

Ellen A. Beatty
Bill of Sale
To J. Patton Anderson
38 negroes

For the consideration of Twenty Thousand Dollars I have this day given, granted, sold, ~~and~~ conveyed and delivered unto J. Patton Anderson all of the following negroes, slaves for life. Towit, Alfred aged about twenty one years. Hannah aged about thirty two years; Judy aged about fifteen years; Lowrie aged about thirteen years; Davy aged ten years; George aged about nine years; Eliza aged about seven years; Claiborne aged about six years; Sam aged about three years; Ellen aged about nine months; Lewis (Ann's) aged about twenty one years; Garret (Blacksmith) aged about forty years; Lewis (Iris's) aged about eighteen years; Peyton aged about eighteen years; Rozetta aged about sixteen years; Peggy aged about sixteen years; Gusty aged about fourteen years; Alice aged about twenty eight years; Mays aged about eleven years; Ann aged about six years; and Thomas aged about five years; all of which negroes are mine without limitation or reserve;--- And also the following slaves in which I only own a life estate, which estate, during my natural life I also convey to said Anderson for the above consideration; towit; Judy aged about sixty years; Moses aged about twenty six years; Absolom aged about twenty two years; Emily aged about twenty four years and her two children, Julianna and Minerva; Elizabeth aged about twenty six years and her three children William Henry, Violet and an infant girl; Davy aged about thirty five years; Scylla aged about twenty one years and her two children Carrie and Jeff; Harriet aged about Sixty; Sandy aged about twenty and Margaret aged about eighteen;---

In presence of
A. Warner Clisby
M.L. Bybee

Given under my hand and seal
this 28th day of February 1860

Ellen A. Beatty (seal)

Transcribed by Christopher A. Baker, University of Florida, 2008.