A City Vision.

A bit of fern upon a window-sill,
A bit of field transplanted to the town,
And striving hard to keep its emerald gown
As fresh and bright as when beside a rill
That wanders down a wood-embroidered hill
It wore upon its head a dew-wet crown—
And now so pallid 'neath the austere frown
Of iron skies that wither, blight and kill.

Dear bit of green! By thee my thoughts are turned
To field and forest, meadow, lane and brook—
How often for the sight my soul has yearned!
Dear native land! Afar to thee I look,
As one who with world-weary heart and eyes
Might gaze o'er walls of death at Paradise!

An Enjoyable Bay Party.

Mr. H. H. Thornton entertained yesterday on the Monarch, complimentary to Miss Alfie Willis, and her guests, Miss Eyrich, of Jackson, and Miss Martin, of Gadsden, Ala.

Besides the honorees, the guests were: Mrs. Lewis Willis, Mrs. H. L. Simpson, Mrs. E. C. Maxwell, Mrs. J. C. Avery Jr., Mrs. Jno. E. Stillman, Miss Josie Knowles and her guests, Miss Parrott of Jacksonville, and Miss Hamilton of Virginia; Miss Nelly Keyser and her guest, Miss Staples of Mexico City; Miss Cora Hunt and her guest, Miss Fleming of Athens; Miss Stella Avery, Miss Kitty Avery, Miss Cora Louise Simpson, Miss Hilda Blount, Miss Edna Avery, Miss Daisy Hyer, Miss Annie Walker, Miss Harrybelle Durant, Miss Jennie Stillman, Miss Judith Maxwell, Messrs. Lewis Willis, J. C. Avery Jr., L. Earle Thornton, J. E. Davis Yonge, D. C. Thronton, Buckner Chipley, Earle Fritter, J. P. Thornton, Dr. M. E. Quina and Mr. LeBlanc of New Orleans.

The party left at 11 o'clock, stopped at lovely Santa Rosa beach, and then out into the gulf, returning at 4 o'clock.

A jolly, congenial party—an ideal Pensacola day—on the Monarch in beautiful Pensacola harbor—refreshments—the tale is told.

New Year's Festivities at Century.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Rice entertained delightfully at their lovely home in Century on Wednesday evening at a six o'clock dinner complimentary to Miss Lottie Rice and several other attractive guests. Covers were laid for fourteen, and a delightful course dinner was served.

Besides the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Rice, those present were Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Owen, Misses Susie Dell and Lulu Wiggins, Mr. E. F. Goldsmith and Mr. D. Peavey, of Atmore, Mr. Jas. M. Clark, Hon. Scott M. Loftin and Miss Loftin, of Pensacola, Mr. Gordon Rankin, of Brewton, Mrs. R. C. Rice and Miss Rice.

In the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Rice and their guests repaired to the Century Club, and enjoyed the New Year reception given by the ladies of the club.

The rooms were exquisitely decorated and beautiful music was rendered throughout the evening by Barrios orchestra, of Pensacola.

A Delightful New Year's Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Miller, of the Pensacola light house, gave a most enjoyable New Year's dinner in honor of their guest, Mr. Otto Sondheim, of Detroit, Mich. The dinner, which was quite elaborate, was served in several courses. Holiday greens made the house extremely attractive. The guests were Mr. Sondheim, Mr. and Mrs. N. W. Watkins and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ringgold, all of whom had a most delightful day. This is Mr. Sondheim's first visit to Florida, and he expressed great delight in everything he saw. He left Friday at noon for Montgomery, Louisville and other Southern cities, en route to Detroit.

Navy Yard Dance Friday Evening.

One of the most brilliant dances of midwinter affairs thus far in Pensacola was the dance given by the officers at the Navy Yard Friday night. About seventy-five couples were present and the dancing continued until a late hour. The ball was given in the equipment building which had been decorated with military flags, etc., for the occasion. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening. Mrs. Captain Cutter and Paymaster Bull received for the navy officers.

Pensacola Library Association to Meet.

The regular monthly meeting of the Pensacola Library Association will be held in the Blount building Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock sharp. All members are urged to be present.

A New Year's Dinner Party.

Mrs. W. H. Smith and daughter, Miss Nina, 411 Cervantes street, entertained at a family dinner party on New Year's day. A bountiful repast was served and dainty place cards—calendars of the new year—marked the plates. Those present were: Mrs. W. J. Hahn and Miss Julia Hahn, of Cottage Hill, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hahn, Miss Lois Houlette and Miss Clara Jacoby.

Friday Afternoon Euchre Party.

Mrs. J. G. Yniestra entertained the Friday Afternoon euchre party last week. A most pleasant afternoon was spent by the members of the club who were present and the prizes were awarded as follows: Ace prize and lone hand to Mrs. C. D. Beyers; consolation to Mrs. Yniestra and the booby to Mrs. E. Rady. Mrs. Rady will entertain the club at the meeting this week.

Jolly Dance at Goulding.

A delightful and jolly dance was given at the home of Mrs. Hart, at Goulding, Fla., last week by Messrs. Reuben and Dan Hart. Many friends were present and the couples enjoyed the dancing until a late hour. Delicious refreshments were served during the evening.

Tuesday Afternoon Euchre Club.

The meeting of the Tuesday Afternoon Club was held with Mrs. Thos. F. Wrighton last week and proved most enjoyable to the members present. The ace and lone hand prizes were awarded to Mrs. A. A. Dopley, the consolation to Mrs. J. G. Yniestra, and the booby to Mrs. Dan Murphy. Mrs. J. G. Yniestra will be the hostess at the meeting this week.

