ARMY WEDDING IN NEW YORK CITY

Special to The Journal.

New York, Apr. 6.—Lieutenant George E. Ball, of the Twenty-first Infantry U. S. A., was married to-day to Miss Maria Wallen Struthers, daughter of Mrs. James Struthers, of 341 Madison Avenue. There was a large attendance of friends of both bride and bridegroom, many army friends being in the comapny. Mr. and Mrs. Hall's engagement was a short one, being of only two months duration.

Miss Emily Fell Coster, elder daughter of Mrs. Charles Henry Coster a last winter's debutante, and whose engagement was announced last Sunday, was married to-day to Lewis Spencer Morris, son of Mr and Mrs. Henry Lewis Morris.

A large wedding of the Easter season was that of Miss Wenonah Wetmore, daughter of Mrs. James W. Markes, to Arthur B. Devens, Jr., of Boston. The ceremonies were performed at St. George's Church, in Stuyvesant Square, Rev. Hugh Birckhead, the rector, being the celebrant. A large reception at the residence of th bride's mother followed the nuptial ceremonies.

Clothes That Count!

Did you ever look at yourself on the inside of a Schloss Suit? If you never have, come in and we will "show you" what a difference there is.

You are judged by your average, every-day appearance, and not by your "Sunday clothes." Two or three neat "sack suits" make all the difference, and you can get them here so reasonably and, withall, so satisfactorily that it seems a pity any man should go around in a half-worn garment. Style, quality and a perfect fit is what you want, and you'll find these characteristics prominent in every suit we sell.

The picture shows the style of one of two hundred Suits just received by express at $15, $20, $25, $30, $35.

ALL YOU HAVE TO SAY IS "SHOW ME!"

JOHN A. KRUSE DIES IN ST. AUGUSTINE

Was Former Pensacolian and Had Recently Been Residing in DeLand.

The following from the DeLand News of April 5, will be read with regret by a great many Pensacola people. The deceased was at one time a resident of this city, where his sister Miss Kate Kruse, conducted a millinery store for several years. The DeLand paper says:

John H. Kruse Dead.

John H. Kruse was suddenly taken very ill while at work in DeLand last Friday. Dr. Baerecke decided that an operation was necessary and took Mr Kruse to St. Augustine on Saturday. Sunday afternoon the operation was performed by Dr. Worley, the trouble proving to be peritonitis. Mr. Kruse died in the hospital Monday morning.

The body was brought to DeLand, and is now lying in the Baptist church Funeral services will be held at 10 o'clock this morning, and will be under the direction of Cypress Camp, W. of W., of which deceased was a member.

In the death of Mr. Kruse, DeLand loses a progressive citizen—an honest, true man has gone to his reward. He leaves a widow and a large family of sons and daughters.
