Superintendent: $2+ million allocated without approval

INDIAN RIVER COUNTY — Several school board members are praising Superintendent Mark Rendell for discovering and correcting an unauthorized reallocation of budget funds.

As the school district worked through its budget process, it appeared that the amount the board requires be held in reserve for contingencies had fallen below five percent. That is important because some board members, including Chairman Shawn Frost, had indicated they would not support a final budget that did not maintain at least a five percent reserve.

At the July 31 school board meeting, Dr. Rendell read a lengthy statement into the public record that he said was follow-up to phone calls he had with board members. In that statement, See SUPERINTENDENT, page 9

Search continues for Quilted Giraffe owner

VERO BEACH — On Aug. 7, the Indian River County Sheriff’s Office held a news conference to remind residents that the search for Susy Tomassi continues, and a reward remains in effect.

On March 16, at approximately 5 p.m., Assunta “Susy” Tomassi was sitting outside the Quilted Giraffe restaurant she owns with her husband, Patrick Tomassi. Ms. Tomassi is known to sit outside the restaurant and read a book or smoke, and that is where she told her husband she would be.

“On the evening of Friday, March 16, Ms. Tomassi walked away from the Quilted Giraffe restaurant and simply vanished,” Indian River County Sheriff Deryl Loar said. “We have been actively looking for anybody that is involved in her disappearance. We have chased down nearly 100 leads, up and down the east coast of the U.S., as well as throughout Indian River County. Detective (Mike) Dilks has worked tirelessly chasing down every lead possible, as well as our entire criminal investigative division. Today, we’re making another plea for anyone that has seen anything, heard anything, knows anything to come forward.”

Ms. Tomassi frequently walked to the South Vero Square plaza to visit the See SEARCH, page 10

Candidate profiles: County Court Judge, Group 2

By Mike Winikoff

INDIAN RIVER COUNTY — Each candidate was asked to provide a bio of up to 100 words, and a summary of the biggest issue facing the community that they could address as a County Court Judge. Their answers follow:

Nicole P. Menz:

Bio: 49 years old, practicing law in Indian River County for 23 years. My career began as an Assistant State Attorney in Vero Beach in 1995. I served nearly 9 years as a prosecutor representing the people of the Florida and Indian River County. I prosecuted thousands of cases from DUI to First Degree Murder.

I have spent 14 years in private civil practice with the law firm of Menz & Battista. I have been Board Certified in Criminal Trial Law since 2005.

For the last 1-1/2 years, I have presided over traffic court as a Civil Traffic Infraction Hearing Officer.

Q: What is the biggest issue concerning your community right now that you can affect in the office you seek and, if elected, how do you plan on solving that issue?

A: One of the biggest issues is the amount of taxpayer dollars spent for cases that are appropriate for diversion. There is a Drug Court Program available to individuals charged with felony possession of drugs (cocaine, hydrocodone) that have no prior record where the evidence indicates the individual is a user and not a seller. However, there is no such program for someone charged with possession of marijuana in County Court under those same circumstances. Diversion programs not only save taxpayer dollars but they also reduce recidivism rates. It is time for diversion programs in County Court. I will seek to implement those programs.

Kiernan Patrick Moylan:

Bio: Practicing law for more than nineteen years, eleven in public service. For about three years I worked as a Florida Assistant State Attorney General handling constitutional questions at a trial level, defending the State in civil rights and other matters. For seven years I have been an Assistant Public Defender handling all types of criminal matters, particularly for the past five years assigned to all cases of the Office in Indian River County Courts. I started my legal career as in-house counsel in a large Florida company, where I became a Senior Vice President. My wife and I live in Indian River Shores with our three children.

A: My goal for my service as a county judge is to carry forward the current successful system in our Indian River County Court System. I hope to work with Court Administration, Office of the State Attorney and the Office of the Public Defender to create more diversion court opportunities as allowed by the current statutes. I also believe we need to address the driving while license suspended issue currently facing Indian River County and I will work within the bounds of the law to facilitate.

Robyn Stone:

Bio: I was born and raised in Vero Beach. I am a third-generation attorney in Indian River County. My father, Robert Stone, has been a lawyer here for fifty years. I graduated from St. Edward's School in 1997, Davidson College in 2001, and the University of Tennessee College of Law in 2006. I work for State Attorney Bruce Colton as an Assistant State Attorney. I have prosecuted thousands of cases over the last 12 years. Currently, I am a county court supervisor and I work in our Mental Health Court, Veterans' Court, and Drug Court. I live in Vero Beach.

