JURY RETURNED VERDICT OF GUILTY

In the Case of Sambo Grice, Who Was Tried in the Criminal Court.

In the Criminal Court yesterday, Judge E. D. Beggs presiding, Sambo Grice, the negro who was arrested Wednesday night for criminally assaulting the little daughter of C. M. King at the corner of Hayne and Strong streets, was tried and convicted, the jury remaining out only a short time before a verdict finding the defendant guilty as charged was returned.

The case was the principal one of the day, and considerable interest was shown by the public in the outcome. The defendant was represented by John P. Stokes and the prosecution conducted by Solicitor Loftin.

Speedy Justice.

Speedy justice was dealt out in this case. The negro was arrested Wednesday night and Thursday was committed to the county jail. Friday he was given a preliminary hearing before the justice of the peace and held to the Criminal Court for trial. An information was filed against him in that court by the solicitor and yesterday he was tried and convicted. Sentence was not passed by the court yesterday afternoon. The extreme penalty in a case of this nature is twenty years in the penitentiary.

Other Cases.

Pink Williams was convicted on the charge of embezzlement and obtaining property by false promises, and sentenced to pay a fine of $50 and costs or serve six months in jail.

John Henry for aggravated assault was convicted and sentenced to pay a fine of $25 and costs or serve three months in jail.

Major Spencer for petit larceny, was sentenced to pay a fine of $5 and costs or serve 30 days in jail.

Victor McCracken was convicted on the charge of carrying concealed weapons, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs or serve three months in jail, and in addition to serve three months.

"If I were nominated for the Presidency of the United States," said Mr. Henpeck, "I would—" "You nominated for president of the United States!" his wife interrupted. "What are you thinking of? You mean if we were nominated, don't you?" Then he wisely changed the subject.—Chicago Record.

To My Patrons

Having been reliably informed that certain reports have become current in this city through envious and malicious misstatements of a so-called or styled tailoring establishment of Pensacola, to the effect that my custom tailoring is being done away from home, I take this method of notifying all my patrons and the public at large that such statements are utterly without foundation in every respect and entirely false. All my work is done right here, under my direct supervision, open to inspection by any and all. Will all the so-called tailoring firms of this city make the same offer? In this connection will state I am not compelled to send my work through alleys to avoid detection.

LONDON SLUMS WILL BE THE SUBJECT

Of Address of Rev. Chas. F. Kean at Y. M. C. A. This Afternoon.

At the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon and at the First Baptist church tonight, Rev. Chas. F. Kean will speak on "Life in the Slums of London," and will tell how crime breeds. The address this afternoon is for men only, but at the First Baptist church it is for the public in general.

Rev. Charles Frederick Kean is a missionary in the East End of London, in the slums of the largest city in the world, a man whose father was a missionary whose grandfather and whose great-grandfather spent their lives preaching to and teaching the criminals, the outcasts and the lowly in the wastes of the great city.

Mr. Kean was born to his work and all his life has been spent in trying to lead to the "better way" criminals of every kind, age and sex.

In speaking to a Journal representative Mr. Kean said that crime in this country could not be compared with crime in London. It had been his observation, he stated, in visiting penitentiaries and prisons throughout this country, that the percentage of real criminals is as yet small. There were, however, he found, a great number of the criminals made so by chance, circumstances and by environment. And he stated that unless strong preventatives are used to keep the children of this country from becoming criminals, in a few generations the United States will equal the Mother Country in that particular.

In his lecture, Rev. Mr. Kean deals with that part of the great city made memorable by Dickens. He describes graphically, the location in which "Jack the Ripper" murdered seven of his nine victims and the funeral services of the unhappy women, two of whom had at one time been members of his Sunday school.

Crime in London is hereditary, he said. He knew of instances where three and four generations of criminals had been born and reared in the same house and with these men, there was but one expectation—to die either in the prison cell, or on the scaffold. Children of these are trained for a life of crime as a livelihood.

Mr. Kean does not tell these things simply to amuse his audience nor is his lectures without local application. He knows crime at its worst and he knows its cause, and he hopes to show, in each city when he lectures, how certain tendencies in that city are directly producing crime and how the conditions of London will surely become the conditions in every city where these crime-producing agencies are permitted unrestricted play.

This lecture is to be delivered at the Young Men's Christian Association this afternoon at 4 o'clock and all men of the city are invited.

At the Salvation Army.

Rev. Mr. Kean has also kindly consented to deliver his famous lecture, "Life in the Slums of London," at the Salvation Army hall on West Government street Monday night at 7:35 o'clock. The Army intends making the meeting an interesting one. Hon. J. Campbell Avery will preside, and a number of ministers will be in attendance, Max J. Heinberg will render some excellent violin solos, W. S. Garfield will assist in the musical program, as will also the Epworth League of the Gadsden Street Methodist church.

SHIPMENTS OF LUMBER SHOW INCREASE

During the Past Week Over Nine Million Feet Were Exported.

Shipments of lumber and timber during the past week showed a big increase over the amount exported any previous week for several months. Clearances at the custom house for the six days, concluding yesterday, showed that 9,493,000 feet had been cleared.

During the week six vessels entered and eight took out clearance papers. All of the vessels cleared caried cargoes of lumber and timber, there being no other item of export during the entire week.

The records show that 3,443,000 superficial feet of sawn timber and 6,050,000 superficial feet of lumber were exported, making a total of 9,493,000 superficial feet.

KRESS'
5-10 AND 25 CENT STORE

Kress' "Special" Sales

The "regular" values in the Kress Stores are considered "specials" in other stores.

When we advertise a "SPECIAL SALE" it means something very "extra special," according to the Kress standard of prices.

Those who get to the store often understand this, for they are accustomed to expect the very low prices we charge for all things we sell.

All of our counters look like "special sales" every day we are open for business because our prices simply cannot be equaled in any other store.

Some of the "extra specials" that are now permanent among the many special values always to be found in Kress Stores are the following:

MONDAY, 9 A. M.

Sensational Sale of Laces

A big lot of fancy laces and insertions just in.

We kept the manufacturers busy when they needed the work the most, so the price is shaded down close to the cost of production.

The range is large and the choice of patterns excellent. The assortment consists of Vals, Torchons, Fancy Cotton and Chantilly Laces.
