Women Worry

More than men, says Dr. McComb, and one reason is that their nervous organizations are more delicate. True, and Hood's Sarsaparilla is just the nerve-builder, appetite-giver, and blood-purifier they need.

Indigestion 3 Years—"I was troubled with indigestion for three years. I read of Hood's Sarsaparilla and tried it. After taking a number of bottles I was completely cured." MRS. J. H. HALLEY, DeSoto, Mo.

Nervous, In Pain, No Appetite—"Had poor health for years, pain in shoulders, back and hips, with constant headache, nervousness and no appetite. Took Hood's Sarsaparilla, gained strength and can work hard all day, eat heartily and sleep well." MRS. E. GIFFELS, Moose Lake, Minn.

Rheumatism—"I had rheumatism in one of my ankles, but Hood's Sarsaparilla soon gave me permanent relief. I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla." MRS. ANN HUTCHINSON, Lafayette, Col.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is sold everywhere. In the usual liquid, or in tablet form called Sarsatabs. 100 Doses One Dollar. Prepared only by C. I. Hood Co., Lowell, Mass.

HIS BODY GUARDED

By Associated Press.

Paterson, N. J., Feb. 29.—The body of Father Leo Heinrichs, the priest who was slain by an assassin last Sunday in Denver, arrived here today. There was a crowd of about 500 persons at the station and a special detail of police was on hand but there was no demonstration.

The body was escorted to the Monastery of the Franciscan fathers where it will lie in state until tomorrow afternoon. It will be constantly guarded by members of the Catholic Societies.

It is said that the plot to kill the priest originated in this city.

An innovation is refreshing. It's something new in Pensacola—a sacred concert—Coburn's minstrels will give one at the Opera House tonight for the benefit of the Carnival. 50c and 25c.

Seven Foreigners Dead in Two Different Fires in Pittsburg

IN EACH CASE MOTHER AND CHILDREN PERISHED IN FLAMES—FIRES WERE IN CROWDED DISTRICT INHABITED BY FOREIGNERS—MANY JUMPED FROM WINDOWS, INCLUDING GIRL OF NINETEEN—FATHER OF ONE FAMILY, CRAZED WITH GRIEF, DISAPPEARED.

By Associated Press.

Pittsburg, Feb. 29.—One woman and two children were burned to death, the father is missing, two houses were destroyed and a third badly damaged by a fire that broke out on the second floor of 3110 Brereton avenue, early today. The dead:

Mary Bauchauk, 10 years old; Christine Bauchauk, 4 years old; Mrs. James Bauchauk, mother of the children; J. Bauchauk, missing.

James Bauchauk, the father, seeing the sleeping room filled with smoke, became excited and leaped from the second story window. He has not yet been seen. It is reported that he ran to the rear of the building in an effort to save his wife and children. The house was a two-story frame. It is said that a number of friends of Bauchauk were engaged in a game of cards on the second floor, when, by accident, a lamp was overturned. Bauchauk, himself, was asleep when the [illegible]ted from the exploded lamp. The card players are said to have run from the building without giving the alarm to the other occupants of the house. Bauchauk, almost suffocated by the smoke, was awakened.

A policeman, noticing the flames issuing from the house, turned in an alarm.

Pittsburg, Feb. 29.—A mother and her three children were burned to death and several persons were injured by a fire early today in the Brereton avenue foreign district, in which another family perished. This fire was next door to fire earlier this morning.

The dead:

Caroline Viacak, 33 years; Stephen Viacak, 6 years; Carroll Viacak, 4 years; Peter Viacak, 2 years.

A 19-year-old girl jumped from a window, breaking three ribs, and John Kalinkowski, occupying an adjoining house, which was destroyed, threw his wife and four children into the arms of policemen, and all were more or less injured.

The members of both families, with many boarders, were sleeping in the upper portion of the house, and when they found the exits blocked by flames a panic resulted. The boarders jumped from the windows and later attempted to enter the house and save their valuables. An extra squad of police were summoned, and great difficulty was experienced in restraining the excited foreigners.

