In our community, 1 in 7 people face that feeling on a regular basis. Without that fuel and nutrition, people don't have the energy to focus, learn, grow, and succeed. This September, the Treasure Coast Food Bank is asking everyone to come together to help end hunger. The Hunger Action Month calendar is filled with some ways you can help. ## County, FIT agree on public beach access

By Mike Winikoff

mwinikoff@hometownnewsol.com

INDIAN RIVER COUNTY — The Indian River County Commissioners and Florida Institute of Technology have reached an agreement to guarantee continued public access to the beach at Tracking Station Park.

The beach easement provided by FIT to the county is "a perpetual, non-exclusive easement for recreational and related purposes."

In June, 2017, FIT said it would sell the Vero Beach Marine Laboratory property, located at 805 46th Place East, adjacent to the Tracking Station Park. The parcel is 4.09 acres and has 525 feet of direct oceanfront.

The county made an offer for the property, but then FIT took the property off the market. During that process, according to County Attorney Dylan

County approves funds for new north offices

By Mike Winikoff

mwinikoff@hometownnewsol.com

SEBASTIAN — The Indian River County Commissioners have approved renovations to Sebastian Corners, a commercial plaza the county owns at 1919 U.S. 1 in Sebastian.

The county purchased the site in 2017, with a goal of relocating North County Offices from their current location at 11606-11612 US 1. That relocation is expected to save the county $100,000 per year in rent paid at the current location.

"At the time of purchase, the estimated cost to renovate the existing vacant tenant spaces for relocation of the County Tax Collector, Property Appraiser, Utilities, Clerk of the Circuit Court and Veterans Services was $400,000.00," wrote Andy P. Sobczak, Infrastructure Project Manager, in a memo to County Administrator Jason Brown presented at the Aug. 14 commissioners' meeting.

After purchasing the building, the county contracted with MBV Engineering to oversee design and construction of the new offices. MBV provided a construction cost estimate that included all of the site, building and office space improvements, for a total construction cost of $1,340,043.

The county advertised the project for bids last month and received two qualified bids, both substantially higher than See OFFICES, page 7

Bealls supports Boys & Girls Clubs during Tax-Free Weekend

For Hometown News

newsfp@hometownnewsol.com

TREASURE COAST – During the recent Tax-Free weekend on Aug. 3 – 5, Bealls Stores continued their partnership with Boys & Girls Clubs throughout Florida by donating a percentage of apparel sales from the junior, guys and kid departments.

"We believe in the mission of local Boys & Girls Clubs chapters throughout Florida and we enjoy continuing our tradition of being involved in our local community organizations," said Matt Beall, Senior Vice President and Chief Merchandising Officer for Bealls Stores, Inc. "Because of our loyal guests who choose to shop at their local Bealls Store, we are proud to support the Boys & Girls Clubs and their work in communities around the state."

Bealls Stores announced that $9,250.74 will be donated to regional Boys & Girls Clubs chapters throughout the state; each store's proceeds will be donated to their local corresponding chapter.

"The Boys & Girls Clubs in Florida served over 130,000 youth last year. There are over 240 club sites from Pensacola to the Keys with 14 clubs on Florida military bases, and one residing on a Native American reservation. This is possible through the hard work of our dedicated staff and volunteers, and of course through exciting partnerships with businesses such as Bealls Stores," said Daniel Lyons, Florida Alliance of Boys & Girls Clubs Executive Director. "We'd like to thank Bealls Stores – and their guests – for this generous donation as we continue to positively impact youth in our state."

Documentary about anxiety to be screened at Emerson Center

IndieFlix is screening a brand-new documentary, "Angst: Raising Awareness Around Anxiety." On Saturday, Sept. 22, at 9 a.m., Sunrise Rotary Vero Beach will hold a special screening of the documentary at the Emerson Center to open up a dialogue between local families, community leaders and experts.

The event will feature a viewing of the 56-minute film, followed by an informative panel discussion, with special guests, Dr. Mark Rendell, Indian River County Schools Superintendent, Robert J. Brugnoli, Ph.D., Executive Director Mental Health Association Indian River County and Jeffrey Shearer, Tykes & Teens.