Q: What is the biggest issue concerning your community right now that you can affect in the office you seek and, if elected, how do you plan on solving that issue?

A: According to the National Institute on Drug Abuse, more than 115 people in the United States die every day after overdosing on opioids. I know from my experience as an Assistant State Attorney and a drug court team member that the opioid crisis affects us here in Indian River County. Opioid addiction often leads to other crime such as thefts and burglaries. In county court, I would strive to address drug addictions by doing what I could do to identify entry level drug users and connect them with the many services and treatment centers our county has to offer.

Moore Motors has more mowers than you've ever seen in one place

By Mike Winikoff

mwinikoff@hometownnewsol.com

VERO BEACH — Moore Motors of Vero Beach has been selling and servicing outdoor power equipment like lawnmowers for 32 years. If, like this writer, you've driven by the U.S. 1 location hundreds of times without ever going in, you need to have a look, especially if you're in the market for a lawnmower.

Until I visited with owner Dennis Moore recently, I had no idea how deep and well-stocked the showroom is. Just driving by, you have no idea how huge it is.

"We're probably the biggest independent dealer on the coast, as far as size and amount of inventory," Mr. Moore told Hometown News. "There's nobody on the Treasure Coast that's got an inventory like this."

Before you buy a lawnmower, you need to visit Moore Motors. If you want to go someplace where you're not going to see just a handful of models, this is your place.

"You can look at a hundred lawnmowers, that's for sure," Mr. Moore said.

"At any given time there's probably 200 lawnmowers here. And we've got a warehouse in the back that's full. We have lines you won't find at the box stores. We have mowers for everyone from the entry level homeowner all the way up to professionals. We've got lawnmowers that start at less than $2,000, up to $15,000. We've got something for everybody. We sell not only to homeowners, but also landscaping companies. Whatever the application is, we have the tool for the job."

And Moore Motors has more than just mowers. As Mr. Moore explained, they have "all the equipment you need for maintaining your outdoor property." That includes Stihl chainsaws, blowers, hedge-trimmers and weed-wackers, and "anything and everything that involves making tall grass short."

Moore Motors only sells top-of-the-line equipment like Cub Cadet, Bobcat, and Hustler. They used to sell John Deere, but don't anymore because that company wanted to move the independent dealers to sell only their product. Dennis Moore was a John Deere dealer for 20 years, but he wanted to continue selling a full line of other manufacturers.

"When John Deere left us, it gave us an opportunity to stock more of the other manufacturers. For people looking for John Deere, we invite them to compare that to what we have, and they may find a superior product," Mr. Moore said. "Cub Cadet is a major player. Bobcat is a major player. Hustler is a real old company. These manufacturers don't build disposable equipment. They build premium products that are designed to last and give you more than your money's worth. We don't sell throw-away products that in five years you'll be looking to replace."

Moore Motors does still service and maintain John Deere products, as well as almost every other brand.

"What separates us from the box stores is that we have parts and we have service. If you buy it here, we service it here. You don't have to call an 800 number and get directed to go someplace for service. You bring it back here and we take care of it. We're a one-stop shop."

"There are very few things that we can't work on. We stock belts and blades and filters for almost every lawnmower in existence, not just the ones we sell. Because we work on everything, so we have to have the parts."

While the new equipment inventory is enormous, service and parts are the mainstay of Moore Motors.

"We built this business on service and parts," said Mr. Moore. "There's nothing that we sell here that we cannot provide parts and service for. If you buy a lawnmower from a box store and you have a problem with it, you can't take it back there. They're going to send you someplace."

"Everything I've got here on the floor is made in the U.S. The Bobcats, Cub Cadets, Hustlers are all made right here in the U.S. And we have some of the best warranties in the industry."

"We're always running good financing specials. We can offer zero percent interest on most lines. We can provide good financing programs right here, through the manufacturers. That gives us a tool to offer an incentive to the customer. If you don't want to reach into your pocket for the money right now, I can offer you 48 months at zero percent. And if you've got a five year warranty, the warranty will run a year longer than the payments. That doesn't happen most places."

