AMUSEMENTS.

Mrs. Leslie Carter's New Play.

Mrs. Leslie Carter, the leading emotional actress in America today, has scored the biggest success of her career this season in a new play by Edward Peple, author of "The Prince Chap." It is called "Vasta Herne" and is the first strictly modern play in which Mrs. Carter has appeared since she became a star. The play is a tense, dramatic presentation of one of the vital problems that affect society today; a presentation that is more powerful and direct than any sermon and which, while it entertains as any play should, sends audiences away from the theatre with the knowledge that before them has moved the panorama of the battle of good and evil—the conflict which is eternal and which is the earliest dramatic conflict known to history. The play gives Mrs. Carter the greatest opportunity she has ever had for the display of that marvelous histrionic ability which has won her a place in the forefront of the American stage. She will be at the opera house Friday, Dec. 17.

AL. H. (Metz) Wilson.

AL. H. Wilson, the singing ambassador of German dialect, is the attraction underlined for the opera house tonight, when he will be seen as the central character in his latest play, "Metz in Ireland," which is somewhat of an innovation, considering the character of plays provided for this delightful comedian in the past. During the unfolding of the story the audience travels with Mr. Wilson, as the lovable "Metz," in an interesting country—the land of the Shamrock—where the cry of the Banshee is still considered a bad omen and where the countryside rings with delightful stories of the sweet little fairies hidden behind each twig along the roadside. At the opening of the performance "Metz" is discovered the centre attraction outside of Dolan's Forge, on the road to Klunkilly Castle, among a bevy of Irish lads and lassies to whom he relates the folk lore of Germany in his quaint Dutch accent, and for whom he sings several tuneful love songs. He has lost none of his old-time melowness of voice, and as the plot of this new Wilson play is to a certain extent woven around the songs, they are naturally introduced to gain double effect from their setting.

POULTRY ASSN. IS ORGANIZED

LARGE NUMBER OF BREEDERS MET AND LAUNCHED THE ESCAMBIA COUNTY POULTRY ASSOCIATION YESTERDAY.

The Escambia County Poultry Association was successfully launched yesterday, when a large number of the breeders of the poultry met in the Blount building, organized and elected officers. All those present at the meeting yesterday were quite enthusiastic and the general opinion was that the start was a very creditable one. While the membership list is a large one, it is expected that many other lovers of fine poultry will soon join, as the dues are only 25 cents per month.

The object of the association is to promote interest in the raising of thoroughbred poultry in this county. The association starts off with the following members: R. E. Coleman, R. C. Cushman, R. Carroll, J. F. Davis, Dr. C. W. D'Alamberte, C. G. Elmore, E. M. Graves, Victor Goldberg, C. W. Gray, J. A. Hicks, Dr. C. E. Hutchinson, R. W. Lewis, Warrington, Fla., Chas. AGONY OF ECZEMA BEYOND WORDS

Whole Body a Mass of Raw, Torturing Humor—Hair All Fell Out and Ears Seemed Ready to Drop Off—Clothing Would Stick to Bleeding Flesh—Hoped Death Would End Fearful Suffering.

CASE SEEMED HOPELESS BUT CUTICURA CURED HER

"Words cannot describe the terrible eczema I suffered with. It broke out on my head and kept spreading until it covered my whole body. I was almost a solid mass of sores from head to foot. I looked more like a piece of raw beef than a human being. The pain and agony I endured seemed more than I could bear. Blood and pus oozed from the great sores on my scalp, from under my finger nails, and nearly all over my body. My ears were so crusted and swollen I was afraid they would break off. Every hair in my head fell out. I could not sit down, for my clothes would stick to the raw and bleeding flesh, making me cry out from the pain. My family doctor did all he could, but I got worse and worse. My condition was awful. I did not think I could live, and wanted death to come and end my frightful sufferings.

"In this condition my mother-in-law begged me to try the Cuticura Remedies. I said I would, but had no hope of recovery. But oh, what blessed relief I experienced after applying Cuticura Ointment. It cooled the bleeding and itching flesh and brought me the first real sleep I had had in weeks. It was as grateful as ice to a burning tongue. I would bathe with warm water and Cuticura Soap, then apply the Ointment freely. I also took Cuticura Resolvent for the blood. In a short time the sores stopped running, the flesh began to heal, and I knew I was to get well again. Then the hair on my head began to grow, and in a short time I was completely cured. I cannot praise Cuticura enough. I wish I could tell everybody who has eczema to use Cuticura. My condition was so terrible that what cured me cannot fail to cure anybody of this awful disease. If any one doubts the truth of this letter, tell them to write to me. Mrs. Wm. Hunt, 135 Thomas St., Newark, N. J., Sept. 28, 1908."

Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Resolvent liquid of Cuticura are sold throughout the world. Sold by Chem. Corp., Sole Props., Boston, Mass. See Index Free, Latest Cuticura Skin Book.

OFFICERS AND GUESTS ENJOY FISH CHOWDER

FINE SPREAD AT STATION TO WHICH SAFETY BOARD, CHIEFS AND RECORDER DID FULL JUSTICE UPON INVITATION.

Immediately upon the adjournment of the board of safety's session last night, an invitation was tendered by the chief of police to all present to go over to the police station and partake of refreshments which had been provided by the chef, Jeff. Spottswood. Besides the members of the board, who were Jos. I. Johnson, Chas. Villar, P. J. Williams, H. O. Anson, and Ernest Elliott, the others who enjoyed the surprise were: Recorder Wm. Johnson, Fire Chief Bicker, Chief of Police Sanders, Capt. Wilde and a Journal man, and the turnkey and station keeper, who were on duty there.

The best seasoned fish chowder with all the necessary seasonings was prepared and served on a plate was consumed by some of the gentlemen. Crackers, bread, sauces, peppers, etc., were all handy, and there was plenty of water, but nothing else. The feast was spread in the dining room of the station, and was thoroughly enjoyed.

Taking advantage of the presence of the entire board, several other visitors and reporters, Chief Sanders invited them to make an investigation of the interior of the jail. In a magazine of extensive circulation for the current month a great long account of some one's pine dream personal experiences was printed, the representation being made that the Pensacola city jail was one of the most unsanitary of places. The article went on to say that, representing himself as a minister and desiring to preach to the prisoners, a representative of the magazine, desiring to get information of just such reported conditions, was admitted to the jail, and he had found it actually filthy. Those who made the inspection by request last night readily pronounced the article a false representation from start to finish, and added their commendation to the stand taken by Mayor Reilly to enforce a reformation of the article.

After enjoying the chowder and paying their respects to the chief for his ability in preparing such an attractive dish, the gentlemen took their departure.

FEDERAL JURY CONDEMNS THE COUNTY JAIL

IN ITS FINAL REPORT THE JURY SAYS IT IS FILTHY AND UNSANITARY AND AN UNFIT PLACE IN WHICH TO KEEP PRISONERS—THE ACCOMMODATIONS IN GOVERNMENT BUILDING ALSO INADEQUATE.

After investigating a large number of cases and returning indictments in many, the grand jury of the United States court yesterday made its final presentation to the court, and in this the jury takes occasion to state that the county jail, where federal prisoners are confined, is in a filthy and unsanitary condition. The jury also takes occasion to call attention to the accommodations afforded juries in the federal prison and asks for some relief. The report in full is as follows:

"Honorable Wm. B. Sheppard, judge of the United States court, Northern district of Florida. The grand jury at the March adjourned term of this court, which began its sessions November 29th, 1909, respectfully submit the following presentation:

"1. We have examined into a large number of alleged violations of the criminal laws of the United States and carefully considered all matters brought to our attention.

"2. The grand jury has investigated conditions at the Escambia county jail with reference to federal prisoners confined therein, and beg to report as follows:

"We find that filthy and unsanitary conditions exist at the jail, the cells are not properly cared for, and we consider it an unfit place in which to hold federal prisoners and recommend that steps be taken looking to removal of prisoners to some other place of confinement.

"3. The grand jury calls attention to the fact that some of the commissioners in this district in holding defendants to court, exercise a sound discretion; while others remand to this court for investigation by the grand jury a large number of trivial cases. We recommend that commissioners should carefully investigate all complaints before issuing warrants or requesting authority to issue warrants. That greater care should be exercised in seeing that no trivial cases are sent in for consideration of federal grand juries.

"4. We respectfully call the attention of the court to the fact that the accommodations for grand juries in the federal building are insufficient and recommend more ample accommodations be furnished for federal grand juries. We respectfully recommend that the attention of the proper authorities be called to the fact that ample accommodations in the present federal building could be secured by making slight alterations, and at no great expense. The present accommodations are insufficient for the court officials and the grand jury.

