PEACE NEWS BRIEFLY TOLD

Important Events Following the Suspension of Hostilities.

Troops For Mustering Out.
Orders were issued Wednesday for the mustering out of the following regiments:

First Vermont, First Maine, Fifty-second Iowa, Sixth Pennsylvania, Fifth Indiana, Second New York, Second Nebraska, One Hundred and Fifty-seventh Indiana, all volunteer infantry; also battery of Ohio light artillery, First Illinois, volunteer cavalry; Batteries A and B, Georgia light artillery; Twenty-eighth Indiana light battery and the New York and Pennsylvania cavalry troops.

Policy of the Insurgents.
At a conference Wednesday between the Philippine insurgents and the Americans the former declared emphatically that they were willing to co-operate with the Americans and to surrender their arms promptly if assured the islands would remain an American or a British colony or under the protectorate of the United States or Great Britain.

Peace Commissioners Meet.
The first meeting of a majority of the American peace commissioners took place Thursday at the state department when Secretary Day was joined by Senators Davis and Frye. Prior to this the senatorial membership of the commission had had a conference of two hours with the president.

The general plans of the commission as to proceeding to Paris were talked over and an understanding reached that the start be made between Sept. 15 and 20.

Troops Ordered Discharged.
Orders were issued Thursday to muster out the following:

Fourth Pennsylvania infantry, Sixth Illinois infantry, Second Wisconsin infantry, three Louisiana light batteries, two Rhode Island light batteries, two Iowa light batteries, two Oregon light batteries, First Wisconsin light battery, two troops of Kentucky cavalry, Light Battery A of Missouri, light artillery Twenty-seventh light battery of Indiana artillery, and Light Batteries A, B and C of Pennsylvania.

Clash With the Filipinos.
Advices from the Philippines Friday said a corporal and two troopers of the Utah artillery, after disembarking at Cavite, were sent on an errand. While passing through the streets Trooper Hudson discharged his revolver. It was all mere fun, but the natives became alarmed and began firing. Dismounted cavalry were sent to quell the disturbance, but the natives misunderstood the movement and the firing became general.

Trooper Hudson was killed and Corporal Anderson mortally wounded. Troopers Laydon, Nachbar, Connelly and Doyle of the Fourth cavalry were wounded.

Four natives were killed and several wounded. General Aguinaldo expressed his regret at the encounter and promised to punish the offenders.

Peace Board Completed.
The American peace commission was completed Friday, and, as given out at the White House, comprised the following:

Secretary William R. Day of Ohio, Senator Cushman K. Davis of Minnesota, Senator William P. Frye of Maine, Whitelaw Reid of New York and Justice E. D. White of the supreme court. Shafter Leaves For Home.

General Shafter and staff left Santiago de Cuba Friday for Montauk Point, L. I. His departure was not marked by special incident.

Big Ovation For Schley.
Admiral Schley arrived in Washington Saturday to get instructions relative to the work of the Porto Rican military commission, on which he was placed. The hero of the Santiago naval battle received a great ovation, men and women crowding around shaking his hand and even kissing him.

Five Regiments Dismissed.
The following regiments were Saturday ordered mustered out:

First, Fifth and Third Missouri, One Hundred and Fifty-ninth Indiana and the Eighth New York.

McKinley Takes a Vacation.
President McKinley left Washington Saturday for Somerset, Pa., to spend several days with his brother, Mr. Abner McKinley.

Merritt at Peace Meeting.
A dispatch from Manila Sunday said General Merritt would sail for Paris during the week to attend the sessions of the peace commission.

All was reported quiet in the Philippines.
Nine Regiments Dismissed.

The following troops were Monday ordered mustered out: Ninth Massachusetts, Seventh First and Fifth Illinois, Sixty-fifth New York, Fifth Ohio infantry, First Wisconsin, Third volunteer cavalry (Grigsby's) and the Fourth Texas.

Humor in the Blood

Caused Great Distress—Could Not Rest at Night—Children Had Boils but Hood's Cured.

"I was troubled with humor, which broke out on my skin and caused me so much distress I could not rest at night. I was advised to try Hood's Sarsaparilla, and since taking a few bottles I have not been troubled with impure blood. I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla to be the best blood purifier that can be obtained." L. S. PETERWAY, Williston, Florida.

"My children were troubled with boils. I tried numerous remedies without giving them any relief, but after they had taken a few bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla the boils disappeared. We have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla since then and always keep it on hand and have no fear of the boils returning." Mrs. A. J. E. BRYANT, Lakeland, Florida. Remember