Producers Scilla Andreen and Karin Gornick have one goal: to start a global conversation and raise awareness around anxiety. Through candid interviews, they utilize the power of film to tell the stories of many kids and teens who discuss their anxiety and its impacts on their lives and relationships, as well as how they've found solutions and hope. Anxiety disorders are the most common mental health challenge in the U.S., impacting 54 percent of females and 46 percent of males, with age seven being the median age of onset, according to the World Health Organization. While anxiety disorders are highly treatable, only one-third of those suffering receive treatment. Everyone involved in the development of "Angst" has a personal experience with anxiety – from the producers to the interviewees.

Free tickets are now available and space is limited. The screening will be held at the Emerson Center on 16th Street and 27th Avenue, Vero Beach, from 9 a.m. to noon. -12 p.m.

To reserve tickets, visit www.showclix.com/event/angst-sunrise-rotary-vero-beach or www.facebook.com/events/302028410557757/

Public access to Tracking Station Park should be preserved with a new easement agreement between the county and Florida Institute of Technology.

Beach

Reingold, "it was discovered that there were some legal questions as to the access to the property. In order to resolve this issue, Indian River County staff and FIT staff have negotiated an access agreement that provides Indian River County with a beach easement which addresses public use of the beach, and sea turtle monitoring of the beach."

The agreement also creates a 25 foot vegetative buffer along the northern part of the property.

"Additionally, FIT will be dedicating to the county 15 feet on the west part of the property," Mr. Reingold said, to provide better access to Tracking Station Park. Both parties are providing right-of-way property. Indian River County will dedicate a portion of Tracking Station Park as right-of-way to be used for an extension of 46th Place.

"I'm very pleased with the negotiations and the working relationship between FIT and the county staff," Mr. Reingold said, recommending approval.

The only question came from Commissioner Tim Zorc, who asked if the FIT property was in Indian River Shores, the City of Vero Beach, or the county. Mr. Zorc said he just wanted to figure out who would coordinate planning and traffic studies if the property was sold. County Administrator Jason E. Brown said it was unincorporated IRC land.

The motion to approve the agreement passed 5-0.

Signs need regulation

Seeing the multitude of campaign signs at every turn, in every ditch and all along the roads, causes me to wonder if there are any regulations, and how are they allowed on property not belonging to the candidates? And, who will pick them up afterwards?

'There ought to be a law'

Many people say "there ought to be a law" about pounding bass speakers. There really was a law; but no more.

After I retired from the New York Police Department, I took a job in 1992 as a law enforcement officer here. At that time, the Florida Motor Vehicle and Traffic Law prohibited loud music emanating from a motor vehicle, if the music or noise could be heard within a distance of about 20 feet from the vehicle. We enforced that law when necessary, writing a uniform traffic citation.

Unfortunately, as a result of a lawsuit claiming the law was unconstitutional in that operators of motor vehicles had a constitutional right to play music as loud as they wanted to, the court hearing the case agreed. That is why loud music from a vehicle is not enforced. (Local noise ordinances may apply if at night.)

Although I am still a law enforcement officer in my 48th year, all I can do now when some individual, who will likely go deaf in 20 years, pulls next to my patrol car with music blaring, is to look at the operator with a serious face. That usually results in the music being turned down.

Enforce littering laws on the beach

Unbelievably we still need to remind people not to litter.

We need to take some tax money and post signs at all beach entrance accesses, on the lifeguard stands and throughout the beach. These signs should remind people to clean up their trash and to not use the beach as their ashtray. The signs should also post the minimum fines for littering and most importantly, the law should be enforced by police and beach patrol.

The fines collected would help offset the cost of enforcing the no littering law, but more importantly help clean up the beaches. How disgusting is it to see children playing in cigarette butts at the beach or to see all the cigarette butts piled up in the high-tide line.

Right of center is Nazism

For those who claim that voting for any candidates "anywhere left of center" means your vote would be one step closer to socialism/communism: following that logic, voting for anyone anywhere right of center would bring us one step closer to Nazism.

Ensure a senior's well-being

Heat exhaustion can sneak up, causing increased body temperature, rapid pulse, headache and fatigue. If you don't get cool, you'll dehydrate, possibly suffer a stroke, or worse, die.

Of 8,000-plus heat-related fatalities reported annually in the United States, 36 percent are among those age 65 and older, according to a Centers for Disease Control Heat-Related Illness Survey. Hospitalizations for heat-related symptoms increase for those older than 85.

Those with elderly friends, relatives or neighbors are encouraged to take five minutes to check in on them, particularly in very hot weather. Studies show there are far too few professional caregivers for aging adults, a trend expected to continue for the next 10 years or more, so non-professionals play a vital role in keeping seniors safe. Giving just a few minutes of your time to ensure a senior's well-being can be highly rewarding. You might even save a life.

Help to reduce media panic

Yes, if you live in a coastal region in the direct path of a major hurricane, you should probably evacuate.

The media and governor had the entire state worked up into a panic for last year's "unprecedented" Irma. Sadly we did not learn from "unprecedented" Matthew in 2016. A hurricane slows down after it hits land. If you live in Orlando and inland communities you probably don't need to evacuate. The Chicken Little local news and the governor with their whole "get out now!" and "you will die" was way over the top.

There were so many people evacuating the highways were clogged for days and gas stations ran out of gas. The people who needed to evacuate, who kept cool and waited to see where the storm was going to hit, now had to hours and hours of traffic jams and the possibility of going through the storm out of gas on the side of the road.

Let's be a little smarter for the next one, and by all means evacuate if you want to play it safe, but please, don't let the media sensationalism get us all worked up.

Irrigate politely, not the sidewalk

Really people, your sidewalks are not going to "green up" so would you stop sprinkling them? If you can't, could you put your irrigation timer on to water that zone before sunrise, so that dog walkers and children walking to school don't have to walk in the street to avoid your sprinkler, which may be using reclaimed water? (yuck.)

We can't continue to pile up problems for future generations

My children will never have the same level of comfort that my husband and I have had. I can't even imagine what the future holds for my grandchildren.

Climate change may very well change life on earth. Add to that the fact that our retirement years are more uncertain today than ever before. Not only have we allowed the economy to implode, we've made sure that the next generation's life expectancy is years less than ours.

How did we let this happen? I think it's apathy. We saw things that were happening but thought that someone else would do something about it. I remember the saying "We are the ones we've been waiting for" and we didn't even realize it.

We can't continue to pile up all these problems for future generations to solve. Do something — do anything — but get up and make a difference in your community.

"Just as ripples spread out when a single pebble is dropped into water, the actions of individuals can have far-reaching effects." (Dalai Lama)

the MBV estimate.

Paul Jacquin & Sons bid $1,878,941, and W&J Construction Corp. bid $1,775,911.

According to Mr. Sobczak's staff analysis, the higher than anticipated bid prices are the result of improvements in the local and national economy and recent increases in local new construction activity. Mr. Sobczak said that 22 contractors downloaded the plans for the North County Offices at Sebastian Corners project, including six Indian River County contractors, but only two bids were received, neither from local construction companies.

County staff consulted with MVB Engineering and recommended W&J Construction Corp. W&J has completed three Tax Collector Office renovations in Brevard County, including the Tax Collector's Office in Viera. In 2017, The Indian River County Tax Collector visited that Viera office seeking design ideas for the new office at Sebastian Corners.

W&J Construction Corp.'s bid of $1,775,911 is $435,867 above the engineer's estimate. Funding for the project will come from the Capital Improvement plan approved by the Board of County Commissioners in 2017. $400,000.00 is available in an Optional Sales Tax/Facilities Management/Interior Renovations account, and a budget amendment will be required to fund the remainder of the project.

Impact 100 invites new grant applications

By Mike Winikoff

mwinikoff@hometownnewsol.com

INDIAN RIVER COUNTY — Impact 100, one of the Indian River County's most influential granting organizations, is inviting nonprofits to attend an information session Sept. 12. The meeting at Northern Trust in Vero Beach will provide applicants with all the information and resources needed to apply for a $100,000 grant.

This begins Impact 100's 11th grant-giving year. Indian River Impact 100 was formed in 2008, with a goal of pooling $1,000 grants from donors to make transformational grants to needy nonprofits. The organization only funds projects that will change the community in significant, meaningful ways.

The original goal was to find 100 women to each donate $1,000. That first year, Impact 100 recruited 205 members. Membership has increased to 439 members now, making it one of the largest women's collective giving organizations in the country.

Each member contributes $1,000, all of which is distributed as grants. Indian River County nonprofits may apply for grants in four focus areas: family, health and wellness, education, and enrichment and environment.

Eligible grants must meet six requirements:

1. Project must be implemented in and serve residents of Indian River County.
2. Requests must be for at least $100,000. Grant projects over $100,000 must show the ability to fund the total project.
3. Recipients must use the funds within two years of grant award.
4. The project must be operational within two years of grant award.
5. Recipients must provide interim progress reports and a final report.
6. If the grant project is going to last longer than two years, there must be clear plans for sustainability.

When evaluating proposals, Impact 100 asks four key questions:

1. Does the organization have the strength, capacity and capability to successfully administer the grant?
2. Does the project have high impact?
3. Is the project transformational?

4. Is the project sustainable?

All nonprofit organizations serving Indian River County residents are invited to attend the information session. The meeting will provide resources to help applicants submit their grant. The Grant Committee will be on hand to explain the requirements and required documentation.

"We are excited to kick off the 2018-19 Impact 100 year by meeting and sharing our grants process with local nonprofits," said Grants Chair Brenda Cetrulo. "A transformational grant project is a unique opportunity for nonprofits to think big and make an impact on the community in a distinct way from the traditional, transactional grants. The Nonprofit Information Session is Impact 100's chance to empower the potential grant applicant to submit a grant that meets our rigorous requirements. I encourage all nonprofits to come regardless of where you are in the grant writing process."

The information session takes place Sept. 12 from 9-10:30 a.m. at Northern Trust's Community Room, 755 Beachland Blvd., Vero Beach. To register, visit the events page at www.impact100ir.com.

Grunge band Puddle of Mudd brings new lineup to Hiram's

By Mike Winikoff

mwinikoff@hometownnewsol.com

SEBASTIAN — Wes Scantlin, one of the original bad boys of grunge rock, brings his reformed Puddle of Mudd to Capt. Hiram's on Sept. 3.

The aptly named Resurrection Tour 2018 features the line-up Mr. Scantlin put together in 2014 to revive the band that had broken up in 1999.

Puddle of Mudd was formed in Kansas City in 1991. The band has sold over seven million albums and has had several hit rock singles including "Psycho," "Famous," "Livin' on Borrowed Time" and "We Don't Have To Look Back Now." Their album "Come Clean" has sold over five million copies.

While we don't want to list all the incidents that have given Mr. Scantlin a reputation for hard living, trust us, there are plenty. Suffice it to say that anything at all can happen at a Puddle of Mudd concert, or in the car on the way to the concert, or at the airport where the band arrives. Or on vacation at Graceland, from which he was banned in 2007 for jumping into Elvis' swimming pool.

Mr. Scantlin is the only original member in the current version that came together in 2014 with Matt Fuller on rhythm guitar, lead guitar, backing vocals, Dave Moreno on drums, backing vocals, and Michael

Puddle of Mudd

John Adams on bass, and backing vocals.

Wes Scantlin sings lead vocals and plays rhythm guitar. Mr. Scantlin has been ranked in the Top 100 Heavy Metal Vocalists by Hit Parader magazine. He often tours with Alice in Chains guitarist Jerry Cantrell, playing acoustic versions of Alice in Chains songs.

Joining Puddle of Mudd at Capt. Hiram's will be Shallow Side, Tantric, The Veer

Union, and Saliva.

The show is open to those 16 and over, but minors under 18 must be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

General admission tickets are $25 in advance or $30 at the door. Tickets are available at www.hiram's.com. This is a rain or shine event. Doors open at 6 p.m., show 6:30-11:30 p.m. Capt. Hiram's Resort is located at 1606 N. Indian Drive, Sebastian.

Full day of beach events Sunday to help lifeguards

By Mike Winikoff

mwinikoff@hometownnewsol.com

VERO BEACH — The Vero Beach Lifeguard Association has a full day of fun events scheduled for Sunday, Sept. 2, closing with the Abnormal Barefoot Formal. The central gathering point for the day is Waldo's Restaurant.

First up is the Race to the Wreck at 7 a.m. Register on site or in advance at www.VBLA.org. The Race to the Wreck features a 1,000-yard swim and three-mile paddle. There is an entry fee of $25 to compete.

At 4 p.m., the Poker Pub Crawl gathers at Waldo's. You don't need to know how to play poker. You'll be guided the whole way. Participants in the crawl are encouraged to dress for the Barefoot Beach Ball in their wackiest. The crawl will leave Waldo's at 4:30 p.m. and parade down Ocean Drive to Vero Beach's favorite beachside bars including Grape and Grind, Orchid Island Brewery and the Bungalow.

Crawl-goers will then return to Waldo's around 6:15 p.m. for free food and music while winners of the poker stroll are announced, and then Beach Ball favorite pastimes like Pin the Whistle on the Lifeguard, pie-eating contest, and pictures with the mermaids.

The Fourth Annual Abnormal Barefoot Formal takes place 6:30-8:30 p.m. Last year, the sold-out event, and guests come dressed in formal attire with a silly spin, everything from bowties with beach trunks to bikinis. This zany "barefoot black tie" event is fun for the whole family.

Guests will be treated to great music, tasty food, beach giveaways, and more. Fun activities are planned to keep the mood merry until sunset at 7:41 p.m., when the "hunk dunk" puts the lifeguards in the water. Then, all in attendance will simultaneously jump in the ocean still dressed in their funky finery.

All events benefit The Vero Beach Lifeguard Association. Fundraising for VBLA has allowed the lifeguards to restore 9 a.m.-5 p.m. protection. The VBLA also increased lifeguards and minimized the rolling closures of protected beaches that occur due to understaffing. There are now ATVs at every tower, so the guards can get to those in need faster.

The next vital step is for a lifeguard tower at Humiston Beach to greatly increase effectiveness and view in one of the busiest beach areas, serving both tourists and residents.

Waldo's Restaurant is located at 3150 Ocean Dr., Vero Beach. For more information, call (772) 360-7166 or (908) 797-8725.

Scopes

SCORPIO - Oct. 24/Nov. 22

Though it may be challenging, spend more time engaging in frivolous activities this week rather than more serious pursuits. Show others you can let loose, Scorpio.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov. 23/Dec. 21

Sagittarius, you may get an inkling that change is ahead, but you can't pinpoint which direction it's coming from. Just be at the ready for anything that seems unusual.

CAPRICORN - Dec. 22/Jan. 20

Capricorn, when someone challenges you, it's best to not get defensive. This may seem like you are admitting guilt. Instead, do not engage this person much.

AQUARIUS - Jan. 21/Feb. 18

Aquarius, when work pressures get to you, it's best to take a little time off on the weekend to think about anything but work. Immerse yourself in a hobby.

PISCES - Feb. 19/March 20

Travel plans may be slightly delayed, but they're not completely off the table, Pisces. Don't worry about having to unpack those bags just yet.

CITRUS – Applicants must be 18 years or older. The worker will place a picking sack over their shoulder and carry an 18' to 22' ladder from the field truck to the particular area of the grove to be harvested. A fully loaded sack weighs between approximately 80 and 100 pounds, depending upon the size, condition and variety of fruit. Worker will remove fruit from the tree and place into pick sack. When picking sack is full, take full sack to fruit container located in the grove and drop fruit from pick sack into container. Workers may also drive trucks to haul fruit to the plant. CDL is required. Workers should expect little/no work when going from 1 variety of fruit to another depending on the maturation of each fruit. A copy of the work contract or a copy of the ETA 790 in lieu of a work contract, and any modifications will be provided to the worker on or before the day, the work commences. The worker must be able to harvest on the average of one volumetric tub per hour (equivalent to 10 bushel boxes per hour) in grove conditions that are considered "good picking".