Moore Motors sells mostly new equipment, but they also sell some used, because they take trade-ins. If you have a mower that's still got some life left in it, you can trade it in on a new one, which they'll recon-

Suspicious show of concern

Rick Scott shows up to show his concern over a problem that he and the republican legislature have had a primary role in creating. For his entire term as governor he has been in the hip pocket of Big Sugar and other industrial polluters, and developers who have been allowed to ignore environmental regulations. He and the republican legislature have refused to implement any controls over pollution discharged into the Lake Okeechobee watershed and have thwarted any attempts to divert water from the lake south instead of east and west.

Now he shows up to lament the problem he has had a significant role in causing. He blames Nelson and the Corps of Engineers. I am no big Nelson fan by any means but Scott's abysmal environmental record renders his protestations and smearing of Nelson disingenuous at best. Scott will say whatever he feels will get him elected but as soon as he is in Washington he will conveniently forget about all of this and our situation will again take a back seat to lobbyists and contributions.

Yes, the Corps of Engineers could do a better job. Yes, Nelson has let us down.

But Rick Scott has been active in aiding and abetting in the pollution of Lake Okeechobee and our water. He's pocketed tens of thousands of dollars from the polluters and has let them have their way. Don't forget that at the polls.

Re: Slow drivers

I would like to concur with the writer of the rave concerning "Slow Drivers" in the August 3, 2018 issue. I also have driven in several countries and Americans are by far the worst drivers, mostly because they believe they know EVERYTHING when they really don't.

For example, my major concern is when I am driving in the right lane and someone goes flying past me in the passing lane and then IMMEDIATELY pulls over into my lane TEN FEET in front of my front bumper!

It is a terrifying and constant experience on Florida's Turnpike. I am sure none of these drivers know that in order to pull over safely after passing, you must make sure you can see BOTH of the following vehicles headlights in your rear view mirror (not the side mirror!) before making the move.

I wish we could teach drivers the rules of the road and the traffic laws in such a way that they would not resist learning them. We would all be much safer.

Thank you very much. I am very impressed with our local Hometown News. I turn to it weekly for excellent coverage of local events and people. Please keep up the good work.

Partnership should mean lower taxes

Read a recent article on IRMC. The article mentioned that if Cleveland Clinic partners up with IRMC, this should reduce tax millage amount. This should mean a lower rate for taxpayers! IRMC are already getting more tax dollars based on higher property values, so a double dip by raising millage amount is a JOKE. NOT an expanse of programs which mean more taxpayers' money. That's the problem with community owned hospitals, they pass things on to taxpayers even if they have poor fiscal management.

Elections

I am very grateful to the Hometown News for your articles about candidates running for office. It is a great way to help educate yourselves about who to vote for. We all know the many flyers and advertisements say what they want to do. Whether they actually do that if they have no track record is not guaranteed. And finally, checking out their campaign finance report tells a story in itself about who they may or may not be beholdng to.

I was dismayed to hear that Martin County is not allowing for early voting like Palm Beach and other nearby counties. I do not understand why this is not standard in Florida. Making it harder for people to get to the polls is not fair to those who may have a hard time getting there the day of the elections. Most importantly, let's all get out and exercise our hard fought for right to vote!

Service vs. comfort animals

Kudos to Publix for educating their customers on the difference between service animals and comfort animals.

They are not one in the same.

As a shopper please leave your comfort animals home from stores

Hope other stores follow, it's gotten out of control!

Proud to be a reader

And I'm glad I finally get my paper like clockwork now on Friday morn.... thank you!

The rants & raves this week were right on. I was really impressed with Publix's statement about the service animals. I think all stores should follow suit! I am the first to say I love all animals but too many folks take advantage of the opportunity to drag those poor babies out in the heat and put them thru the humiliation of strangers fussing all over them, etc. The animals are loyal to you, the owners, they would probably be happy waiting at home til you return. Other than dragging them into the stores, or the beach, yard sales ... have a little compassion for your animals. Just because you want them under your wing does not mean it is pleasant for the animal!

Be more considerate

How come is it that ordinarily considerate folk will go out of their way to throw a wrapper or napkin or any manner of trash into a garbage pail, yet these same people don't think twice about throwing cigarette butts out a car window or on the beach.

How unthinking or inconsiderate does one have to be to think it's OK to use the beautiful beaches and roadways as an ash-tray? Doesn't it bother people to see youngsters playing in the sand with cancer causing cigarette butts around them? I've seen innocent children using cigarette butts as ornamentation on their sand castles. How disturbing is that?

Hopefully the right eyes will read this. It is easy to knock the cherry off of the butt and put it in a garbage or your pocket or your purse or wherever until you find a garbage pail.

