"ON CRISTOBAL"

"ON CRISTOBAL"

The first system of musical notation for 'ON CRISTOBAL' consists of a grand staff with a treble and bass clef. The music is in 2/4 time and begins with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking. The melody is primarily in the treble clef, while the bass clef provides a steady accompaniment of quarter notes.

The second system of musical notation continues the piece. It features a variety of note values and rests, with a crescendo hairpin indicating a gradual increase in volume towards the end of the system.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. It includes first and second endings, marked with '1' and '2' above the staff. The piece ends with a mezzo-forte (mf) dynamic marking.

CRISTOBAL

"This building has seen bats in the attic, owls in the auditorium, rats in Home Ec, and crabs under the sidewalks."

Cristobal High School spent its first year in Coco Solo in the year of 1959-1960, after moving from its old home next to the Club Nautico yacht club in Colon. Among its first year graduates was Bill Will, current head of the Social Studies department.

The building itself was originally built as a headquarters for the U.S. Navy aircraft and submarine base about 1936. Over the years, it has been modified to accommodate handicapped students with the addition of an elevator, as well as central air conditioning. The highway to the school was originally built for and used as an airstrip. The large asphalt circle in front of Tiger Gym was used for submarines to align their compasses. Across the "taxi strip" stands a sister building which has suffered extensive damage over the years from vandals, and, most notably, Operation Just Cause.

From early 1989, Cristobal was home to 150 troops from Ft. Ord, California. Their mission was to protect the school and its members, and to give support in any way they could. The soldiers adopted the school with no hesitation, and added incredible enthusiasm to sports events.

According to Principal Howard Perkins, "Over the 32 year history of the school here in Coco Solo, Cristobal has facilitated Indians, Arabs, Jamaicans, Panamanians, and many other ethnic groups. The intercultural aspect can't be stressed enough. This building has charm, character, and soul. CHS is beautiful."

"Cristobal has always been a very safe school. We have never had a tragedy occur here, yet we have been literally so close to war." From a Navy headquarters to a staging area for Operation Just Cause, Cristobal has been more than just a school. For many, it has been home.

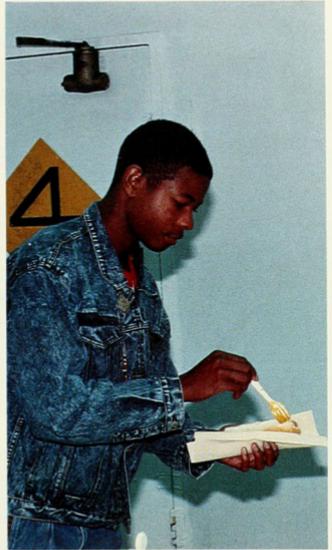

(right) Eighth-grader Gerald Hamm boards the bus after a long day at Cristobal. Though so much of student life is spent at Cristobal, you can see by the expression on his face that there's no place like home.

Kenny Smith dresses up a hotdog at JROTC's snack window. JROTC has become increasingly important to all students at CHS, offering a larger variety of food for lunch.

Sports trips to the Pacific side are a big part of student life at Cristobal. Sleeping gear in hand, Angie Epperson waits with friends to get on the Girl's Basketball bus prior to an away game.

The halls of Cristobal have seen many faces over the years - and lots of dirt and trash. The building is maintained and kept clean by a staff of 12 custodians, who can be found working well into the night.

Ron Labouliere and Chris Beauton just can't seem to figure out what Chuck Young is doing Can you?

"Tell 'em like it is, girl-friend!" Kathie Dawson seems to be saying as Millie Nepton tells the world how she feels. (Peace Y'all)

From the expressions on Kelly Clark, Jessica North-weather, and Tiffany Cox's face you can tell that they know what friendship is all about.

Bonnie Ramirez, Joce Borsellino, and Marion North-weather grin and bare it as the static from Dyonne Canama's hair runs through them.

Dayra Chinasing, Marcus Williams, and Tanya Chinasing chill out together on one of those hot Panama days.

JUST FOR FUN

Are you looking for some fun? Well, CHS is the place to be. All of the students here really know how to have fun. The friendliness and spirited faces can be seen everyday in the halls of CHS, which comes to show that fun here is the #1 subject.

"Look Jennifer, I bet you can't do this," exclaims Angel Keith, as he demonstrates his unique way of eating.