"5. We respectfully recommend that the two senators from Florida, and the congressman from the Third congressional district of Florida be requested to use their influence to this end.

"The thanks of the grand jury are extended to the court for the able charge, which has been of the greatest value in their deliberations. The grand jury also desires to extend thanks to the district attorney, and other court officials for the courtesies which they have extended to this body.

"Having completed our deliberations, we respectfully request that we be discharged.

"BEN H. THOMAS, Foreman of Grand Jury."

TALLAHASSEE NEWS NOTES

ITEMS OF GENERAL INTEREST AND PERSONAL MENTION GATHERED AT THE STATE CAPITAL.

Special to the Journal. Tallahassee, Dec. 3.—The demonstration fair held here by the members of the Woman's Club is turning out an immense success. The "moving spirit" of the affair has been Mr. C. M. Strange, senior proprietor of the Tallahassee Grocery company. The idea was his conception and the details of its expansion have all been worked out by him. He has also been the direct means of procuring from distant corners, with whom his firm has business dealings, an immense amount of goods for exhibition and sale, the proceeds of which are donated to the club.

Besides these firms, all the prominent Tallahassee merchants are represented by individual donations, and by donations sent through them by merchants from abroad.

Pretty Home Wedding. A beautiful home wedding was arranged yesterday evening for Mr. Thomas Alva Yon and Miss Daisy Mullikin, at the residence of the bride's mother on Clinton street.

The partners were festooned with Florida amaranth and made dainty with green ferns, bride roses and white carnations. A large white fur rug lay between the double front windows, and there the bridal party took their places during the ceremony.

The bride entered on the arm of her brother, Col. R. R. Mullikin, of Asheville, N. C., while the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march were being played by Miss Elizabeth Tatum. Miss Mullikin's bridal gown of white duchesse satin, made in draped princess style with yoke of silver apenagened net, and trimmed with pearl passementerie, was exceedingly beautiful. Her veil was becomingly arranged and caught with a delicate spray of lilies of the valley, and she carried a bouquet of these lovely blossoms and bride roses. Her only jewel was a pearl brooch presented by the groom.

Miss Fenton Davis, maid of honor, was gowned in blue messaline with silver trimmings. Miss Fannie Coles, bridesmaid, wore pink messaline with crystal bead trimmings. Her bouquet was of pink carnations.

The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Will Yon, and the ceremony, which followed the ritual of the Episcopal church, was performed by Rev. Ira S. Patterson, pastor of Trinity Methodist church.

Before the entrance of the bridal party, Miss Tatum played a Melody in F by Rubenstein, and accompanied Mrs. Park Trammell, who sang "Because of You." During the ceremony Miss Tatum played Schubert's Serenade softly and with exquisite feeling, and after the wedding march from Lohengrin.

After a delicious wedding supper, Mrs. Yon donned her going-away gown, a coat suit of dark blue diagonal cloth, with hat to match, and the young married pair left on the midnight train for the west. They will be at home to their friends after the 15th of this month.

MORE DANVILLE PROOF. Jacob Schroll, 432 South St., Danville, Ill., writes: "For over eighteen months I was a sufferer from kidney and bladder trouble. During the whole time was treated by several doctors and tried several different kidney pills. Seven weeks ago I commenced taking Foley's Kidney Pills, and am feeling better every day and will be glad to tell anyone interested just what Foley's Kidney Pills do for me." W. A. D'Alamberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 S. Palafox street.

SCOURING YOUR SCALP Will Remove the Loose Dandruff Scales But It Won't Cure Dandruff. If your hair is brittle and thinning, you have dandruff. The mere scouring of the scalp of the loose scales, won't cure dandruff; because dandruff is nothing but scales of scalp being thrown up by a pestiferous little germ in burrowing its way to the root of the hair where it saps the vitality, causing falling hair and, in time, baldness. Now you can't stop dandruff nor falling hair, nor prevent baldness unless you destroy that germ; and the only preparation that can do this is the new scientific discovery, Newbro's Herpicide. In fact no other hair preparation claims to kill the dandruff germ—all of them will clean the scalp; soap and water will do that, but only Newbro's Herpicide gets at the root of the trouble and kills the dandruff germ. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. One dollar bottles guaranteed. W. A. D'Alamberte, druggist and apothecary, 121 South Palafox street.
