e You; Do Your Patriotic Duty--VOTE FOR IT

nd Answers to Them.

of five men; that they are responsible to no being bonded.

er than they have now—none greater than responsible to the people themselves once t the money under their control is protected ate Treasurer and of the Comptroller, both rge sums of public money; that no improper nless five men conspire together, and this is ublic servants should suddenly turn thieves.

e will build up a political machine of which Attorney General, Treasurer and Commis- to perpetuate themselves in power for the ld up a political machine; that no political e, unless they so construct it as to keep in ic officers; that the primary law takes care n them the sole power of selecting officers.

REJECT FOES OF THE PEOPLE

THOSE WHO OPPOSE IT.

SIX LARGE LAND SYNDICATES which own three-fifths of the area and whose objection is based solely on the ground that the cost of draining their own lands will fall on them.

THE RAILROADS which claim under legislative grants, improperly made, all of the area not yet deeded.

THE TIMES-UNION, owned jointly by the Atlantic Coast Line, the Seaboard Air Line and the Florida East Coast Railway, the three principal railrway lines in Florida.

MAJOR ALEXANDER ST. CLAIR-ABRAMS, the man who has made more reckless statements perhaps than any other man who has ever occupied the attention of the public in this State.

COL. F. W. POPE, who publicly acknowledged on the stump that he was paid by those who opposed drainage to make speeches against it.

EDITORS OF NEWSPAPERS, some of whom have accepted the favors of corporations and the balance of whom have given no time to the study of this question so as to enable them to comprehend it.

"Hail, Geazar! We Who Are About to Die Salute You."