THE WEEK'S EVENTS

SATURDAY.

Hop at Barrancas, given by officers, 8 p. m.
Meeting of the Browning club; hostess, Miss Nellie Burrow, at 38 East Chase street.

PLACING THE BLAME.

Whom should I blame because I do not stand much higher in the big world's estimation?
On whom should I let fall the heavy hand of disapproval for my lowly station?
What miscreant is he who holds me down?
To common bread and cheap domestic cheese?
Thus must I answer, with embarrassed frown:
"The man who bags my trousers at the knees."

outfit. A companion but no rival to her in sweetness was the beautiful round bouquet of Richmond roses which she carried in her arms.
Mrs. Price, with the graciousness and charm of a Southern hostess, lent elegance in her handsome gown of gray silk trimmed in gray passementerie with a touch of pink which she wore a bouquet of violets.
Miss Jessie Kelly, the aunt of the debutante, who assisted in entertaining, wore a very lovely white lingerie dress over pale blue.
The small tables which awaited occupancy were grouped in the drawing room, library and dining room, each room being rich in color with the wealth of the American Beauty roses and the red hearts.

CAUSE OF MUCH SICKNESS

One reason so many people take cold during the winter months, according to the known authority, is the hot, dry atmosphere of the house. It will prevent heating. If we were so careful to keep the air in our rooms moist, we would not keep them warm, there would be less occasion for cough medicine than is now the case.

Letters to Santa Claus

FROM WEST FLORIDA CHILDREN

"Papa's Little Darling."
Dear Santa Claus: I am "papa's little darling," and I want you to bring me a sailor doll, a wagon, a wheelbarrow, a horn, a bottle of soda, and some candy and oranges. I am most three years old. Your little John Henry Courtney, 313 Hayne street.

"Engine Like Daddy Runs."
Dear Santa Claus: I am a very small boy, but want you to bring me lots of things. I want a little bicycle, a ball and a great big engine just like my daddy runs; and little brother wants a nice "rockey" horse, a ball and lots of fruit. Please bring him this—if you don't he will get mine. I hope you have these things for me. Good-bye, Malcolm Smith.

A Gun and Fireworks.
Dear Santa Claus: I am another little chap at Station A. Please, please, bring me something nice for Christmas, I would like for you to bring me a whip and a 22-rifle and some shells for it. Please don't forget it and bring me some fireworks. Yours truly, Herman Anderson, Station A, Pensacola, Fla.

"Thank You In Advance."
Dear Mr. Santa Claus: I am only six years old. I want you to send me a big doll, a little trunk, some firecrackers, fruit, candy and a stove, and if it is not asking too much please send me over, I will try to send my order at once. Please bring me a Shetland pony and a wagon, a pistol with caps, whip, fireworks, bugle, corn, brush and an Irish mail. Hoping to see something from you, I will close. Ernest Wendt, Ferry Pass.

"Remember Little Sister."
Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me an express wagon, a ball, a horn and please don't forget to bring a doll and a ball for my little sister, Violet, as she will cry for mine. I live at 1209 West LaRue street. Eugene Noonon.

"Remember Little Sister."
Dear Santa Claus: Please bring me a big doll with curly hair, and a doll buggy, and a picture book, too. I live at 1213 West LaRue street. I am four years old. Thelma Sutter.

"Who Found that Poet?"
Dear Santa Claus: I just wrote this letter to you to ask you something important. I want to ask you who discovered the north pole.

"Remember Little Sister."
Dear Santa Claus: I will write and tell you I would like for you to bring me. Please bring me a big doll and a carriage for her, a teaset, a picture book and a horn. I am six years old and live at 1213 West LaRue street. Willie May Wain.

Shade—Protection—Beauty

Trees planted about the home serve a triple purpose—shade, protection and beauty—and add to the value of the property.
We have devoted nearly thirty years to the production of trees and plants, and are glad to offer suggestions in selecting and planting.

Glen Saint Mary Trees and Plants are used all over the South—the best of hundreds of fruiting orchards and the raising of countless beautiful homes. They are the product of our favorable soil and climate, and our thirty years of "knowing how" have put all our trees and plants on a level with the best in the world.

Hansen's Gloves for Linemen are made extra strong and have extra large cuff reinforcement. They wear like iron, but are so soft and pliable and fit so perfectly that the most delicate work can be done without removal.

We carry a full assortment of Linemen's Gloves as well as a complete line of other HANSEN Gloves especially built to meet the special requirements of every trade.