Police should enforce the law and fine people for littering. This could be a source of public funds without raising taxes.

Little Guy

Little Guy is a 10-year old neutered male brown and white tabby mixed breed cat who came to the Humane Society in July when his owner passed away.

He is active for his age, especially at night. In his cat room, you can usually find him hanging out near the scratch post. Little Guy is interested in people and will sit in a lap. However, he does not get along with female cats. Little Guy enjoys playing with the feather wand. If you, too, are young at heart, you will appreciate what a great pet he will be!

Call the Humane Society at (772) 388-3331 or visit the shelter at 6230 77th St., Vero Beach. Visit www.hsvb.org to see more animals for adoption.

Income inequality in county among highest in nation

By Mike Winikoff

mwinikoff@hometownnewsol.com

INDIAN RIVER COUNTY — A new economic study by the Economic Policy Institute concludes that Indian River County has the 10th largest income inequality of all counties nationwide.

When looked at by the slightly different “metropolitan area” metric, the results look even more alarming. The Sebastian-Vero Beach metropolitan area had the fourth largest gap in the country between the top 1 percent and the bottom 99 percent.

The study found that income inequality in the U.S. is the largest it has been since the 1928 peak that preceded the Great Depression.

Most large scale economic studies use data that is several years old in order to guarantee that the data is accurate and complete, and this report follows that pattern. This exhaustive study reviewed data through 2015, the last year for which the study authors had comprehensive and reliable information from across the country. It is expected that it will take a few more years before adequate data exists to analyze post-2015 changes.

In other words, the study should not be seen as an analysis of policies or trends from the last few years. Rather, it studies trends from 2009-15.

The report, titled “The New Gilded Age,” finds that income inequality has risen in every state since the 1970s, and has accelerated in most states since the Great Recession.

From 2009-15, incomes of the top one percent grew faster than the incomes of the bottom 99 percent in 43 states and Washington D.C. The top one percent received at least half of all income growth in nine states.

Overall, the top one percent in the U.S. received 22.03 percent of all income in 2015. That is only 1.9 percent below the pre-Depression peak of 23.9 percent in 1928.

Florida was one of only five states where the top one percent had a greater income share than that 1928 benchmark. To be in the top one percent nationally, a family needs an annual income of $421,926.

In Florida, the top one percent took home 28.5 percent of all income in 2015, second behind New York's 31 percent. The report concluded that this makes Florida and New York the two “most unequal” states.

Thirty metropolitan areas had top one percent shares of income above 23.9 percent in 2015. Shares were highest in Jackson, Wyoming, (57.1 percent); Naples-Immokalee-Marco Island, (47.6 percent); Key West, (45.1 percent); and Sebastian-Vero Beach metro area, (40.4 percent). In the Sebastian-Vero Beach metro area, the bottom 99 percent took home 29.4 percent of the income.

Seventy-eight counties had top one percent shares above 23.9 percent. Shares were highest in Teton County, Wyoming, (59 percent). Indian River County was 10th at 40.4 percent, followed closely by Martin County at 40.3 percent.

In Indian River County, the average income of the top one percent was $2,921,375, versus $43,473 for the bottom 99 percent.

The study authors blamed the disparity to a large degree on the decline of unions, resulting in a loss of worker bargaining power.

“While the degree of income inequality differs across the country, the underlying forces are clear,” said study co-author Mark Price, an economist at the Keystone Research Center in Harrisburg, Penn. “It’s the result of intentional policy decisions to shift bargaining power away from working people and towards the top one percent. To reverse this, we should enact policies that boost workers’ ability to bargain for higher wages, rein in the salaries of CEOs and the financial sector, and implement a progressive tax system.”

“Rising inequality affects virtually every part of the country, not just large urban areas or financial centers,” said co-author Estelle Sommeiller, a socio-economist at the Institute for Research in Economic and Social Sciences in France. “It’s a persistent problem throughout the country - in big cities and small towns, in all 50 states. While the economy continues to recover, policy-makers should make it a top priority to grow the incomes of working people while reigning in corporate profits.”

The Economic Policy Institute is a non-profit, nonpartisan think tank created in 1986 to include the needs of low- and middle-income workers in economic policy discussions. To review the entire study, visit www.epi.org.

