HANDY CHINA CLOSET.

It Is Simple and Convenient as Well as Attractive.

The accompanying cut of a china closet is presented as one of the most convenient arrangements that can be devised. The whole closet may have a door or a curtain to shut it in from the outside, but probably the most attractive and convenient plan would be a dainty curtain sliding on a brass rod and covering only the fronts of the open shelves. The top shelf has glass doors to shut it in, since on this shelf are placed the dishes least commonly used. The open shelves have different heights to accommodate all sizes and shapes of dishes. The two small drawers are lined and are for table silver, napkins in their rings, etc. The large drawers contain laundered table linen. If the whole opens into the kitchen on one side and into the dining room on the other, with drawers pulling both ways, it will be found still more convenient.

Sour Milk and Silver.

As a silver cleaner sour milk is in valuable and will save the busy housewife much time and hard work. All that is necessary is to put the silver in a deep bowl of sour milk, let it lie there for ten or fifteen minutes and then rinse it in scalding water, drying it immediately with a flannel cloth. The lactic acid in the milk removes the tarnish from the silver and leaves it bright and clean.

Teach Children Prudence.

Wise parents will ever strive to impress upon their children the necessity of forming prudent habits; of spending money to advantage, so that some article of utility or value is always obtained for it; the duty of exercising systematic and judicious charity, and that the purest happiness which can be experienced upon earth springs from the practice of benevolence.

Man and His "Galluses."

The "gallus" marks the freeman and the man of genuine, unpretending culture and civilization. Your snob and your savage abhor it. In Mesopotamia the wild bashi bazouk wears a belt; in Yucatan the Indian wears a girdle of shark's teeth; in Senegambia the shameless cannibal sports a gunny sack; in Atlantic City some years back the dudes used to wear sashes. But find a man who when he throws off his coat to begin his daily toil lays bare a pair of heavy sky blue galluses and you'll find a man who pays his way in the world, loves his wife, rears his children in the fear of the Lord and votes the straight ticket. The "gallus" is useful, it is graceful, and properly adorned with hand painted flowers and brass buckles it is beautiful. To be ashamed of it, to conceal it or to abandon it for a somber leather belt is to fail in an essential of true manhood and fly in the face of fate.—Baltimore Sun.

NOTICE.

Is hereby given that on the 5th day of November, A. D., 1906, I will present to the Honorable County Judge of Escambia County, Florida, my accounts and vouchers as guardian of the estate of Genevieve Parkhill, a minor, and make application for a final discharge from said guardianship.

May 2nd, 1906.

Why He Quit the Game.

"Take a hand?" queried Smith as Jones stood watching the poker game at the club.

"No. Quit."

"What's the matter—cold feet?"

"No. I always come out loser."

"I never saw you lose in my life."

"I know you never saw me, but I lose. If I happen to win a little here, my wife smilingly insists on my dividing my winnngs when I go home. If I lose, I get a lecture on the evils of gambling, and the next day, in order to get even, my wife runs bills down town to the amount I lost. If I tell her I came out just even, she takes half the money to prevent my losing all I have, so I am bound to lose."

The Dozen.

In all the civilized countries of the world thirteen is referred to as being somebody's "dozen." In America, Australia, Great Britain (present day) and several other lands that number is said to a "baker's dozen." In Italy it is referred to as the "cobbler's dozen," there being a tradition that there was formerly a law which compelled cobblers to put twelve tacks or nails round the edge of a boot heel. Finally, when the nails became cheap, a center nail was driven for luck.

Warned In Time.

A man visiting a lunatic asylum recently was conversing with some of the outdoor patients when a man rode up on horseback. The pace called for comment among the party, and one of the patients said he had seen a horse running much faster than that one. "Oh," exclaimed the visitor sotto voce, "I have seen a horse flying." "Dinna let the doctor hear ye sayin' that, my man," interjected an old Scotch lunatic. There's fouk in here for far less than fleein' horses."
