

Plan for Summer Comfort

Don't add the heat of a kitchen fire to the sufficient discomfort of hot weather.

Use a New Perfection Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove and cook in comfort.

With a "New Perfection" Oil Stove the preparation of daily meals, or the big weekly "baking," is done without raising the temperature perceptibly above that of any other room in the house.

If you once have experience with the

NEW PERFECTION Wick Blue Flame Oil Cook-Stove

you will be amazed at the restful way in which it enables you to do work that has heretofore overheated the kitchen and yourself.

The "New Perfection" Stove is ideal for summer use. Made in three sizes and all warranted. If not at your dealer's, write our nearest agency.

The Rayo Lamp gives perfect combustion whether high or low—is therefore free from disagreeable odor and cannot smoke. Safe, convenient, ornamental—the ideal light. If not at your dealer's, write our nearest agency.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (INCORPORATED)

GONZALEZ.

Special to The Journal.

Gonzalez, Fla., May 12.—Gonzalez has been through with candidates during the past week.

Miss Hazel Prather, of Pensacola, was the guest of Miss Mary Wilson.

Mrs. H. W. Brown returned home Thursday after spending several days with her daughter, Mrs. Fleming Branner, of Pensacola.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Evans made a business trip to Pensacola Saturday.

Miss Maggie Rice, a popular young lady of Atmore, Ala., was the guest of Mrs. J. B. Steward last week.

Mrs. Helen F. Mitchell has recovered from an attack of acute indigestion.

Miss Stella Lowell returned home Wednesday after several weeks pleasantly spent in Pensacola.

The friends of Mrs. C. H. Jackson will be sorry to learn of her recent illness.

Mr. John Lowe, of Selma, Ala., is at home for a few weeks.

Miss Cleo Johnson was the attractive little guest of Miss Stella Lowell this week.

Mrs. S. M. Murphy baby and sister, Miss Gene Lowe, were visitors in Pensacola last Friday.

Miss Mary Wilson is visiting with friends in Pensacola for a few weeks.

We have quite an epidemic of measles here. Miss Naomi Gonzalez, Master Hoyt Brown, Elmer Harper and Clarence Carey are victims of the unpleasant malady.

Miss Mabel Taylor is the guest of Mrs. Tom Barker.

Mr. Bob Lowell visited home folks here Friday.

The friends of Mr. Braderick and family will learn with regret that they have moved back to their northern home in Indiana.

Mrs. Joel Suggs and little baby visited relatives in Pensacola last week.

The saw mill here has closed down indefinitely.

Dr. A. T. Brenton and daughter, Mrs. W. L. Everhart and Miss Gail Everhart, attended the picnic last Friday evening at Magnolia Bluff.

GARNIERS.

Special to The Journal.

Garniers, Fla., May 11.—The Ben- nice was up Garnier's bayou Monday last.

Capt. C. A. Ward, with the Honor, was in Garniers Tuesday last with freight.

W. N. Hartgrove was a Milton visitor last week, going Thursday and returning Friday.

Mr. C. W. Bard has sold his store building and contents at Camp Walton to Mr. Sellers and gave possession Saturday. Mr. Bard will return to his home in Wyoming. We regret to lose Mr. Bard, as he has made many friends in this community.

Mr. E. B. Goodrich was a Camp Walton and Garniers visitor Saturday and Sunday last. We are all glad to greet him and regret the necessity that takes him from us.

Mrs. R. C. Irwin and Mrs. Bushnell were Pensacola visitors last week.

The friends of Mr. and Mrs. Littlefield will be pleased to learn of their recovering sufficiently to be able to be out once more.

T. C. Brooks and Blaney Brooks were callers in Garniers bayou last Friday.

Our bayous have been visited by the highest tides during the past few days that have occurred for many months. We have also been having some heavy rains.

Married; last Thursday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Littlefield on Nigger Bayou, Miss Needa Littlefield and Mr. John Hueston. The ceremony was performed by Mr. J. N. Stanford, notary public. The contracting parties are an estimable young couple who are well and favorably known by a large circle of acquaintances, who wish them a happy and prosperous life. They will live on the homestead of the groom on Five Mile Bayou.

Mr. Kinney is moving the pavilion at the Gulfview Hotel at Camp Walton out nearer to the edge of the beach. The plan is to build a shell drive along the beach and the pavilion interfered in its present location.

AN ALABAMA TOBACCO FARM

Experiments Now Being Made by Planters Near Brewton, Ala.

Noting the success of the experiments in Escambia county of the tobacco planted last year, planters near Brewton have decided to make like experiments and two acres have been planted near Brewton. The land has been shaded and the planters believe their experiments will prove successful.

A special from Brewton regarding the tobacco farm, is as follows:

"The experimental tobacco farm of two acres, which Brewton men are promoting, and of which J. W. Terry has charge, located on Mr. Terry's place, two miles north of town, is receiving a great deal of attention from the people of the entire county."