Circuit Judge, 19th Judicial Circuit, Group 19

By Mike Winikoff

mwinikoff@hometownnewsol.com

INDIAN RIVER COUNTY — Each candidate was asked to provide a bio of up to 100 words, and a summary of the biggest issue facing the community that they could address as a Circuit Judge. Their answers follow:

Louis “Lou” Larsen:

Bio: I’ve worked as an attorney over 26 years. I am a board certified civil trial lawyer among only 7 percent of all Florida attorneys. I’ve worked most of my career on the Treasure Coast representing individuals and businesses in many different matters including personal injury, criminal defense, general civil litigation and marital law. My non-litigation practice areas include wills and trusts, probate, trademarks, copyrights, liens and business transactions. I am of counsel with the Treasure Coast Legal law firm with offices in Stuart, Port St. Lucie and Ft. Pierce. I am admitted in six states and also the federal court for the southern district of Florida.

Q: What is the biggest issue concerning your community right now that you can affect in the office you seek and, if elected, how do you plan on solving that issue?

A: Circuit judges are responsible for many different matters in addition to criminal law. Currently, 14 of the 29 judges in our circuit are former prosecutors. One of my opponents is a prosecutor and the other is a former policeman turned lawyer with a practice focusing primarily in criminal law. Our bench needs diversity in legal experience to fill this vacancy. Our bench needs judges with experience in all areas of circuit judge responsibility not just criminal law. I am the only candidate with the depth and breadth of experience to handle any of the judicial assignments on the first day of work.

Contact info for Louis Larsen: www.larsen4judge.com, www.facebook.com/lou.larsen.353

Email: campaign@larsen4judge.com.

Robert “Bob” Meadows:

Bio: 60 years old. I live in Vero Beach and have strong family ties to this community. A pioneer family in Indian River and St. Lucie counties. My father, my two siblings and I were born in Vero. My son, two of my grandchildren, and my sister live in Vero.

No other candidate has the range and quality of experience that I have. I was a local Law Enforcement Officer for 16 years, then became an attorney practicing at the State and Federal levels, giving me unique and diverse hands-on experience of all aspects of the courtroom. This wide spectrum gives me a solid foundation to be an excellent Judge.

Q: What is the biggest issue concerning your community right now that you can affect in the office you seek and, if elected, how do you plan on solving that issue?

A: An issue facing the Judiciary known as the “pipeline” refers to juveniles going from dropping out of school, in trouble, in jail; beginning a cycle of lost in the system. This cycle cannot be broken by the judiciary alone. There are diversionary programs in other jurisdictions that are having a positive effect on our youth. I feel that the institution of the programs pertinent to our community should be looked at and implemented. As a Circuit Court Judge with my diversified experience in law enforcement gives me the most unique perspective to get involved in beginning of stopping the cycle.

Contact info for Robert Meadows: www.meadowsforjudge.com/contact.html

Nirlaine Smartt:

Bio: Nirlaine Smartt, age 51, has been a licensed attorney in Florida over 24 years. She currently serves the community as an Assistant State Attorney in the 19th Circuit. She holds a J.D. from Vanderbilt University

Meadows

School of Law. Smartt began her legal career as an Assistant State Attorney in the 13th Circuit and went on to work for an insurance defense firm before starting her own law practice. Smartt was appointed and served as a Saint Lucie County Judge from 2015 to 2017.

She is married to Matthew Smartt, they have two children - Adonis, age 20 and Eliana age 15.

Q: What is the biggest issue concerning your community right now that you can affect in the office you seek and, if elected, how do you plan on solving that issue?

A: The Legislature and the Florida Supreme Court believe and have ruled that a candidate may state her views on constitutional or statutory construction but not advocate opposition to or support of political issues. I cannot make any pledge or promise of my conduct in office other than the faithful and impartial performance of the duties of the office, and I cannot make statements which commit or appear to commit me with respect to cases, controversies or issues that are likely to come before me. As a Judicial candidate my duty is to uphold the law regardless of my personal views.

Superintendent

Dr. Rendell said he discovered that $2.3 million had been moved between accounts without his authorization. Those funds, he said, were responsible for dropping the contingency reserve below where it needed to be.

While no ill intent was alleged and no funds were missing, Dr. Rendell was clearly displeased. He told the board and the public that he had ordered the return of the funds to the general operating fund. Dr. Rendell also stated that the funds should not have been moved by assistant superintendent Carter Morrison without his authorization.

“As I stated at the workshop, I was surprised to see the end of the year unrestricted fund balance of the tentative budget projected to be as low as 3.5 percent,” Dr. Rendell said.

