LOT SALE STILL GOING ON.

Many were struck with the proposition which we submitted in yesterday's Journal, as being one of the best sale offers in Pensacola realty.

Did you see the house which will be given to one of the purchasers?

It will make any one a desirable home. In the yard is a servant's house and barn. Every lot is worth the price. Some have been sold, but some are left.

Begin to-day and lay aside something for a rainy day. These lots will work for you and besides you may secure the house and lots free.

-$50 down and $10 per month gets 6 lots and interest in house and 6 lots. No interest, no taxes. Write or see us to-day.

"WE SELL LOTS."

The Value of Real Estate is in Its Location.

I have a few lots on North Tarragona street in the very heart of the district for manufacturing enterprises that I can sell on terms easy to meet at $35.

The business of this district will very soon necessitate electric car connection with the city.

An Excellent Home Site.

$800 for a very choice home site 80x127 1/2 feet on 14th street, near 12th avenue. These lots have a southern exposure and are protected by large shade trees of the street, are under fence and planted in peach trees.

This would make an ideal home location.

GOOD GAME AT FLORALA

Crack Team From Elba, Ala. Goes Down in Defeat Before Florala.

Special to The Journal. Florala, Aug. 13.—In a slow but interesting game of ball here this afternoon Florala defeated the crack team from Elba, Ala. The features of the game were the pitching of McLeod for the locals and the catching of a long fly by Jones. The Elba team used four pitchers, they being Davis, Morris, Roney and Smith. Florala's battery was McLeod and Whistler. The boys are here for three games, after which Florala goes to Pensacola for three games Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

DIXIE STARS AND NORTH HILLS PLAY

On Friday afternoon the Dixie Stars and the North Hills are to cross bats for a purse of $15, the game to be pulled off at some convenient diamond in this vicinity, probably at Magnolia Bluff. The two teams met in this city several weeks ago and in a hotly contested game the Dixie Stars defeated the North Hills by the close score of 5 to 0. The rivalry between the two teams is intense and a big crowd of rooters will accompany the boys to the game.

The North Hill team is to be composed of Motto, White, Hartman, Shuttleworth, Boyett, Borrass, Fell, Eagan and Coleman. White and Motto will be the battery. The Dixie Stars will be represented by Roche, Giardina, Graham, Bonifay, Humphreys, Olsen, Bruno, Kirchoffer and McDonald. Giardina will pitch and Roche will catch him.

Chorus Girl Creates Sensation Until Policeman Ended Her Fun.

A recent New York special says: Any young woman whose talents have not yet found recognition on the stage can be sure of making a hit on Broadway if she will only follow the example of the Little Sister who paraded the Big Street yesterday afternoon in a bathing suit.

Fact She was a good looking Little Sister of about 16 years of age. When she went into a cigar shop near the corner of Thirty-eighth street she had obviously just come from a generous luncheon, though it wasn't so that anybody would notice it first off. She carried a paper parcel in her hand.

"I'd like to use your telephone, please," she said to the boss.

"When she emerged from the telephone booth five minutes later this is about the way she was made up: Black blouse and skirt extending to about two degrees above the knee. Ditto top—sk—ngs.

Bright tan sandals. Mushroom hat of a vivid yellow, spangled with many colored roses and things.

The cigar man gasped and stared when she came out of the booth, but she nonchalantly handed him a nickel from the purse which she carried in her hand and took to the street.

She had the crowd with her as she walked up toward the Metropolitan opera house. At Thirty-ninth street Policeman Mulcahey stopped her with:

"Where's your clothes?" "I've got 'em on," answered Little Sister, sweetly.

"But this won't do. Broadway isn't the beach. Look at the crowd you're gathering."

It was a fact. Broadway was packed from curb to curb, and there wasn't much doing in the way of traffic.

"Well," protested Little Sister, "I can't help that, can I? Why don't you arrest all these people?"

"But there was no use arguing with Mulcahey. Back to the street clothes or he arrested was his ultimatum, and Little Sister reluctantly retraced her way to the cigar shop.

There, for a wonder, she found all her things just as she had left them, even to her—in fact the whole street outfit. She took a reasonable time resuming these garments, and there she was in the shop, just as she had come in.

But this time when she went into the street Broadway didn't bat an eye at her.
