The Grip.
"Before we can sympathize with others, we must have suffered ourselves." No one can realize the suffering attendant upon an attack of the grip, unless he has had the actual experience. There is probably no disease, that causes so much physical and mental agony, or which so successfully defies medical aid. All danger from the grip, however, may be avoided by the prompt use of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy, not one case has ever been reported that has resulted in pneumonia or that has not recovered. For sale by all druggists.

PENSACOLA MERCHANTS HAVE BANNER YEAR.

stop it. Our advertising has been very profitable to us.

T. H. Lannon & Co. Mr. Lannon says that his holiday trade was even better than he expected. The present city improvements guarantee even a better year for 1907. There will be no dull season after the holidays, but on the contrary business will be even better. Rhodes-Putch-Collins. Mr. Collins says: Our sales were enormous. My volume of business for the past two weeks will show several hundred dollars increase over the Jacksonville branch. My advertising has been even more successful than I expected. I think the coming year will be even better. I see no reason why it should not.

H. O. Anson. I've got no kick coming. I got my share of business. I really expected more business this season than last year because of my increased advertising, but I got even more than I expected. There will be plenty of money spent here in 1907. Business will be fine. White & Nix. Mr. Nix says that their holiday business was wonderful. The cash sales were especially large. Boston Shoe Store. Every merchant should feel glad for the successful year just past. Our business was ahead of last year.

The John White Store. Mr. James A. White. I don't know the cause, but our business for 1906 was greater than the year before. People had money to spend and spent it. We were surprised at our large holiday business. Crystal Pharmacy. Capt. W. A. Rawls said: We don't know whether to attribute it to our advertising or our own merits, but our holiday business was great. We sold out nearly all the candy and other special holiday goods we had. Everyone had practically the same story to tell. Now for the New Year.

For any disease of the skin there is nothing better than Chamberlain's Salve. It relieves the itching and burning sensation instantly and soon effects a cure. Sold by all druggists.