“I pledged to you at the workshop that I would take action to reduce the projected expenditures and ensure that we are able to maintain a projected unrestricted fund balance of at least five percent, if not higher. Upon receiving the tentative budget book on Friday, July 20, I began to review it page by page. What I discovered was that at many of our schools, 12 to be exact, there were extremely large increases in the non-discretionary salary accounts.”

“These large increases in salary budgets at these schools were not associated with increases in teacher or other staff allocations. In other words, the budgets for these salaries at these schools were increased substantially without any associated increase in staffing. By my estimate this increase in funding was between two and three million dollars.”

“Because of what I found out I met with Mr. Morrison, one of our assistant superintendants, on Friday, July 27. At that meeting I asked Mr. Morrison why the non-discretionary salary budgets at these various schools was increasing so substantially without an increase in staff. He stated that on the afternoon of July 20, he inserted approximately $2.3 million into these various school accounts to cover a list of vacant positions he had received from our position control specialist.”

“My conclusion was that the transfer of the $2.3 million was not necessary. I asked Mr. Morrison who made the decision to transfer the $2.3 million into these accounts. He stated that he did it on his own. He made the transfer without my knowledge or direction.”

Those transfers, Dr. Rendell said, brought the projected unrestricted fund balance down to three and a half percent, below what the board was comfortable with. Dr. Rendell said that he immediately contacted each board member and told them what he had discovered.

Dr. Rendell said that he then directed Mr. Morrison to prepare new budget documents that would reflect the return of the $2.3 million back to the general operating fund.

“The return of the funds that were inappropriately transferred on July 20 resulted in a projected fund balance of 5.7 percent. That is a stark contrast to the projected unassigned fund balance of 3.5.”

“I have also identified several other line items in the budget that I’ll be reviewing to ensure that we do not have other accounts that are not budgeted appropriately.”

Board member Shawn Frost said that he was “very pleased” with Dr. Rendell’s handling of the situation.

“The superintendent immediately turned to that process and began looking through, line by line, and found some, candidly, troubling things that he’s taken action on, and he’s corrected, and I’m sure we’ll see ripples of this over the next few weeks,” Mr. Frost said. “But, having that demonstration of leadership, I feel confident that we’re on the right path. Dr. Rendell knows that the expectation by me is that we will be above five percent without impacting student programs. Some of the things are unpleasant, but that’s what leaders do, they hold their subordinate leaders accountable.”

“I would not support anything that put us below the five percent reserves,” Mr. Frost added.

Board member Tiffany Justice also expressed approval of the superintendent’s handling of the situation.

“We’ve learned some things that are extremely concerning, and I take confidence in the fact that the superintendent has taken direct control of the budget process,” Ms. Justice said. “He’s assured us that there will be some changes being made and the fund balance will be back up where it needs to be.”

“I want to assure each of you that I will continue to inspect every aspect of the budget as we move towards a final 2018-19 budget in September,” Dr. Rendell concluded. “I will also keep you informed and up to date of any changes via phone calls and written communication. In addition, I anticipate holding another budget workshop in August to review the final budget before we bring it to you for approval in September.”

Family Dollar store. Ms. Tomassi had been known to wander off before, but Mr. Tomassi had always been able to locate her. At approximately 6 p.m., Mr. Tomassi realized Ms. Tomassi was missing, and began looking for her. Surveillance video obtained from Wildwood Antique Mall in South Vero Square shows Ms. Tomassi walking in front of the business.

“Based on surveillance video obtained from businesses in South Vero Square, we know that at 5:41 p.m., Mrs. Tomassi was walking south through the South Vero Square Plaza,” Sheriff Loar said. “We also believe that she did not enter the Family Dollar store or walk past Publix. It is possible that she may have accepted a ride or exited the plaza another way.”

“Time has stopped since she went missing,” daughter in law Cary Baker said at the news conference. Choking back tears, Mr. Tomassi added “It doesn’t get easier. That’s why we’re pleading to anybody that knows something.”

Lead Detective Mike Dilks said that the case has never gone cold, and he focused on the reluctance of witnesses who might know something to come forward.

“We here at the Sheriff’s Office will protect anybody that comes forward with information,” Det. Dilks said. “We need help. It was a daytime incident. Somebody had to have seen something. The case is active. It’s not in any way cold, it’s being investigated daily. This in no way is a cold case, it is not a case on the back burner, this is front and center.”

