Luckiest Man in Arkansas.

"I'm the luckiest man in Arkansas," writes H. L. Stanley, of Bruno, "since the restoration of my wife's health after five years of continuous coughing and bleeding from the lungs; and I owe my good fortune to the worlds greatest medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which I know from experience will cure consumption if taken in time. My wife improved with the first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded. At Fort Pierce Drug Co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

The Boring of Glass.

Strong glass plates are bored through by means of rotating brass tubes of the necessary diameter, which are filled with water during boring. To the water there is added finely pulverized emery. It is said that thinner glass can be perforated with holes in an easier manner by pressing a disk of wet clay upon the glass and making a hole through the clay of the width desired, so that at that spot the glass is laid bare. Then molten lead is poured into the hole, and lead and glass drop down at once. This method is based upon the quick local heating of the glass, whereby it obtains a circular crack, the outline of which corresponds to the outline of the hole made in the clay. The cutting of glass tubes, cylinders, etc., in factories is based upon the same principle.

Moderation In Exercise.

It is better to be lazy than dead, and it is probably just as [illegible]. For obvious reasons the present [illegible] moderate exercise is [illegible] unsatisfactory. Most of us are constitutionally incapable of exercising moderately. We begin violently and end quickly. And what is moderate exercise? One philosopher who tried it for twenty years arrived at this conclusion: "Keep a pair of Indian clubs in your bedroom. Look at them frequently. Exercise by their suggestion." This has the merit of moderation. It is the same as to walking. Stroll the morning; look down the long way that separates you from your business. Then take a car.—Detroit Free Press.

He Was in Trouble.

"I was in trouble, but found a way out of it, and I'm a happy man today, since Dr. King's New Life Pills cured me of chronic constipation," says E. W. Goodloe, 147 St. Louis St., Dallas, Tex. Guaranteed satisfactory. Price 25 cents at the Fort Pierce Drug Co.

NAIL CHARACTERISTICS.

They Are an Aid In Diagnosis of Diseases and Traits.

It is said that [illegible] at the base of the nails [illegible] good health [illegible]

[illegible]

It is not generally understood that [illegible] the tendency is [illegible] where the nails are [illegible] they [illegible] back to the finger [illegible]. Where the nails are long [illegible] the circulation. This is [illegible] type of nail, but [illegible] tendency to throat affections, bronchitis and the like.

[illegible] nails indicate heart disease. Where the nails are short, flat and sunken you may look for nervous disorders. The short nailed woman will criticise her friends and her foes, but she will criticise herself with the same severity. She is apt to be sarcastic and sometimes so quick at repartee that she appears almost brutal. The best of the [illegible] literary critics possess this type of nail.

Gold.

The first mention which we have of gold is in the eleventh verse of the second chapter of Genesis, or, in other words, [illegible] years before Christ. Gold was used as money by the ancient Egyptians at a very early date. Herodotus tells that the invention of the [illegible] Authorities conflict about the [illegible]. Some say it [illegible] and some the Persians, but there are no records to show just when.

The Justs.

[illegible] the enviable title of the Just. The righteousness of [illegible] was seldom called in question. This title has been conferred on several monarchs, among them being Casimir II. of Poland, Ferdinand I. and James II. of Aragon, [illegible] "Arabian Nights" [illegible] Louis XIII. of France and Peter I. of Portugal.

A Colored View.

"M[illegible]," said [illegible] Jim as he watched the [illegible] "does you see all dat brightness comin' down?"

"Yes, Jule!"

"I [illegible] what makes it. De culluh man's [illegible] swoonin' [illegible]"—Washington Star.

His Way.

Mr. Henpeck [illegible]—When [illegible] like a tool [illegible] Mrs. Henpeck (meaningly)—[illegible] like a fool.

One of the best paying pineapple plantations on the East Coast; has been bringing in $2,000 a year, and the plants are in better condition now than ever. Can be had NOW for $5,000.

It has no superior and few equals. A safe piece of property to buy at the price—$1,000.

BETTER SEE ABOUT THIS ONE.

LOT No. 5. Here is a bargain that cannot be beaten anywhere. One hundred dollars net profit is made here every year on land not as good as this, and if you buy this I will tell you how to make more money on it.—160 acres, $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Stuart, 2 acres in oranges and pineapples. Some of the trees in bearing; 1 acre in pines alone; 2 acres garden land; buildings poor. This is the best 160 acres on the St. Lucie rive or any of its tributaries—20 acres of first class pineapple land, 140 acres good garden land (30 acres of muck), and all first class orange land. Oranges are absolutely safe here; there has never been a tree killed by the cold. A heavy growth of grass on the place and a good stock range all around, and an abundance of pure soft water. This property fronts on a bay that alone is worth $1,000 to the place as it affords a perfectly safe harbor for boats in a storm. There is plenty of lemons, limes, guavas, mangoes, etc., for family use. Price, $35 per acre.

THIS IS A BARGAIN.

LOT No. 6. A very fine river front property. Two acres at Rio in pineapples. A few orange, lime and guava trees; a good 5-room, $1\frac{1}{2}$ story house; half interest in tramway and car to Rio station. The crop on this place netted $575 two years ago. Fronts on the St. Lucie river. Price, $800.

LOT 7. Ten acres of land on the St. Lucie river, $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Stuart; 6 acres of fine orange, fruit and vegetable land; it will pay for itself in one season if planted in potatoes or other vegetables. It is only a short distance from the big canal route and is certain to be worth more than is now asked. A safe investment. $200.
