Snap Shots with a Graphophone.

The graphophone is to the ear what the photographic camera is to the eye, and more, for the graphophone catches instantly and preserves every tint and shade of sound. A most interesting use of a graphophone is to make records of your friends' voices to be preserved for future use. You can catch the story of your jolly friend just as he told it, or the favorite song of some loved one just as she sang it, and have it reproduced perfectly at any time, and as often as you please. Besides, the graphophone affords wonderful entertainment in the way of re-producing the music of bands, orchestras, or vocal or instrumental soloists. No investment will return so much in pleasure as the purchase of a graphophone. It is the perfect talking machine. Write for catalogue No. 30, to the Columbia Phonograph Company, 110 E. The artist who is in search of attitudes descriptive of torture, and poses depicting suffering, need not go to the Christian martyrs of old. If he could only see through the walls into tens of thousands of homes all over this land, he would see women undergoing tortures in silence without complaining, before which the brief ordeals of the martyrs pale into nothingness.

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangement of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. One of the worst effects of troubles of this kind is upon the nervous system. The tortures so bravely endured completely and effectually shatter the nerves. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is an unfailing cure for all weakness and disease of the feminine organism. It makes it strong and healthy. It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It checks exhausting drains and tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Good medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing just as good.

"Since my last child was born, thirteen years ago, I have suffered from uterine trouble," writes Mrs. Paul Devratine, of Jellico, Campbell Co., Tenn. "I consulted several doctors and took much medicine, but found no relief. I had very bad health for twelve years. Every month I was in bed a week before the monthly period and a week after. I was obliged to keep in bed for four months last summer. I was just like a corpse. I lost twenty-six pounds in four months. I was coughing so much I was considered in consumption. I suffered severely from pains in my back, bearing down pains in the womb, chills and cold sweats. After taking four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery my coughing stopped, and after six bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription my periods became regular and were passed without pain. Now I am as healthy, more so than ever before. My neighbors are surprised to see me in such good health after having seen me so low."

Constipation causes and aggravates many serious diseases. It is speedily cured by Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets.

FROM THE HILLS OF GEORGIA.

MARIETTA, Ga., July 4.

This is the Glorious Fourth, but there has been no very elaborate celebration of the great day in this little mountain city, for everyone who felt like celebrating went to Atlanta. It is only twenty miles, and that fact retards Marietta in many ways. If she had to depend on herself she would have a good many business enterprises which she has not. When anyone wants anything, "go to Atlanta."

But in point of beauty Marietta lacks nothing. She has some handsome churches and many beautiful homes, and the children just swarm through the streets. The Baptist church is particularly magnificent for a place of this size, being built of Georgia marble. I have not been in it, but I am told the interior is very beautiful. One of the prettiest homes I have seen is that of Mr. Brown, the son of Georgia's famous war governor, Joe Brown. It stands on quite an elevation in the edge of town, and is surrounded by beautiful trees and velvety lawns.

The national cemetery is within the city limits, where eleven thousand Union soldiers are said to be buried. Some persons doubt the authenticity of a good many of the bones, but enough poor men undoubtedly yielded up their lives to warrant the monument raised to their memory. The gate alone is said to have cost twenty thousand dollars. It is certainly an ornament to the city. I have not been through it, so cannot speak of the inner attractions.

The whole city was in a great excitement last week over the presence and wonderful exhibitions of the hypnotic expert, Mr. Carroway, the mind reader, who toured Florida last year, honored this boarding house with his presence Saturday night. He can undoubtedly ask more questions than any one I ever met, and has an excellent memory. He referred to his visit to Palatka and spoke of many persons he had met there; complimented the genial Captain Lucas most highly, and inquired if I knew the man who "never sleeps."

One meets all varieties of humanity in a boarding house. One man came and engaged board for himself, his wife and his sister, but he was here several days before the feminine contingent arrived. After each meal he would pull out a piece of paper and pour all the scraps from his plate into it and stuff it into his pocket for his dog. The night his wife came she was too tired to come down to tea, so when he finished, he filled up his glass with milk, and put a biscuit on his plate, saying he "always had to carry scraps off; if it wasn't for his dog, it was for his wife." We never heard how she enjoyed her supper, but she lived through it.