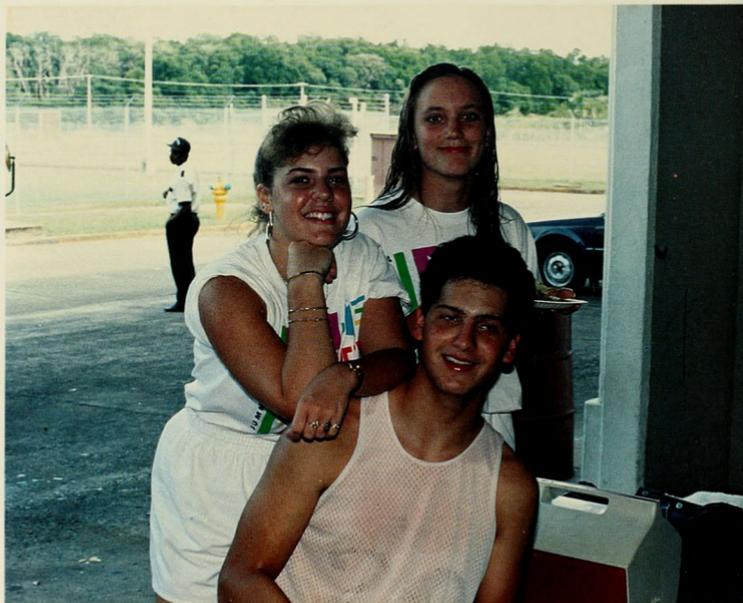

JUST FOR FUN!

What Would We Do Without It?

Hall Grimm is so anxious to get on the bus, that he can't wait to hand his bag over in order to start the fun.

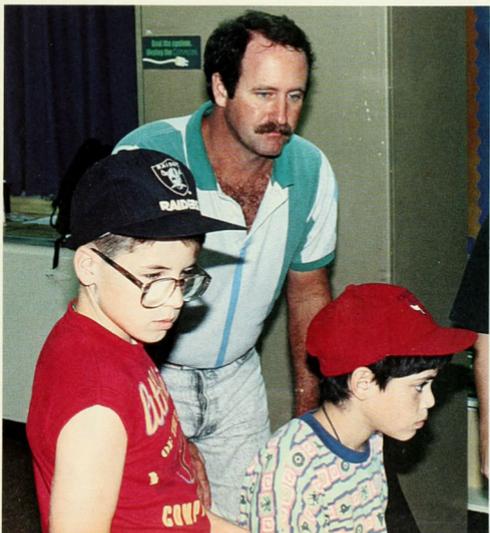

From the expression on Kenneth Palumbo's face, you can tell he knows the real meaning of fun, with Dyonne Canamas, and Honrine Millar.

"Do we look alike or what?", exclaims Robert Seals, as he shows off his new friend.

Cristobal's female rapper Kathy D. jams at the pep assembly.

Practicing their skills, the JROTC cadets march towards victory.

What on earth is that?", exclaim the 7th graders, as Mr. Younkin watches them carefully.

The Grads Of 1992 From Cristobal High

ENERGIZED & READY

This year's seniors have what most call a high energy level. They turn to any event with enthusiasm. "They are extremely responsive as a whole and can get excited over very little." says class president Jennifer Rankin. "They're like a book," says Joce Borsellino, "full of events and neverending stories." Yet those seniors will miss and be missed by the entire school. "It's like a big family with no racial discrimina- tion," Joce comments. "You know everyone in the school and have a friendly relationship with them," agrees Jennifer. "The friendship we have for each other will be hard to leave," declares Bonnie Ramirez. "The new experiences and people will be fun to meet, though," Jennifer says. "I think that those will occupy me for awhile." Most agree, but I guess we will have to see.

Jenny Price looks around trying to decide whether to pass to someone or just go for the points herself.

Dan Howell laughs as his friend's faces reflect their thoughts about Hall Grimmitt's joke.

ALL FOR ONE

United Together In A Common Cause... Graduation.

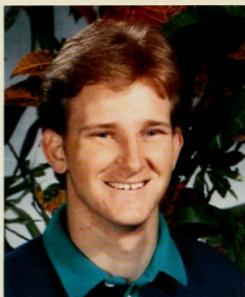

Graduation is drawing nearer; the seniors are excited it's finally here. "In a way I'm excited and in another way I'm not. I don't want to leave my friends," says Bonnie Ramirez - a common feeling for the seniors this year.

