Review of January Edison Records.
To the lover of light and popular songs and music, as well as to those who discriminate in favor of the higher grade selections, the Edison phonograph amberol and standard records lists for January will alike appeal. The amberol list includes such well known selections as "Washington Post and the High School Cadets March," (one record) by Sousa's band; "Redhead," sung by Ada Jones; "When You Were Sweet Sixteen," by Manuel Romain; "Ring o' Roses," the popular duet from "The Dollar Princess," by Wheeler and Anthony, who also sing the beautiful "Gobbie Duet" from "The Masquerade;" "Monte Cristo Waltz," by the famous Jorda-Rocabruna Quintette, and "Berceuse De Jocelyn," a cello solo by Jean Schwiller. In the amberol list there are also found two vocal numbers in Hebrew and three in Italian, the best known of the latter being the popular Italian folk song, "Cliribirin," by Maria Avezza and Francesco Daddi.
In the standard list are found "The Summer Girl," by Sousa's Band; "Oriental March," by Victor Herbert's orchestra; Bessie Wynn, in a comic song; "Ma L'il Sweet Sunbeam," a delightful mammy song by Mabel McKinley; "Wild Cherries—Coony, Spoonie Rag," by Edward Meeker; Jack Pleasant, a unique English comedian in an entirely novel song, "I Said 'Hoory'";

Victor Herbert.

Victor Herbert's latest composition is "The Red Mill," which will be heard at the Pensacola opera house Tuesday night.
Mr. Herbert was born in Dublin, Ireland, February 1, 1859, and, as the grandson of the distinguished poet, painter, dramatist, musician and novelist, Samuel Lover, he comes by his musical and artistic talents naturally.
When a child he was taken to Germany and became a student of music. His first prominent position was as first cellist of the court orchestra, Stuttgart, at the age of twenty-seven. His exceptional ability was not long pent up in the provincial German capital, however, and he was soon winning laurels in this country. After a number of years devoted to composition, during which he established his reputation as the foremost light opera composer in America, he was engaged to conduct the Pittsburgh orchestra. Later, his selection to conduct two sets of philharmonic concerts in New York during the past two seasons was an eloquent tribute to the wealth of his reading.
Mr. Herbert's comic opera compositions comprise an extensive list of popular successes, among them "The Prima Donna," in which Fritz Scheff starred for two seasons; "The Tattooed Man," Frank Daniels' offering, "The Singing Girl," "The Fortune Teller," "The Idol's Eye," "The Wizard of Oz," "The Nile," "Cyrano de Bergerac," "The Scrooge," "Jules in Toyland," "Little Nemo" and "It Happened in Nordland."
Mr. Herbert is the chief agitator for

At the New Theater.

The Indianapolis Star has this to say of the Musical Tremains now appearing at the New Theater on West Romana street:
"One of the best bills that has ever been produced at the Family, is on this week. If one loves singing, dancing, music and side-splitting comedy, it is there. * * * The Musical Tremains in an up-to-date comedy musical act, closed the bill. They have an act that appeals strongly to lovers of music. Both are finished musicians, showing equal efficiency on brass, reed and string instruments. Their comedy was new and clean, and "rapid fire" from start to finish."

"Parsifal" Christmas.

The immortal Richard Wagner was a great student and reader. It was only by constant research and study that he was enabled to provide himself with the material with which he built his magnificent productions, dramatic and operatic. It is said it was while searching for material for his imperishable Tannhauser that he came across Wolfram von Eschenbach's poems of "Parsifal" and "Titurel." Upon making this discovery he rapturously reported, "an entirely new world of dramatic and poetic matter sudden opened before me." Wagner was the first one to name his forthcoming production "a religious drama." To use his own words again, "As I have made Tristan and Isolde a song of terrestrial love, so I will make 'Parsifal' a drama of divine love." How well the master succeeded in this direction the world now knows. No one can witness it, after having seen others of his many productions without recognizing the imprint of his philosophical studies as well as that spirit of Oriental mysticism in which he delighted and which at one time he intended to make use of for the stage. During his long forced exile from his native land Wagner consoled himself not only in being actively employed in his writings, but also as a studious reader of the philosophy of Schopenhauer, of whom, to the last, he was a great admirer. It was Wagner's profound knowledge of human nature and his utter lack of bigotry or prejudice that enabled him to reach the hearts and souls of the countless readers and auditors of his works throughout the world. "Parsifal" will be presented at the opera house Christmas, matinee and night.

MAY START THE RACKET TODAY

MAYOR'S PROCLAMATION SUSPENDING ORDINANCE PROHIBITING DISCHARGE OF FIREWORKS IN EFFECT UNTIL JANUARY 2.

Mayor Reilly's proclamation, giving permission for the discharge of fireworks, becomes effective from today. In fact, at midnight the ban was lifted from the noise-making devices, and the racket may go on without fear of police interference today and last until midnight on January 2 so long as there are no firecrackers used measuring over three inches in length, and so long as torpedo canes, bombs, etc., are not made use of. The last-named three are under the ban at all times, but such are on sale at countless places in the city and of course the risk will be taken to make a big discharge when the policeman conveniently turns his back on the harmless but risky offenders.

CITY EMPLOYEES TO RECEIVE CHECKS TODAY

City employees in every department will receive their checks for the ten days' work since the 15th of the month of December, this having been agreed upon some time since. Checks were all made yesterday and the payrolls may be signed as rapidly as convenient today, so that the banks may be reached before the closing hour, which is 2 o'clock this afternoon.
Employees of various establishments, the Gulf Transit company, the bay and many business houses will also receive money for the week, as tomorrow will be the most glorious of holidays and no work will be done or expected.

BAD LEAK IN BIG WATER MAIN

BOND TRUSTEES AND WATER DEPARTMENT OFFICIALS CONCERNED OVER WHAT THEY THINK IS SERIOUS CONDITION.

Continued moisture on Baylen street near the Manhattan hotel and immediately south of Garden street, is causing much concern with the bond trustees, and the water department officials are beginning to look with serious men upon the conditions, which are regarded as getting rather serious, for it is believed, by the bond trustees at least, that there exists a bad leak in the water main which has been laid on Baylen street, and they believe that the leak will eventually cause damage to the pavement unless relet is given. It is understood that attention of the water department has been called to the situation, with a request for an immediate abatement.

The wood block paving has been finished on Baylen street from Zarrarossa to Garden, and the leak underlies a stretch of the paving. The immediate vicinity, for perhaps fifty to seventy feet, is continually moist, and the bond trustees believe that the leak should be stopped as soon as possible, if such exists. This was discussed at a late meeting of that body. To make repairs, and to make an examination, it will be necessary to pick up a part of the paving, and this is something that does not appeal kindly to the trustees.

act at 9 o'clock last night making off from a store near the union depot with several toys, a special officer at the store having made the charge against him. The boy was taken to the county jail, but on account of his age the charge of stealing was not pressed against him, for it was not believed that he had intended to steal the articles said to have been found on him. After being told at the county jail to go home, the lad started and lost his way. A policeman found him crying on the street and learning where he resided went with him to the limit of the beat and then directed him how to go the rest of the way.
All the big stores employed special officers last night, but cases of theft were not reported by any of them.