"Mr. Terry has made two trips to Quincy, Fla., where are located some of the largest tobacco farms in the world, and there learned all that was possible to learn about the culture and caring for the fine grades of cigar wrapper tobacco, and he is sanguine of success with the experiment."

"The two acres are enclosed by a solid board wall eight feet high and covered with one and a quarter inches slats placed one and a half inches apart. This shade is said to be as good as any to be found in the Gadsden county district."

"Tobacco requires a high degree of fertilization, and upon these two acres Mr. Terry has placed five sacks of cotton seed meal, 200 bushels of green cotton seed, 2,000 pounds of lime 2,000 pounds of special tobacco fertilizer, fifty tons of rough manure and 20,000 pounds of ashes from the slab pits at the saw mills. This fertilizer is thoroughly incorporated with the ground to a depth of sixteen inches. On this specially prepared ground there are 26,400 Sumatra plants set out, and they are growing off nicely, some of them now being at least fifteen inches high and from reports received from the Florida fields are as far advanced as any in that section. When grown the plants will reach the top of the enclosure and protrude through the cracks in the covering."

"Get your ad. in early for The Weekly Journal, issued Friday. Last chance before primary."

So Mr. Bryan considers Governor Johnson's candidacy an "impertinence." Does the man consider himself the janitor of the party?—Milwaukee Sentinel.

We are constrained to believe that the Joneses of Georgia are becoming mollycoddish, or they wouldn't let the Smiths and Browns absorb all the political glory.—Houston Post.

In our hysteria for promoting any cause we should not lose sight of truth and justice, for there are many more days in which we have to live in the land after the present controversy is over.—Chattanooga Times.

Get your ad. in early for The Weekly Journal, issued Friday. Last chance before primary.

So Mr. Bryan considers Governor Johnson's candidacy an "impertinence." Does the man consider himself the janitor of the party?—Milwaukee Sentinel.

We are constrained to believe that the Joneses of Georgia are becoming mollycoddish, or they wouldn't let the Smiths and Browns absorb all the political glory.—Houston Post.

In our hysteria for promoting any cause we should not lose sight of truth and justice, for there are many more days in which we have to live in the land after the present controversy is over.—Chattanooga Times.

Get your ad. in early for The Weekly Journal, issued Friday. Last chance before primary.

So Mr. Bryan considers Governor Johnson's candidacy an "impertinence." Does the man consider himself the janitor of the party?—Milwaukee Sentinel.

We are constrained to believe that the Joneses of Georgia are becoming mollycoddish, or they wouldn't let the Smiths and Browns absorb all the political glory.—Houston Post.

In our hysteria for promoting any cause we should not lose sight of truth and justice, for there are many more days in which we have to live in the land after the present controversy is over.—Chattanooga Times.

MORE MONEY IS ALLOWED BY THE COUNTY

Supervisor Goss Gets $250 For Extra Help on the Books.

THIS IS FOR THE PREPARATION OF A SET OF NEW BOOKS AS REQUIRED BY LAW—COMMISSIONERS HOLD REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of county commissioners was held last night with Chairman Merritt presiding, and Commissioners Clopton, Davis, Roberts and Steward present.

A number of reports, including the report of the recent grand jury on the condition of county buildings and property, were read. The pension applications of Mrs. Anna Elizabeth In- frastra and Mrs. A. Stringfield were approved.

About the only matter of interest to be discussed was the application of J. D. Goss, supervisor of registration, for additional money on account of extra work entailed in making an extra set of books containing the names of all registered voters of the county, as well as transferring a large number to the newly created election districts.

The opinion of County Attorney Carter was read, bearing on whether the commissioners could legally allow compensation for the extra work. The supervisor receives a salary of $300 per year, and he stated to the board the extra work had made it necessary for him to employ three extra men, and that the outlay for this purpose alone had already reached over $200, with another week's work to be done.

The board, after considering the matter for several minutes, decided to allow the supervisor $250 for the extra work.

Road matters were then discussed, after which adjournment was taken.

Setze's ice cream and ices at the Ladies' Bazaar Tuesday and Wednesday.

Get your ad. in early for The Weekly Journal, issued Friday. Last chance before primary.

POLITICS IN BRISTOL, FLA.

Dr. J. M. Spence, Prohibition Candidate for State Senate, a Winner.

Special to The Journal. Bristol, Fla., May 12.—On Saturday Dr. J. W. Spence, candidate for the state senate from the Fifth senatorial district, met the people of Bristol precinct for the purpose of discussing the issues involved in the present campaign.

Dr. Spence and his audience, went to the court house and after selecting Judge Bowen Shepard to preside, the doctor announced his platform. He favors negro disfranchisement, the expenditure of the school tax paid by white tax payers exclusively on white children, collection of a franchise tax on corporations who have the right of eminent domain or who are granted any other special privilege, and above all and of these, he favors state prohibition, and the control by the state of all trusts or corporations in restraint of trade.

