Mr. G. A. Braddock is getting quite a fleet of fish boats in the river.

On Friday the 4th, fifty barrels of fish were shipped from Sebastian.

Mrs. S. Kitching of Stuart, came up on Thursday, to remain some time.

Mr. Glass of Stuart was in town Saturday and Sunday. We don't blame him.

The ST. LUCIE COUNTY TRIBUNE is gaining ground. So mote it be—and continue to be.

There was a nice picnic in the pretty grove of spruce near the depot on Friday, under the auspices of the Methodist Sunday school.

Messrs Chas. Park and H. Redding, after two weeks of hard effort, failed to catch their Manatees. They had contracts for two. Try again boys.

If Ft. Pierce don't quit her foolishness of making nice shell streets, town halls, parks and things she'll disturb the repose of some of the "sleepy hollows."

Our member of the School Board, Mr. B. F. Hardesty went to the "county town" on Sunday evening to attend the meeting on Monday. Mrs. Hardesty accompanied him.

Chicken thieves raided the roosts of Rev. W. T. Laine a few nights ago. $25.00 reward is offered for evidence to convict. We are glad to say there is not much of any kind of town breaking among us.

Rev. Frederic Pasco, Presiding Elder of the East Coast district, held quarterly conference in the "Little Red Top" church Saturday. He preached most excellent sermons Saturday night and Sunday a. m. to good congregations.

The liquor dealers all oppose prohibitory laws, urging as one of their principal reasons, that there is more liquor drunk in prohibition districts than elsewhere. Oh! consistency thou art a jewel!; but this one of the paste diamond kind.

Some people here are in favor of abolishing the pardoning board, or to quit convicting for murder. Preponderant opinion seems to favor abolishing the board. Anyone convicted should serve full term, unless by later evidence shown to be innocent.

That "Wet and Dry Map" of Florida in the TRIBUNE, created quite an impression here. Funny, but while Sebastian is "not by no means," a holiness camp ground, an overwhelming majority of the voters favor making St. Lucie county the twenty-ninth dry county. So mote that be "likewise also."

Appoints a Private Secretary.

Gov. Broward on Tuesday appointed M. A. Brown to the position of private secretary to the governor, in place of Charles H. Dickinson, who was a hold-over from Gov. Jennings.

Skeets! Skeets! Plenty of rain and mosquitoes.

Wedding bells will soon be ringing. But we are not to tell.

The settling up of the peninsula calls for a road. But they don't want that bunch of hogs.

Chas. Harris is building himself a commodious dwelling house on his newly purchased tract of land.

J. S. Keen and son, Frank, of Fort Pierce, were attending church here Saturday, returning Sunday.

J. F. Fletcher has been suffering with a case of salivation, but we are glad to report that he is able to be out again.

J. M. McCullers, the silent partner of Cox & Co., of Quay, has bought land of Mr. Jenkins on the peninsula and contemplates putting out an orange grove. We gladly welcome all such men.

O. K. Sheffield came up Sunday from Fort Pierce, pretending to see his mother, who was not at home. Nevertheless, he enjoyed himself so well that he did not return until the midnight train.

F. C. Poppell's orange grove is ample evidence that orange culture can be made a success in this section, as he has trees that were set out only three years ago that have upwards of two hundred oranges to the tree.

Miss Georgia Slater, who has been the principal of the school here, resigned her position Friday, on account of her mother's poor health, and left Monday for her home in Madison county. Owing to the resignation of Miss Slater, Supervisor Poppell called a meeting of the patrons and temporarily appointed Miss Forest as principal and Mr. K. M. Tedder to act as primary teacher until another teacher is secured. Notwithstanding it has been several years since Mr. Tedder has taught school, he gets there in fine shape.

QUAY.

M. S. Jones, Jr., is in Titusville for a few days this week.

The mosquitos have moved to other parts, or have died out the last few days.

Ed Walker has a large patch of sweet potatoes planted.