Asked if he had any ideas what could have happened, Det. Dilks said “I do not. I can only speculate. I am confident (after our search that night) that she got to a vehicle of some sort. It was the day before St. Patrick’s Day, an easy day to remember. If anybody has any information about what car she got into, or who she left the area with, we need to know, and we need to know it soon.”

“We’d like to thank the community as well for all of the support over almost five months,” Ms. Baker said. “The support of everyone, and the love shown us. We just beg anyone. Our mother-in-law went missing during the day in the plaza at the Publix. We know someone had to have seen something. They don’t have to be afraid – just come forward, for us, for her, to bring her peace, and to bring my family peace.”

Det. Dilks said that the $15,000 reward the family offered in March was still available.

“We do have people coming forward with tips, but they’re very reluctant,” Det. Dilks said. “Some of these I’m getting, people have known this information for a month or two and were just scared to come forward. The fear of retaliation from somebody who may have caused harm is now superseding the right thing.”

Det. Dilks said the leads had led them to contact agencies in New Jersey, Georgia, North Carolina, and the west coast of Florida.

When Ms. Tomassi was originally reported missing, family and friends conducted an extensive search. Police and sheriffs’ units canvassed the area and the surroundings, including the path to their home in Fort Pierce.

The Indian River County Sheriff’s Office helicopter provided support from the air. Ground searches continued throughout the night and a full search and rescue team was convened to search the wooded area of the Oslo Preserve. Special operations units including the Special Weapons and Tactics Team and Agriculture and Marine deputies assisted in the ground search. All Terrain Vehicles were used to search Old Dixie Highway south to her home, as well as U.S. Highway 1 south. K-9 Units were also called in to assist with the search.

Anyone with information is encouraged to call Detective Michael Dilks at (772) 978-6120 or (772) 978-6240 in reference to case 2018-47014.

Skate park punk rock benefit at brewery

By Mike Winikoff

mwinikoff@hometownnewsol.com

VERO BEACH — If your first reaction to the term “punk rock” is to wonder “is that still a thing?” the answer is yes, it most definitely is. Some of Indian River County’s best punk rockers will be pumping it out Aug. 18 to benefit a growing effort to build a skate park in Vero Beach.

Punk 4 The Park seeks to raise funds and support for a park where both youth and adults can safely and legally participate in skateboarding, BMX in-line skating, biking, and other healthy activities.

Doors open at noon, with live music from 2-10 p.m. featuring the bands Hunting with Dick Cheney, Skatter Brains, Skatecrime, 430 Steps, Flat Stanley, The F/A, Dairokkan, Swearwolf, and Dirty Bandidas.

There will be vendors, food trucks, a 50/50 raffle, and a street course demo.

The party is a benefit for The Vero Beach Skate Park Alliance, a private/public partnership working to develop and construct an all-inclusive skate park at Leisure Square, a nine acre health and wellness campus located off 16th street in Vero Beach.

According to the VBSPA website, “Skateboarding is the second fastest growing sport in the nation. Statistically, it is safer than football, basketball, soccer, hockey and even baseball. The city and county provide fields and courts for all of those sports but do not currently provide a safe and legal place for skateboarding and similar activities. ... We currently only have a 7,700-square foot skate park located in Sebastian.”

The VBSPA has presented professionally-designed plans for a 19,000 square foot facility that will cost $950,000 to build.

Walking Tree Brewery is located at 3209 Dodger Road, Vero Beach.

For more information, call (772) 217-3502, visit www.verobeachskatepark.org or www.facebook.com/veroskatepark, or email info@verobeachskatepark.com.

Fall Prevention Program focuses on frequent falls

For Hometown News
newsfp@hometownnewsol.com

Falling is a prevalent issue for seniors in Indian River County, so much so that preventing falls has become a top priority for the Visiting Nurse Association of the Treasure Coast (VNA). To keep seniors safe at home, the VNA has created the Fall Prevention Program, which includes comprehensive care planning for those who have fallen in the last six months and/or are considered at high risk for falling.

Indian River County Fire-Rescue reportedly has had over 5,000 "fall calls" in the past five years and is seeing a 10-15 percent increase this year. A "frequent faller" is someone who has fallen repeatedly and has either been admitted to the hospital or has called upon emergency services to aid them in getting back up. For those who suffer an injury from falling, the fall can be costly and sometimes fatal. For the lucky ones who escape injury, repeatedly relying on fire-rescue to lend a hand takes first responders off the road.