The readers of THE TIMES-HERALD will be grieved to learn of the death of Mrs. Flora McMartin Wright, wife of W. P. Wright, of Drayton Island, which occurred on June 18th, in Des Moines, Iowa. Her husband and two daughters, Miss Annie and Mrs. A. K. Stone, of Boston, were with her at the last. Mrs. Wright's was a most beautiful nature, and she was universally loved for her gentle disposition and charming personality. Her sorrowing family has the deepest sympathy of many fond friends.

A New Thing From Spain.

Walking Spanish has long been a classic art, but it has been entirely eclipsed in the evolutions of Spain's fleet, by the art of sailing Spanish.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Our Battlecry the Sunken Maine.

At the dinner given the other night by the Washington Light Infantry Veterans' association one of the features of the occasion was the reading of the following poem, dedicated to Captain Charles D. Sigbee:

When the smoke of battle curling
Hides Old Glory's wide unfurling,
When the shells our guns are hurling,
Soldiers, think on "murdered Maine."

When the foe is drawing nearer,
Let your aim be but the clearer,
Strike her ships and do not fear her
As you think on "murdered Maine."

With the shores of Cuba looming
On your sight, let then the booming
Of your guns tell Spain's undoing
As you think on "murdered Maine."

When you land where desolation
Long hath tried to crush a nation,
Young 'tis true, but yet whose station
Soon will come, "Remember Maine!"

Strike for those whose needs are pressing;
Boldly strike all wrongs redressing,
Earning from each heart a blessing
As you strike for "murdered Maine."

See you Cuban maiden dying,
Vainly from assailants flying,
Even to the death defying
Those mad brutes who "sunk our Maine."

See the little children pleading
For the food they long are needing,
See those brutes their cries unheeding,
Lord, avenge them and our Maine.

Oh, once more the perfect fusion
Of the blue and gray in union
Can but send a quick confusion
To the curs who "sunk our Maine!"

Blue and gray, all feuds forsaking,
Stalk for those whose hearts are breaking,
When Havana's walls are shaking,
Cry aloud, "Remember Maine!"

God of battles, help our nation,
Keep our hearths from desolation,
Bless each patriot at his station,
Fighting for our "sunken Maine."

Blue and gray, arise! Defend her,
For our flag will ne'er surrender,
And McKinley now will render
Vengeance for our "sunken Maine."

History's page shall tell the story
How America with glory
Raised her flag, unhurt, though gory,
O'er the fort that "sunk our Maine."
—H. Cecil Berrien in Washington Post.

A Universal Complaint.

To those who know nothing of the affliction of hernia (commonly called rupture) it will be a surprising statement that one-tenth of the human family are afflicted with this complaint. This is true, and the forms of treatment are numerous and in most cases unsuccessful. There is a method of retaining hernia, however, that is universally accepted as being perfect. It not only retains the hernia, but is the most comfortable and economical appliance in existence.

NO. 999 TRUSS.

As is well known most of the appliances for this malady are not satisfactory to the wearer, often doing more harm than good, and failing entirely to retain the hernia. Thousands of people are suffering from ill-fitting trusses, or doing without entirely, thus endangering their lives, because the trusses they have tried to wear have given them undurable pain and inconvenience.

ence. It is to these many unfortunate being who suffer often unsuspected and in silence, that we extend a cordial invitation to come and be examined free of charge. We also agree to fit truss and allow patient to wear it for one week, at the expiration of which time we will refund the money if found not satisfactory.

FITTING A TRUSS.

To think about it is easy, but it is only easy to those who thoroughly understand hernia. There are several kinds of hernia and each has to be reduced and retained with a truss fitted according to its own peculiarity. During ten years of practical experience in fitting trusses we have not found a single case that we could not retain. It costs nothing to be convinced but to come and see.

THERE ARE OTHER TRUSSES.

Many of which might be good if they could only be made to fit; but experience proves that almost every individual requires a different shaped truss—one peculiarity of our truss is that it can be fitted to any shape.

CAUTION. Beware of hard rubber trusses that cannot be shaped without heating, as they will not hold.

WE CARRY A FULL LINE OF

H. R. and Elastic Trusses, Suspensory Bandages, Pessaries and all kinds of Rubber Goods.
