Opening Picnic at Bluff.

The opening picnic of the season at Magnolia Bluff, and one which promises to be very successful, is to be given Friday for the benefit of the Sacred Heart church. The new street railway line to the Bluff will be completed to that point before the date of the picnic, and cars will be run throu[illegible] for the first time on that date[illegible]ient number of cars will [illegible] handle the crowds. [illegible] features of the [illegible]e of base ball be[illegible] Hearts and St. Mi[illegible] leading the Play[illegible] This promises to be [illegible] and in addition there will [illegible]mber of foot races and other [illegible]ing features. Handsome prizes [illegible] to be awarded the most popular [illegible]y on the grounds, the most popular [illegible]an, the prettiest child, the best lady [illegible]ancer and the best gentleman [illegible]ancer.

Patrons Appreciative.

That the theatregoing public of Pensacola appreciate a good performance is attested by the immense audiences which are crowding the Bijou Airdome this week. The bill is an excellent one, no doubt, and the applause shows that they take with the public.

The Abbott Clayne Co., in a musical sketch, takes from the jump with the crowds, while Richard Harding, a real tramp comedian, carries out his part to perfection. He is one of the best comedians of this character ever seen on the Bijou stage. Sylvan and O'Neal in a comedy acrobatic sketch, are good, their acrobatic work being especially fine.

Veteran Day at Beach.

One of the largest crowds of the season is expected at Palmetto Beach today and tonight to celebrate Confederate Veteran Day, and the various features to be presented by this time honored band of old warriors will call forth the praises of those who take advantage and attend. Miss Carroll Beam, one of the most prominent of vocalists of recent day fame, has consented to grace the occasion and render vocal selections. Miss Beam's voice has won her laurels as a coloratura of note, and Pensacolians will be treated to something out of the ordinary upon this lady's appearance tonight at the Palmetto Beach auditorium.

What could appeal more to the hearts of Pensacolians, or the loyalty of those to a lost cause, than listening to the strains of "Dixie" played by one who wore the gray and bore the banner of the Confederacy from the beginning to the close of the war? Prof. Allen—and we all know him, for he is one of Pensacola's oldest citizens, will render selections on the violin, and as Pensacolians know, his rendition of "Dixie" in five different arrangements, has been talked about only too often. It will be a "warrior's treat" to listen to this old veteran play upon the violin, and the old soldier boys will be on hand to cheer him to an echo.

The Dunhams, who are featured on this week's bill, and well known to Pensacolians, will also be on hand to give their celebrated gymnastic exhibition. What more need be said than to repeat their success the world over. Willie Farine, who appears with these noted artists, will also prove a feature.

The team of Browning and Keller will contribute to the fun of the evening with delightful singing, dancing, and whistling, amongst which will be some of the airs known to the older generation.

Then our funny friend, Harry Hanson, who has "won out" this week as a funny black face entertainer will "be there" with a lot of his "funny-isms", and a line up of tricks to create loud laughter. The moving pictures close the show.

There will be a matinee Friday afternoon at 4:30 (upon the arrival of the 4:15 car). This will enable the children to witness this week's show. Sunday there will be the usual sacred concert with Miss Mae Taylor as the feature, in sacred songs.

If you consider your best interests in buying a medicine for Poor Appetite, Indigestion, Heartburn, Cramps, Diarrhoea & Malaria, you will insist positively on having

16 TO 4, IN FAVOR OF THE JOURNAL

JOURNAL STARS AND EVENING NEWS MISFITS PLAYED BALL YESTERDAY, TO THE SORROW OF THE LATTER.

Sixteen to four in favor of The Journal!

Got that?

Has It Soaked In Good and Strong?

WE TOLD YOU SO. Indeed, we did. And when The Journal's line-up of fine, A-1 ball twirlers showed up on the Palmetto Beach diamond yesterday, alongside of the News gang of bunged-up, Misfits, well, the result was painful—heart-rending, in fact. After sizing up the situation, however, The Journal nine saw they had some quick, disagreeable work to perform, and everybody spat on their hands and went to work licking the bunch of apologies that the News had had the nerve to turn loose for the occasion. Then things began happening, and continued to happen until the kind and obliging umpire, Hon. Jos. Fitzpatrick, had piled up as large a score as anybody might wish to have, against the News. And then—the whipped crowd silent slunk to the nearest car and solemnly wended their way to Pensacola!

The feature of yesterday's game was the four-flushing of the News, caused, according to some, by the write-up the News trailed out with last night as a final send-off to its alleged ball players.

Another feature was the fine way they had of disdaining "flies", which showed plainly, the way they handled them, we mean, that if they'd had a fly editor like The Journal (OF COURSE The Journal has really several "fly" editors, very fly—but we're speaking of Colonel Bob, just now, the HOUSE fly editor), that they might really have known something about these flies when the time came.

But they didn't.

And Colonel Tyler, he of house-fly fame in The Journal, you know, knowing all about flies and things, you see, just sat in the bleachers and actually groaned. He couldn't help it.

The Game.

Wells, manager for The Journal team, made an A-1 catcher, doing some fine work, while Captain Dudley Barrow covered himself and waded around in glory and gore as he put it to them in his place as pitcher.

McLellan, the short-stop, hit the ball so hard that the whole Palmetta Beach park was endangered, for the time being, while Watson on first base, Anderson on second, and Cherburg on third, were winners from the ground up.

Goulding was center field and Stokes left field, while Frankie Cook, who played right field, and who is galley boy, (otherwise devil) in The Journal's composing room, lived up to the name all right, being one of the stars of the game, scoring four times, and generally assisting in an all-around valuable manner.

And Oh! those general utility men!

Dennis, Little, Dansby, and the rest were on hand, and Old Si Lillard, with the aforesaid ice cream trousers, (Si says it was those pants that engineered the whole thing through to success, but Si is given to enthusiasm, occasionally).

Rutledge couldn't get there because a kitchen safe fell down on top of him at home, but he meant well, just the same. Those in the editorial rooms, as we predicted, were kept busy at the phones, and handing out the score in a right lordly manner after the game had been played.

These are the alleged ball players, or the "innocents", that the News put up for slaughter yesterday:
