Busch Gardens

Theme park fun!

Busch Gardens is a theme park in Tampa. It is famous for its roller coasters and its wild animals. Among the roller coasters is "Sheikra", that has two 90 degree angle drops making it the first coaster of its kind in the Americas and only the third in the world. This is one of the most popular trips of the semester, don't miss it!

WHEN: Saturday, Nov. 15th. We will meet at The TRiP Office on the ground floor of the Reitz Union at 8:00 AM. The park will be open until 7:00 PM. Depending on the group decision, we may return to Gainesville as late as 12:00 PM. We will go rain or shine.

TRANSPORTATION: This is a van trip so you must purchase a transportation pass at The TRiP Office on the ground floor of the Reitz Union. (The TRiP Office sells transportation passes. You will need to buy your Busch Gardens admission ticket online or at Busch Gardens.)

COST: The cost of transportation is $30 for a seat in the van. Busch Gardens admission tickets for Florida residents are $67.95 for adults and $57.95 for kids. Bring your Gator 1 card or Florida driver's license to prove that you are a Florida resident.

You can buy your admission ticket to Busch Gardens now and use it as many times as you want until December 31, 2008. Also, bring money for food and souvenirs.

Manners

Q: Some of my classmates don't use deodorant, or brush their teeth regularly, and it's kind of difficult for me. Can I tell them?

A: No, but I can. Folks, if you come from a culture that doesn't use deodorant and anti-perspirant, that's absolutely fine—we're not telling you that you have to or that it's wrong in any way. However, remember that you are currently living in a culture that does use it, and you are among many students who also come from cultures that also do. When the weather is warm, as it often is in Florida, many natural body smells are going to get stronger—and our classrooms are pretty small. For those of you not using deodorant or anti-perspirant, it's likely that you may be making things a bit more difficult for some of your classmates and teachers. As for the other part of the question, well, everyone, for heaven's sake, please brush your teeth in the morning. It's just healthier that way!

Q: What do Americans do on Thanksgiving?

A: Eat. Thanksgiving is a special feast holiday for Americans. This is the main holiday when we get together with our families; travel is at its absolute peak during Thanksgiving week in the US.

It's also traditional for us to shop; the day after Thanksgiving is a big day for retailers, and you will find a lot of special sales throughout the weekend.

Q: Why is it incorrect to call my teacher "teacher"?

A: In US society, we only address our teachers as "teacher" when we are very young children, if at all. Otherwise, we call our teachers by Mr. or Ms. and the family name. In college, when many teachers hold doctoral degrees, we address them as Dr. or Professor along with the last name.

Here at the ELI, we do want to foster a more collegial and team atmosphere. Most of the teachers here do not have Doctorates; the Masters is considered the high degree for teaching ESL. Use of the first name here is considered a preferred choice.

Grammar

Q: What's the difference between 'other' and 'others'?

A: The first one, 'other', is an adjective for plural nouns. It comes in front of a noun, as in, "There are other alternatives." The second one, 'others', is a pronoun, meaning that it stands alone, as in, "There are others."

Notes from the Office

➤ Library Fines and Infirmary Fees—Since we're coming closer to the end of the semester, we just want to remind you that now is a good time to think about clearing up any fees and fines that you might have with the university. If there are any outstanding balances owed, we won't be able to release any of your academic information or certificates to you.

➤ Part-time students and TOEFL: Part time students, don't forget—if you wish to take the ELI TOEFL with the other students, you must actually sign up for it in the ELI Main Office, Room 315. If you have not already done so, please go and sign up as soon as possible.
