set forth, in condensed form, the governmental principles which I believe will best safeguard the rights and liberties of the people, yet I cannot say what impression I have made on a majority of these twelve thousand.

"Some people sneer at me, but I have visited have decided for me, but from a kind and courteous reception most of the people I have met have not expressed their voting intention.

"I am encouraged to keep right on with my canvass, as I have begun to see many reasons for chief among them is that I believe the only proper way for a man to get a public office is to convince a majority of the people that he is the man best fitted to represent them. The only way to convince the people is to see them in person. I believe that they know me either by having read my paper, or by reading about the fights I have made on bad conditions in the state. When a man is known as I am known, he has a good chance to win in his fight against the same influences that have before opposed him, when he asks the people for whom he has fought, to let him further serve them in one of the offices that he long to them.

No Special Interests. "There is no special interest behind me; no political crowd or faction running me; no group, gang or bunch pulling for me; no person, institution, or company putting up for me. "I am determined to owe my office to all the people, or do without the office.

"If a few people run a candidate when he is running, they will run him after he arrives. "If a small crowd get together, and by a campaign fund, spent by a campaign committee, put a candidate through—they will keep right on putting him through after he is elected. "Special interests have elected the senators in most of the states, and special legislation is turned out by them for the special benefit of the special interests.

"This special legislation has become the curse of the country. "A New Sensation.

"I want to give the United States senate a new sensation, by having a man break into it who cannot be tagged and to whom no man, or group of men, can put up for him. "He is our man, for we put him there. "If I am elected, the people of Florida can say—'He is our man. We elected him.' "So, I will keep on seeing the people and will keep on hoping that I can convince a little more than half of them that I am the man to cast their vote in the United States senate."

Just a Confidential Chat on Some Seasonable Stuff

Now's about the time when blazing, open fire places and cozy Indian corners and good-looking, warm, wooly, rich-toned, lounging Kimonas somehow all fit into the same picture. These occasional coolish, crispy evenings really demand a nook like this one, and most everyone may have one. Just scan these tips on the question, if you're a sensible, comfortable person, and then call in and see what we'll really do for you—and how.

OH, YOU COZY CORNER!

Cozy corners, with their Bohemian trappings and their tobacco pouches and their cushions are a place to relax after the grind of the day. But they need fitting up with just the right materials for just the right touch and artistic impression they're to make. We've this material. It's called Colonial Etamine drapery, Lattice Scrim, Art Crafts, Figured Casement Cloth, all according to the various price and quality you'll be wanting. It's correct, handsome, striking drapery cloth; in fact, good to drape most anywhere, and in the warm, snappy tones, per yard from 10c to 25c

AND WITH THAT SUIT!

Just now most women are wearing 2-piece Suits. Practical. Sensible. Convenient. For these costumes we've practical, trig little mannish shirt waists, some real linen and so on, with plaits and stiff cuffs and collars. Then we've very handsome embroidered waists, hand embroidered in the dainty designs and an occasional color. The plainer ones range from $1 to $3.50 elaborate $3.50 to $7

AND THOSE GOOD-LOOKING KIMONAS!

Following this particular picture, we can even furnish the lounging Kimonas, and a lot more silken Kimonas—woolen, duckling fleece, silken—in fact, Kimonas of every style and description. Some look like clever little house dresses, almost, bound in their satin strappings, and just out-and-out pretty. Some are short, handsome little combing jackets that most women want with the present strenuous modes of hair dressing. Then there's the more expensive bath robes, something really necessary, and they're all flashing with rich, warm, autumnal tints that hint of the glare of the fireside on winter nights. We have a remarkable price range on this grade of goods. 75c to $17.50

TOGS FOR TOTS!

We've also a decidedly fine stock, just now, of the popular bearskin coats for babies. They're wooly and pretty and warm, and they come in the dearest colors. Some are a good green, some rich red, some silver white, some mixed. We've a special $5 number, too, with leggings to match—a very fine outfit for the very spruce little chap. These coats, by the way, range in price from $2.00 to $6.00

MARINES LEAVE THE NAVY YARD FOR NICARAGUA

FORTY MARINES SENT FOR MOBILIZATION TO LEAGUE ISLAND NAVY YARD AND WILL PROBABLY FIGHT ZELAYA'S TROOPS.

Forty marines in charge of two corporals and two sergeants left in a special car last night for the League Island navy yard, Philadelphia, for the purpose of being mobilized, and with the probability of being drawn upon for service in Nicaragua. The marines were in excellent spirits, and made much over their trip to Philadelphia.

Is it Woman's Immodest Dress, Man's Immoral Thought, or What is it that Causes Most Divorces?

One marriage in every twelve in this country ends in divorce. Pastors are beseeching a moral uprising. Some blame the women. Some put it up to the men. All agree that it is morals. Newspaper editors are becoming excited over the thing. Some of them accuse "too much prosperity"; others "increased cost of living"; and still others the growing independence of women. Certainly something is playing hob with American homes, but it is none of these. That something is explained in an article based on governmental investigation in Pearson's Magazine for December—a plain, logical, common-sense explanation of the cause of American home troubles—a cause that every man can remove from his own home—a cause that some folks will consider immoral, but it is the real cause. No story was ever fuller of meaning, and information to all who think the home circle the basis of American institutions, and it is particularly important to folks who are married or about to get married.

The real meaning of the Cannon rule is set forth in the same issue by a man who has spent years in the Congressional press gallery. John R. Stanton explains the investment qualities of railroad bonds. Sidney Gordon writes of the Rocky Mountain Paradox. Edmund Vance Cooke and Frank Verbeck contribute six pages of child's verse and pictures, that will delight the heart of all who love babies, and there are seven short stories of the sea, romance, mystery and adventure.

parlor within 48 hours ten thousand will be out of employment and the general condition of no employment of labor and inability to move merchandise will amount to many thousands of dollars.

SWITCHMEN FIRM IN DETERMINATION TO HOLD OUT

St. Paul, Dec. 1.—The switchmen are firm in their determination to hold out for an increase of six cents an hour in wages, with double time for overtime, Sundays and holidays. On the other hand, the railroad officials assert that things will adjust themselves to normal conditions within a few days, despite the walk-out. Although some new men have been employed at passenger stations, no attempt had been made this morning to bring in strike breakers, the railroads claiming there were enough old men pressed into service, to do the work, though not expeditiously.

Its tender age could not withstand the shock, but when first examined it was not thought the injuries sustained would prove fatal. Late yesterday, however, when the child began to sink, and died soon after, the officers were notified. The marshal was the first to find Anthony.

stopped at the door, the child passed away. To the coroner, however, the father expressed the opinion that the driver was hardly to blame for the accident, so far as he could learn. The street is wide and the view is unobstructed, the coroner saw, and he thought it best to have a jury empaneled and hold an inquiry into the matter, and fix the responsibility, if the jury could agree, on whoever was responsible for the child's death. The jury was summoned early last night, viewed the remains of the little child and then adjourned until this morning at 10 o'clock, when witnesses, who have been subpoenaed, will appear and give their versions of the case. The jury consists of W. B. Gonzalez, J. M. Clatter, R. H. Bonifay, James Graham, Charles Bargin and Dan Murphy, Jr. The inquest will be held at the office of Justice Nicheben.