Stephen Viacak, husband and father of the victims, was one of those who jumped from the window when the fire was discovered.

THE NEW JAIL IS ACCEPTED BY COUNCIL

Meeting Held Yesterday and Resolutions of Acceptance Passed.

BUILDING WAS COMPLETED IN CONTRACT TIME AND COMPLIES WITH ALL SPECIFICATIONS—POLICE DEPARTMENT MOVES INTO NEW BUILDING YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.

The new police headquarters and city jail was accepted yesterday at a special meeting of the city council, held in the old city hall. No other business was discussed, the call specifying only to hear the report of the Board of Bond Trustees on the new building.

When the council convened at 11 o'clock there were present President Yonge presiding, anad Aldermen Andrews, Brown, Cahn, Dunham, Ingraham, McHugh, Moyer ,Rocheblave, Reilly, Williams, Wright and Yonge.

The board of bond trustees, by a letter from its chairman, recommended the acceptance of the new city jail. The recommendation was accompanied by a report from Architects Blount & Ausfeld. This showed the building to have been completed in contract time.

Resolution Adopted.

The following was introduced by Alderman Yonge and unanimously passed:

"Whereas, the architects have reported that the city jail has been completed in accordance with contract, with the exception of laying storm water pipes and removing refuse, (which items the contractors agree to complete when the city is ready), and recommended that same be accepted by the city.

"Be it Resolved, That the city hereby accepts the said jail,

"Be it further resolved, That in accordance wit.. the recommendations of the Board of Bond Trustees that the said Bond Trustees be authorized to make final payment t othe contractors in the sum of $3,574.73, which amount includes $633.86 for extra brick work in the foundations."

Move Into New Home.

Two hours after the building had been accepted the police department began to move from the old building on Zarragossa street, and before night fall all of the records, desks, telephones, fire and police call indicators, etc., had been moved, and the prisoners transferred.

Monday morning Recorder Johnson will hold the first session of the recorder's court in the new court room on the second floor.

It Does the Business.

Mr. E. E. Chamberlain, of Clinton, Maine, says of Bucklen's Arnica Salve: "It does the business; I have used it for piles and it cured them. Used it for chapped hands and it cured them. Applied it to an old sore and it healed it without leaving a scar behind." 25c at all druggists.

Don't forget the Sacred Concert at the Opera House this evening. Benefit for the Carnival fund.

SEA CAPTAIN FOUND DEAD

CAPT. FRANK KEMBLE DROPS DEAD ON WATER FRONT IN NEW ORLEANS NEAR HIS VESSEL—POCKETS WERE RIFLED, THIEVES EVIDENTLY ROBBING BODY AFTER DEATH.

By Associated Press.

New Orleans, Feb. 29.—Captain Frank Kemble, of New York, master of the Southern Pacific passenger steamer Antilles, running between New York and New Orleans, was found dead here early today on the water front near his ship. About 1:30 a. m. some of Capt. Kemble's friends saw him passing through the French quarter of the city en route to his steamer. Shortly afterward his body was found with the pockets of his clothing turned inside out. An autopsy showed death due to uraemic convulsions.

The spot where Captain Kemble's body was found is infested by thieves and the police believe that some of these, coming across the captain's body, thought it was a drunken man and proceeded to rifle his pockets.

Captain Kemble had been in the service of the Southern Pacific [illegible] between New York and New Orleans for many years and had the distinction of bringing down more steamers from New York to New Orleans on their initial runs than any other captain in the service. He brought the Antilles down on her first trip and also the Comus. Captain Kemble was about 65 years old. He will probably be buried in New York.

An innovation is refreshing. It's something new in Pensacola---a sacred concert---Coburn's ministrels will give one at the opera house tonight for the benefit of the Carnival—50c and 25c.
