PENSACOLA, FLORIDA, THURSDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 9, 1909.

Room For One More Line of Boats.

We don't know much as yet about the steamer line from St. Louis to Charleston that was outlined by a St. Louis promoter at the Southern Commercial Congress on Tuesday, but we are prepared to tell the St. Louis promoter that he was wise when he put Pensacola on the list of regular stops for his steamers.

Santa Rosa Bridge and Baldwin Bridge.

The Escambia Santa Rosa bridge would be a good thing for the county that had the Tri-County fairs and likewise for the county that seems on a fair road to the agricultural school and model farm which certain of her solid citizens are trying to bring about.

They Start From Pensacola.

Claude L'Etoile has begun his second tour of the state, in his candidacy for the senate, starting this time at Pensacola, as he did before.

Now They've All Entered.

Senator Tallaferra's formal announcement of his candidacy for reelection probably completes the entries for the senatorial stake, and from now until the polls close the campaign will be fast and furious.

Grover, Indicted.

Lucius Grover, the negro who was indicted yesterday for the murder of a woman, and who will be placed on trial for his life for the offense, saw his father yesterday soon after returning from the court house in the city.

Fix up the Roads and Walks.

Do not strike off the cobble all winter if you have plenty of material for making good roads and walks, says a writer in the Richmond Times-Dispatch.

Could Not Be Better.

No one has ever made a salve, ointment, lotion or balm to compare with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It is the one perfect healer of Cuts, Corns, Burns, Bruises, Sores, Scalds, Bolls, Itches, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Fur Sore Ears, Cold Sores, Chapped Hands, and every ailment of the skin.

EDITOR CLEVELAND IS DONE WITH HIS BETS.

One day last week we made a bet with Lenzie Hollowell that the amendment would win in the election in Alabama last Monday. The cigars go to Lenzie. The betting record is now wearing a hat that he won from us when Bryan and Taft were on the anxious bench.

PRESS OF SOUTH.

Here's a prediction: in less than two years Massachusetts and Iowa will be Democratic states. In the last election, where the Democrats rung clear on the tariff, the Republican loss was great and the Republican candidates are growing less and less in lower lands.

The Sugar Trust is a gigantic and irredeemable thief.

It has been convicted of robbing and fined $1,000,000. It was convicted of stealing from the United States by smuggling and fined $125,000. It was caught again in gigantic smuggling operations, and returned $2,100,000 to escape conviction.

The French government has raised its tariff on cottonseed oil.

This is a distinct tax upon Southern farmers, who are also taxed in a hundred other ways through the mischievous schedules of our own tariffs and the resultant animosities our national policy arouses in foreign lands.

TOPICS OF INTEREST TO FARMERS OF FLA.

Complaints of Fruit Shippers.

Secretary J. C. Chase of the Florida Shipper's Protective association, has addressed a circular letter to the members of the association and to the other fruit and vegetable growers of the state, advising them of a hearing of complaints made by the association, on Dec. 20th, in Jacksonville.

Farmers of Orange are Prosperous.

Col. Waters, of the Times-Union staff getting up Orange county's special edition of that great daily, returned from Ocoee, Ocala and Winfield, and he has a glowing report of the success of that garden spot of the county, shipments of fruits and vegetables from that section being far greater than the farmers are all prospering, have magnificent homes, some owning individual waterworks and electric light plants, gardens under the latest systems of irrigation, and the horse only kept for work on the farms, automobiles being used almost entirely as a means of travel, handsome cars and garages being found at nearly every residence visited.

How Much Pork does a Bushel of Corn Make?

Henry, in his "Feeds and Feeding," gives the results of trials with 50 pigs at the Illinois station, which show that one bushel of corn made 10.9 pounds of gain in weight. The gains from a bushel of corn ranged from 6.9 to 16.8 pounds.