J. H. Jones was over from the east side this week.

James Paine, who has been spending some time with his nephew, John C. Jones, at Klondyke, came in and left for his home at St. Lucie Monday.

Dr. Dennis is expected from Cedar Rapids, Ia., to look after his grove between Quay and the river. The doctor owns several tracts of good land in this section.

President Grant directed him to accompany the lady to the department and in person deliver her application to the postmaster general.

She received the commission before she left the office.

STREET ETIQUETTE.

While walking with a lady, the gentleman should take the side next the street.

One salutation is all that civility requires when passing a person more than once on a public promenade.

If the lady with whom you are walking is saluted by another gentleman, acknowledge the same by removing your hat.

The gentleman should raise his hat when asking a lady's pardon for an inadvertence, whether she is known to him or not.

Should you desire to converse with a lady you should happen to meet, do not detain her, but turn and walk in her direction.

While walking with a lady in a crowded thoroughfare and obliged to proceed singly, the gentleman should precede the lady.

A Question of Expense.

"How will you have your eggs cooked?" asked the waiter.

"Make any difference in the cost of 'em?" inquired the cautious customer with the brimless hat and faded beard.

"No."

"Then cook 'em with a nice slice of ham," said the customer, greatly relieved.

Breakfast Table Repartee.

"Will somebody please chase the cow down this way?" said the boarder who wanted some milk for his coffee.

"Here, Jane," said the landlady ironically, "take the cow down where the calf is bawling."—Kansas City Jour-

JENSEN, Fla., August 7, 1905. Editors TRIBUNE: With Tibbals on the north and Sewalls Point on the south threatening to build up to date hotels, Jensen, sandwiched between the two, is doing some figuring also, as she already has a hotel and ample grounds with a location that is, or could be made exceedingly attractive. The hotel needs overhauling in many respects, and the grounds need attention. A few launches are needed and Jensen would be the equal of any place for comfort, convenience and enjoyment of seeking pleasure and climate, and being within an hour's run by launch to Gilbert's Bar inlet, and a two hour's run to St. Lucie inlet, north of Fort Pierce, it can be made a central point for those who like fishing, and the back country is similar to other sections along the East Coast for hunting.

It is pretty well understood that Jensen is about to wake up and make a bid in the proper style for some of the tourist travel that comes down the East Coast. Accommodations at Jensen have never been such as to draw the tourist trade, but that is no sign they cannot be secured, and now that the hotel talk is becoming popular there may be a surprise in store for some who think that Jensen is going to take a back seat; for things are going to happen if the signs of the times are not materially wrong.

It is a foregone conclusion that the north end of Dade county is too far from the county seat at Miami, and as it is improbable that the county will be divided there is but one thing for that part of Dade county which lies north of and including Jupiter to do, and that is to cut off from Dade and annex to the south of St. Lucie county, and in this event Jensen would then become the logical point for the county seat, being practically central between Jupiter and the present north line of St. Lucie county. The importance to the people in Dade, north of Jupiter, in being a part of St. Lucie county is plainly manifest; one of the most important being that, with the way the trains have always, and from the very nature of things, will always be run, they can come to the county seat on any business on a morning train, spend the day, returning to their home in the evening; while to go to Miami they travel twice the distance and have to spend a night and then not have any more time than they would if they came to St. Lucie county, with the county seat at Jensen. The amount of money they would save in railroad fare and hotel bills by becoming a part of St. Lucie county would soon make a showing in their annual expense account, to say nothing of the convenience of being able to transact ones business without having to be from home over night.

This is no pipe dream, but the result of a business application to conditions that the residents of North Dade have to contend with, just as we of St. Lucie endured before we perfected division. This is no new thought of the writer's, but is a sentiment that is in every way citizen's mind who gives any thought to matters of public, and particularly among the thinking people of Northern Dade who are now enjoying the pleasure of living as far removed from their county seat as they should be from the State capital.

If there is a single objection to it, the writer would be pleased to hear it from those who would demur. It looks good, but if it is not, let us hear what the trouble is. Yours truly,

W. R. HARDEE.
