PASSIONISTS' TWO SERMONS

Important Subjects at St. Michael's Church Today—Y. P. Union.

The Passionist Fathers, at St. Michael's, will speak at all of the services today. Father Alexander will deliver a sermon at the 10:30 o'clock mass on "Human Respect." The sermon will comprise the essentials of the cause of the custom of respect among men. He will also outline the good that arises from same. His outline will be practically as follows: That man without something to revere is a barbarian. For instance, we have the different officials, both civil and religious, to respect; therefore, if they are good we must, of necessity, be also good. The barbarians revere a chief, but the chief instigates their mischief.

Father Isadore will speak on the "Transfiguration of Our Saviour" at Benediction at 7:30 p. m. The father has arranged a very attractive sermon on this important point in the Catholic faith.

The Young People's Union will hold its regular bi-monthly meeting this evening at 6:15 at the First Christian church on East Chase street. It is urged that all members attend, as there is some business matters to be presented.

The subject to be discused is a pertinent one, one, too, that deals with things both temporal and eternal, and concerns the rich and poor alike.

"The Wise Use of Money," the best thing in the world, if rightly used, and the worst thing, excepting nothing, if wrongly used.

Many good thoughts will be presented along the following lines, and which will be helpful to both old and young alike:

1. What is money?
2. How may money be laid up in heaven?
3. Some of the foolish ways to which money is put.
4. Why a warning is uttered for the rich by our Lord.
5. Can one of limited means be covetous?
6. Do the poor spend money foolishly as well as the rich?
7. The prevailing sin of the present day.
8. True riches.

Special music will be rendered by Mrs. F. E. Brawner and Miss Nell Richards.

ASPHALT CO. AGAIN LOSES

Venezuelan Superior Court Sustains 5 Million Fine Against Americans.

By Associated Press.

Caracas, Venezuela, March 12.—(Thursday) Via Willemstad, March 14.—The superior court of Venezuela today handed down a verdict confirming the judgment of the lower court which condemned the New York and Bermudoze Asphalt Company to pay a fine of $5,000,000 to the Venezuelan government for having extended assistance to the Matos revolution which was directed against President Castro.

This sum is the estimated cost of putting down the revolution. The company will appeal to the court of Cassation.

History of Case.

The finding of the lower court referred to in the above dispatch, which is the civil court of first instance, was handed down in August of last year. The appeal to the court of Cassation is now the only thing that remains to the company so far as the situation in Venezuela is concerned.

It was from American witnesses and, from testimony taken before American justices in the United States court, that the Venezuelan government obtained its most important proof of the part alleged to have been played by the asphalt company in the Matos revolution, the furnishing of the money with which to start the fight.

The controversy between the asphalt company and the Venezuelan government has been long and bitter and was in a critical state at the time that Herbert W. Bowen was American minister at Caracas. On this occasion the state department sent what was practically an ultimatum to Venezuela in regard to the matter.

The charge that the company aided the Matos revolution with funds has been substantiated, officials of the company having testified to the truth of this statement in New York in 1905.

BARTENDER SHOT WIDOW WHOM HE WANTED TO MARRY; KILLED HIMSELF

By Associated Press.

Chicago, March 14.—Charles Wideman shot himself after an attempt to murder Mrs. Minnie Heiss in the hallway of her residence. He was taken to a hospital where he died shortly afterward. Mrs. Heiis probably will die.

Wideman, who was a bartender, boarded for a long time at the residence of Mrs. Heiss, who is a widow with two children. The children said their mother and Wideman were on excellent terms and they can assign no motive for the shooting.

The police investigation indicates that Wideman was a suitor for the hand of Mrs. Heiss and she had persistently refused him. He was 58 years old.