Armando Kilborn, Secretary, Bonnie Ramirez, Vice President, Jennifer Rankin, President, and Angel Keith, Treasurer. "I never expected to make it, but now that I have I know that anything is possible," says Angel.

Watching the basketball games, Hall Grimmett stares in amazement at the behind-the-back pass while Dan Howell tries to count how many baskets the Lady Tigers have made.

Memories of times and happenings before take over Angel Keith and Jennifer Rankin at the Jamboree Pep Rally.

So intent on studying his lines as Justice Wargrave in Ten Little Indians, Kevin Akers doesn't even notice his picture being taken.

Jennifer Eckel smiles and claps her hands with enthusiasm as the football team races out to be announced.

Jeremy Long and Roberto Rook, fast and true friends, proudly show off their football jerseys.

TO THE GOOD TIMES

This year, the good times have been many for the seniors. Most of the seniors have been together since seventh grade. They saw the Lady Tigers win their first championship of the seven year series, soldiers living in the school, the end and a new beginning of the music program, and the plans for closing Cristobal High. With high spirits everyone started their senior year. Some, however, have realized that it isn't all fun and games. "It's stressful," says Dyonne Canamas. "You're worried about colleges and SAT scores. It's not as fun everyone always says." "You always hear from seniors how great they are and how great it is. Now that I'm here, finally, what I find is nothing more than additional pressures, obligations, and responsibilities," says Kevin Akers.

The Class of 1993 is described by class president Jana Swords as "one of the most motivated in the school. They are always full of new and interesting ideas, and are always willing to participate in whatever functions the Junior class plans."

One of the goals of the 11th grade class is to have an even better Prom than last year's moonlight cruise. With such a hard act to follow, money will surely be the key. Plans to raise money include selling Christmas cards and ornaments at the annual Arts & Crafts Fair at Ft. Davis.

Says President Jana Swords, "I am not a born leader . . . This has been a good experience for me, to have this opportunity to lead. Having a class with such motivation has helped me find leadership qualities I never knew I had."

EIGHTH GRADE

Responsible leadership has been a major asset to the eighth grade. Through responsible leaders, a class learns responsibility and learns to exceed their own limitations. Says class president Kuwana Simpson, "Being president has had a lot of effect on me. I am now involved in more school activities. I also feel that because I have this leadership position, I should make good grades and set a good example. I hope that others follow my example. I represent all of the 8th graders."

According to Charlotte Bird, "Being secretary also has a lot of responsibilities; keeping track of every meeting isn't easy, but I have risen to the challenge. The 8th graders this year are striving to be on top. We are going to prove to everyone that we are equals."

CLASS OF 1997

Seventh graders this year came into Cristobal with a new wave of excitement. They've come to find that upper-classmen don't really stuff them in their lockers or trash cans, and they most certainly don't beat them up for their lunch money!

The class of 1997 has been active since they've entered the school. They were a very big part of the football season, taking part in the pep squad with lots of helpful parents on the side. October brought goblins and ghouls screaming out their boo's and howls at the Junior High Halloween dance on October 28. The dance's outcome was wonderful as they all danced the night away. Taking part in sports after school, along with other activities, they've learned to accept responsibilities at school as well as at home.

As seventh grade sponsor, Mrs. Rosalind Baitel has taken them higher with the Christmas food and toy drive for charity. The donations were personally delivered by the seventh-graders to Puerto Lindo several days before Christmas.

Dreams allow us to escape boredom but they're not enough.

DREAMS

All of us have dreams. Not the kind that wake us up in the middle of the night, but the kind in which we imagine ourselves doing great things. Some of you imagine becoming great athletes, famous politicians, or successful doctors. Dreaming is pleasant enough; it allows us to escape the days of boredom. But dreaming alone doesn't accomplish anything. The point I want to make is that we can change our dreams into reality."

- Mr. Perkins

Mr. and Mrs. Perkins got married the twenty-fifth of January of nineteen-seventy. They have two kids and they are very happy together.

Mr. Paulino (Shop Geography)

He has served three years in Cleveland, twenty years in Willoughby Eastlake, Ohio. He also worked for seven years in another DODDS School. He also taught six years in Wagnel High School in the Phillipines and now he's here at Cristobal High School.