The doctor made a very forcible argument in favor of his position, and asked for the support of every voter who agreed with him in what would be good for the state.

Dr. Spence is opposed in this contest by Mr. R. T. Horsford, who is charged with being the candidate of the "whiskey people." Dr. T. H. Jackson is also a candidate for the state senate, and is generally conceded to be a safe man for the people.

Dr. Spence will speak at Rock Bluff on Monday night next, and will then go to Wakulla county, where he will meet the voters at two places, and will close his campaign in Apalachicola about the last of the week.

There is great interest being manifested in the United States senatorship, and in the contest for the governorship, Fletcher and Broward will get each a good vote. The Lamar and Beard will divide the small end. Stockton will be to the good for the governor, but Brown and Gilchrist will each get a few votes.

The Pensacola Concert Band, white, composed of 22 qualified voters, is and has been competent to accept and play for political concerts or any other engagements. Telephone No. 799. Joe Bledsoe, Leader of Band.

CONVENTION CLOSES WITH BIG BANQUET

Knights of Columbus Delegates Enjoy the Pleasant Event.

WAS GIVEN IN K. OF C. HALL, AND MANY SHORT ADDRESSES WERE DELIVERED BY VISITORS AS WELL AS LOCAL MEMBERS OF THE ORDER.

The annual session of the Florida State Council of Knights of Columbus, came to a close last night with a banquet at K. of C. hall on West Garden street, given by the local council in honor of the visiting knights and Daughters of Rebecca. The banquet was a feature of the annual meeting. Many short addresses were delivered, both by local knights and visitors, and when the several hundred present left the hall about midnight it was after having spent one of the most enjoyable evenings experienced in many years.

The Business Session. Yesterday morning the council convened for the annual business session. The delegates were welcomed by Jno. R. Jones and W. A. Blount, Jr., and the response was by A. L. Rogero, of Jacksonville. Officers were then selected as follows:

State Deputy—A. L. Rogero, of Jacksonville.

State Secretary—Edmund Fox, of Pensacola.

State Advocate—J. A. Micala, of St. Augustine.

State Treasurer—J. Marx, of St. Augustine.

State Warden—J. H. Heskins, of Key West.

Delegates to Grand Convention—A. L. Rogero and J. B. Bell, with John Massey and Dan Mulasky as alternates.

Fernandina was selected as the next place for the annual convention.

Last Night's Banquet. The convention then adjourned, and last night the delegates and members of the local council and Daughters of Rebecca, gathered in large numbers at the hall and there spent several hours most enjoyable. One of the features of the evening was the presentation of Grand Knight Massey, who presided as toastmaster, of a handsome gold watch fob, suitably engraved. This was from the Daughters of Rebecca and was presented by Miss Mary Maloney.

The hall was prettily and appropriately decorated for the occasion, and short addresses, all full of wit and humor, were made by the following: Grand Deputy Rogero of Jacksonville, Hon. J. E. Sullivan of this city, J. Machler of St. Augustine, R. R. Mar- rock of Jacksonville, J. O'Keefe, and Father Patrick Turner of the Sacred Heart church, who spoke in part as follows:

"The greatest and freest ground for the workers of the Catholic church is right here in America, where the citizens themselves are the government and are not afraid to voice their sentiments on matters of religion—right here where there are big hearted, benevolent, liberty loving men, is the place where we most flourish—right here is where we receive new life and new vigor in the freshness of young American manhood."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

"The right between labor and capital is fast growing to a point where the law-making fathers of the country will have to step in and take a hand in settling the many troubles that come up from day to day. You Knights of Columbus are expected to do your duty as American citizens and do as much toward the settling of these troubles anybody in the country. You are expected to do even more, as you are not like the other orders—you are brothers in the order as well as in religion."

this week from a visit to their former home, Albany, Ga., where she has been a Chautauqua visitor and the guest of Mrs. Jos. S. Davis.

Mr. M. H. Baldwin will leave this week for a visit to Dawson, Ga. He expects to be away about ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Harmon, Mr. Robt. Pilcher, Mr. D. Harmon and Miss Mattie Williams composed a jolly party on a week's encampment on the golf beach, returning Saturday.

Hon. W. C. Lockay, our esteemed clerk of court at Vernon, was a guest of Southport Saturday and Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Boyd has been called to serve the Baptist congregation here for the next year. He filled the appointment last Sabbath for the first time.

Mrs. J. C. and Master Jack Swack returned home on the Tarpon Wednesday from a visit to the family of Mr. Savage, at Atlanta.

WHITE MAN HAD PLENTY OF GOODS

James McGill, a white man, arrested at the union depot yesterday by Special Officer Ynestra on the charge of being a vagrant, surprised the officers at the police station when he was searched, for about everything imaginable in cheap jewelry, trinkets and some articles of clothing were found upon him.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.

The man was attempting to sell one of the rings when he was approached by the officer. He turned to the officer then and offered to sell him the ring, first for $1 and later for 10 cents.