Benefit for Pearl Eagan Orphan Home.

The benefit given last Monday afternoon and night for the Pearl Eagan Orphan's Home, in which about fifty school children of Pensacola took part, netted $90. This is most pleasing to the ladies who organized and carried out the scheme.

Opening of F. E. C. Ry.'s Y. M. C. A. Building.

The following announcement of the formal opening and dedication of the Florida East Coast Ry. Y. M. C. A. building at St. Augustine, has been received:

"The formal dedication and official opening of the Florida East Coast Railway Young Men's Christian Association building, Saint Augustine, Florida, will be held Friday evening, January tenth, 1908, at eight o'clock. A number of prominent railway officials of the railways of the South, anid members and secretaries of the state and international committees, of the Young Men's Christian Association, will be present. A cordial invitation is extended to yourself and family."

MILTON

Special to The Journal.

Milton, Fla., Jan. 4.—Rev. S. G. Hutton, who was pastor of the Milton and Bagdad Presbyterian churches about three years ago, and who made himself conspicuous by his energy and enthusiasm in the work has just been called by unanimous voice to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church at Winona, Miss., and preached his first regular sermon there on the first Sunday in December.

Mr. Hutton comes to this church from Argentina of the synod of Arkansas, but is a native of Pleasant Ridge, Ala., and a son of Rev. C. M. Hutton, now of Fort Worth, Tex.

Mr. Hutton is a graduate of the Southern Western Presbyterian University of Clarksville, Tenn., the Union Theological Seminary of Hampton Sidney, Va., and a post-graduate of the University of Texas.

Mrs. A. S. Harrison, who has owned and managed the city hotel here for a number of years, but who recently leased it to Mrs. D. C. Norris for six months, has again assumed its management and will give to the traveling pubuc that care and attention which has so justly celebrated her hostelry in the past.

Dr. C. O. Chunn visited his family in New Orleans during the holiday vacation.

Although not quite so well today, attending physicians believe Dorsey C. Norris, who was shot Christmas night, will recover from the wounds. The bullet struck Mr. Norris in the back of the neck, and glanced downward. It has not yet been located.

The confectionary business of H. C. Monroe was closed up and the stock sold at public sale. J. B. Ellis and W. J. Williams, Jr., have rented the building recently occupied by Monroe.

Mrs. Howard S. Bates and little daughter are visiting relatives in Georgia.

Miss Luella Ellisor has joined Rev. and Mrs. W. T. Ellisor in Atmore, Ala., which will be their future home.

Mrs. J. A. Shafer will entertain the Wednesday Euchre Club and the Five Hundred Club next Wednesday in Bagdad.

Rev. B. R. Anderson will shortly tender his resignation as pastor of the Presbyterian church, as he will accept a call elsewhere. Mr. Anderson is an earnest worker, and his loss will be a severe blow to the church.

Mrs. D. T. Carter spent New Year with friends in Pensacola.

Robert Pendleton returned to Jacksonville Thursday after a week spent with his father and sister. S. J. Pendleton, Jr., accompanied him, having accepted a position in Jacksonville.

L. A. Chitwood, of Apalachicola, is here trying to close out the interests of local parties in the steamer Sun, by purchases of their stock.

Mrs. Mary Johnson and son, O. L. Johnson, left New Year's day to visit friends in Caryville.

Mrs. William Davidson and Mrs. Ethel Davidson spent New Year's with friends in Pensacola.

Carl H. Jernigan, who has accepted the vice-presidency of the Pensacola Bank and Trust Company, will move his family to Pensacola.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Diden are now occupying a part of the residence with Mrs. A. R. Seabrook, Mrs. Diden's mother.

The Epworth League gave a reception New Year's night to the Rev. Mr. Mays, the newly appointed Methodist minister.

Mrs. D. M. Henderson and children spent the New Year with relatives in Pensacola.

Mrs. H. O. Kyle and little son left Wednesday for their home in Mobile, after several weeks' visit to relatives here.

NO WEDDING BELLS FOR HIM

Count Szechanyi to Continue to Ride in Hired Vehicles and Hunger.

By Glenn Guernsey.

New York, Jan. 4.—Excuse these tears! The marriage of Miss Gladys Vanderbilt and Count Szechenyi, which it was once rumored would finally take place about the middle of January, is now apparently off. Alas, for love's young dream! Alas, that the Szechenyi family, which is one of the oldest in Hungary, should have to continue to ride in hired carriages, and go hungry to its ancestral bed!

According to reports from Buda Pest, which are no more unreliable than the hundred of other rumors, the hitch is over the price the count is to receive for his title. It is alleged that the twelve million dollars which Miss Vanderbilt has in her own rights were not sufficient to satisfy the modest demands of the count's relatives, and that Reggie and Alfie Vanderbilt were expected to sit into the game and bring the pot up to what the Szechenyis would consider a proper amount. Reggie and Alfie, it is said, have refused, and thus the marriage, which was heralded as "purely a love affair," may be declared off.

Mean while, if worst comes to worst, Szechenyi, with his accomplishment and ability, may be able to land a job on the street cleaning force of New York, where many of his fellow citizens are now profitably employed.

The blasting of this idyll will be a great blow to the hard-working society writers of the New York newspapers. Most of them had already written elaborate articles regarding Miss Vanderbilt's trousseau, which she received from Paris, and had described with great minuteness of detail the myraid gowns and hats and veils and shoes and petticoats and lingerie which she was to wear at the ceremony and during the honeymoon. And now, as it transpires, 'twas only so much wasted labor. But, after all, the rumor may not be true. The deal may yet go through. Let us not abandon hope.