"Medical management is the first step in reducing your risk of falling. Health factors that can contribute to falls are being over the age of 65, osteoporosis, taking multiple medications, changes in vision and sensation in the feel and change in balance and walking speed and/or patters," stated Margaret Olsen, DPT, VNA's Therapy Supervisor. "The VNA will conduct an individualized fall risk assessment and develop a plan of care to prevent future falls so that patients can safely remain in their homes."

VNA's Fall Prevention Program aims to decrease hospital admissions and prevent injuries by helping patients first identify risks: taking multiple medications, balance issues, low blood pressure and environmental hazards. The program utilizes both nurses and therapists and encompasses medication management as well as physical and occupational therapy, depending on the underlying cause(s). Often, falling is the byproduct of a recent surgery, medication side effects, chronic illness or home environment.

Environmental hazards are revealed through VNA's home assessment, completed by a VNA nurse/therapist and suggestions for remediation are provided. If therapy is recommended, occupational therapist support patients by help them regain the skills necessary to safely carry out everyday activities. A physical therapist will create an individualized plan to improve mobility, strength and balance.

In addition to assistance from nurses and therapists, VNA's Fall Prevention Program offers an abundance of resources. Patients have access to exercise videos, demonstrated by a VNA physical therapist and telehealth monitoring of vital signs. They will also receive a Fall Kit, which includes tools and resources to increase safe and independent living. For those enrolled in the Fall Prevention Program, VNA will include two free months and waive the $50 installation fee for all Philips Lifeline medical alert devices. Even more great news, the Fall Prevention Program is covered by Medicare for those who qualify.

To find out if you qualify for VNA's Fall Prevention Program or for more information on VNA services, call (772) 567-5551 or visit www.vnatc.com.

IRSC performing arts announces fall season

For Hometown News
newsfp@hometownnewsol.com

The Indian River State College Performing and Visual Arts Department announces its Fall 2018-19 season, including the seven show McAlpin OnSTAGE subscription series. Subscription sales for the McAlpin OnSTAGE! series started Wednesday, Aug. 15, and individual ticket sales start Tuesday, Sept. 4.

This season of shows, concerts, and musical theater offers a variety of memorable performances and opens with the variety concert "That's Entertainment!" (Oct. 18, 19 and 20). Comedies such as "Harvey" by Mary Chase (Nov. 8, 9, and 20) and the classic play "The Odd Couple" (March 28, 29, and 30) by comedy genius Neil Simon are also included in the series. The season highlight is the IRSC Performing Arts Program production of the musical "Into the Woods" (Feb. 14, 15 and 16) - a sophisticated and captivating musical weaving the fantastical characters of legends and storybooks into a haunting and timeless tale of desire, human forgiveness, and eternal hope.

The McAlpin OnSTAGE! series features seven shows for $70. Series shows are performed in the IRSC McAlpin Fine Arts Center, a 639-seat venue featuring a proscenium stage and orchestra pit, located on the Main Campus in Fort Pierce. Individual tickets to McAlpin OnSTAGE! shows can be purchased starting Tuesday, Sept. 4 for $15.

Shows not a part of the subscription series will also be available during the season, including a special one-show-only performance of "A Holiday Spectacular!" (Saturday, Dec. 1 at 2 p.m.). In this seasonal favorite, under the direction of Dr. John Southall, the IRSC Wind Ensemble presents a celebration of the most heartwarming holiday music of our time concluding with an audience "sing-along."

Those who enjoy a more immersive theater experience won't want to miss taking in a show at the Wynne Black Box Theatre—a flexible and intimate 100-seat theater that allows the audience to surround the stage. Shows at the Wynne include an original IRSC Theatre dramatic piece "Strange Truths" (Nov. 28, 29 and 30), and the beloved Neil Simon comedy "The Star-Spangled Girl" (Jan. 31, Feb. 1 and 2).

The seven-show McAlpin OnSTAGE! subscription series is $70. Individual tickets for McAlpin OnSTAGE! are $15 each. Tickets to non-series shows are $5 or $15. Tickets for all shows can be purchased online at www.irsc.edu or at the IRSC box office (Monday through Friday, 11 a.m. to 3 p.m.) or by phone.

The IRSC box office is located on the Main Campus, 3209 Virginia Ave., Fort Pierce. The box office is open one hour prior to performance time for ticket sales and to pick up "will call" tickets. Call the box office at (772) 462-4750 or toll-free at 1-800-220-9915 to reserve your seats, as shows sell out quickly.
