Mayor C. C. Goodman received from Adjutant J. Clifford R. Foster yesterday a telegram stating that as soon as officers of the artillery company are selected, he will send over to the city a properly commissioned officer to organize the command.

WILL AWARD PRIZES FRIDAY

SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT ASSOCIATION WILL ANNOUNCE WINNERS AND AWARD THE TWENTY-EIGHT CASH PRIZES.

A meeting of the Pensacola School Improvement Association, to which the public is invited, is to be held next Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, when an appropriate program will be rendered and the twenty-eight cash prizes, aggregating $100, will be awarded to the boys and girls for excellence in flower and vegetable gardening. Reports will also be made by officers of the association. The program will be announced later.

In addition to awarding the prizes an exhibit will be made of the products of the flower and vegetable gardens. All children who have gardens, whether contestants or not, are requested to bring their vegetables to the exhibit. Flowers should be fresh and should be taken with vegetables to the teachers on Friday morning, and all specimens should be sent in by Friday at noon by teachers, marked with the name of the pupil and number of school, so that an exhibit can be arranged according to the schools.

It is desired that each school secure the use of some show window on Palafox street for continuing the exhibits on Saturday, the following day, from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. Vegetables may then be sold, but must not be removed until after 5 p. m.

SHE DIDN'T LOVE THIS ONE

MARGARET BLOUNT, WHO RAN AWAY FROM HOME HERE, GIVES HER REASONS FOR FLEEING, WHEN TALKING TO ATLANTA NEWSPAPER MEN.

The Atlanta Journal of recent date contained the following regarding Margaret Blount, who recently ran away from her home in this city:

When pretty Margaret Blount, of Pensacola, Fla., stepped from a train at the terminal station Thursday afternoon she was surprised when accosted by two local detectives and sent to the station house. When first approached she was angry and denied that her name was Margaret Blount. Upon looking into her large pocket-book, however, the officers found a visiting card with the name "Margaret Blount" on it and then they knew they had the person for whom they were searching.

Miss Blount is but 16 years old, and is a strikingly beautiful brunette. She said Friday that she knew it was wrong to run away from home and she was ashamed of herself, but that she simply had to do so on account of a man and her mother.

"My mother wanted me to marry a young man whom I did not love, and rather than do this I ran away," said the girl. "I love him dearly and certainly hated to do any such thing, but my mother forced me to. The only way she wanted me to marry was a fine young fellow, but I did not love him and did not think it would do any good either one of us to have married him. I tried to explain it to my mother, but she could not see it as I did."

Runs In the Family. "It seems to be one of the characteristics of the family to run away from home on account of mother trying to make us marry people whom we do not care for. My older sister ran away about a couple of years ago because mother wanted her to marry a man whom she did not love. Instead of marrying the man mamma had picked out for her, she ran away with another boy and married. She has not been back home to this day.

"I was on my way to see my sister when I was arrested by the detectives. She lives in the lower part of Florida. I would never have been caught here but for the fact that my money was exhausted and I could not pay for a ticket from here to my sister's. I came around this way to prevent mother from getting on my trail and having me caught, but I failed in the attempt. I just had enough money to get to Atlanta, and got off here to telephone sister for enough money to come on down where she now is.

Will Face the Music. "I know all of my people will be angry with me when I return, but, then, I am willing to go back and face the music. If they will only not try to force me to marry the man I don't love, he is anxious to get me back, I know. I made my escape at night, after everybody at home had retired. I barely had time to catch the train. "If mother will not try to make me marry this man I am willing and anxious to go back home and stay. But I had rather be kept right here in this police barracks than be taken back home and have them always trying to make me marry a man I do not care for."

The local detective bureau received a notice from Pensacola about Miss Blount running away on Thursday morning, being furnished with a good description of the girl. Detectives Langford and Doyal were sent to the station to meet the train from Pensacola and they recognized the young lady the moment she stepped from the platform. She will be taken back to her home Friday night.

 VOTE RIGHT.  Winter Garden Ricohet. *****

Absolutely the most important thing to do in the coming primary is to vote right in the matter of delegates to the democratic convention at Denver. You will have to vote for four delegates from the state-at-large and two from each congressional district. Now the question is simply this: Will you vote for delegates pledged to Bryan for president, or for self-styled "independent" candidates, who will later receive their instructions from Wall Street? The following candidate for delegates from the state at large can be depended upon to vote for Bryan: J. E. Alexander, Chas. F. Eaton, Jas. Harvey Witherspoon Phillips, and J. H. Reese; in the second congressional district, J. H. Vick and Frank O. Sebring can be depended upon. Our readers in Lake county live in the first district, and we recommend to them Jno. W. Burton and J. D. Robertson. In the third district we hope to see Frank L. Mayes and John T. G. Crawford elected. We publish the names of all the state candidates in another column. Look up the names of the above mentioned and place your "X" mark on the left.

The executive boards of both the operators and miners organizations went into session today to sign the joint agreement.