Mrs. Beckenbach (Librarian)

A lady with experience, she has served as a librarian for many years, in many places. Most recently, she was in the Phillipines as a Middle School librarian. She has also been a meat packer in Nebraska.

Mr. Sotomayor (JROTC)

He started teaching JROTC the twelfth of June in Summer Camp. Since the 22nd of August to this present day he has been teaching here in Cristobal High School.

Mr. Elliott and some of the CHS students at the pep assembly are giving a standing ovation for the Cristobal High School Queen.

JAMMIN' AT JAMBOREE

Largest Seen In Recent History

Jamboree 1991 marks its 42nd Anniversary at Cristobal Stadium and was probably the biggest one seen in recent history. This year's Jamboree was dedicated to Mrs. Anne Gegg who found herself "amazed, surprised, yet pleased."

Jamboree Queen Caroline MacDonald is escorted by seniors Dan Howell and Angel Keith.

Cristobal Students Slave To MAKE IT HAPPEN

"Making it happen is what it's all about. All those months of work finally culminate in one body of paper and binding. It may seem silly that we think of the book as we do, but after so much time invested, every page becomes your baby." -Kevin Akers, Editor

Just think: What if there was no yearbook staff?

Without the hours given up by this group, this book would not have materialized. These students have worked to produce one hundred pages, filled with their own "blood, sweat, and tears." For a yearbooker, the book doesn't just represent their year at school, but a part of their life. It is a scrapbook, that they've cut and pasted with their own hands. As you look through a book that you've created, memories are triggered not only of the events, but the memories of actually doing that page. Just think how special it is.

The Student Activities Officers consisting of Karla Simpson, Kim Johnson, Megan Gibbons, Jana Swords, (the boss) Mrs. Johnston, Jennifer Rankin, and Mark Johnson, is made up of all the presidents of each grade level. The S.A. Officers main goal is to raise money for student activities and help the other fund raisers out.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

National Honor Society, being in it's 50th year at Cristobal High School, has brought out many leaders in today's society. Students ranging from theatre to government officials have come out of our N.H.S. This year's upcoming leaders are: Yi-Feng Hu, Steve Keffer, Jana Swords, Kevin Akers, Jennifer Eckle, Jennifer Swords, Bonnie Ramirez, Mohammed Rada, Caroline McDonald, Eddy Wong, and Joce Borsellino.

Twinge Of Unexpectedness

HOMECOMING '91

The mighty Cristobal Tigers pull the plug on Red Machine and turned off their switch for good!

Homecoming at CHS started off with its traditional spirit week. Walking down the halls, students were welcomed to the Terror Dome, showed their Tigerhood, went through a Nightmare on Tiger Street, and even experienced a touch of Jungle Fever. The Junior class was voted winner of these hall decorations.

As the days moved on, faithful Tigers devoted their time to making Homecoming a success... and in the end it was all worth it.

Game night finally arrived, and was indeed a night to remember. The night held unexpected surprises; as time drew near and Red Machine began prowling Tiger territory- but that didn't hold our players, or our fans down. Within minutes of the first quarter, Tigers scored their first of many touchdowns yet to come. The dedicated Tiger fans seemed to have an extra touch of spirit as they held a fiesta in the stands with their cheering and noisemakers along with the sounds of the Bomberos' Band. Going into overtime four times, the crowd anxiously waited to see the outcome of this breathtaking game. Did our Tigers have what it took? Or did Red pull through? Winning their final victory, the mighty Tigers pulled the plug on Red and turned off their switch for good!

DRAMA CLUB

Learning lines and organizing props burdens a dedicated few.

Success on stage. For many years drama has been something that was missing at Cristobal High. Last year, a small group of students started a drama club that produced several short skits and a one act play. This year, the department gave its first full length, three act play, "Ten Little Indians", a murder mystery by Agatha Christie. It was directed by Jim Hashman and starred Joce Borsellino. Also included were Marc Johnson, Kevin Akers, Ron Bruhn, Carmello Blanquicett, Ronda Grogan, Kent Grubbs, Todd Cox, Cristina Hernandez, and Kimberly Johnson. They had an opportunity to perform on a beautiful set designed by our new industrial arts teacher, Tony Polino. The show was very successful, and the school is looking forward to more performances from our new drama department.

MAIN CHARACTERS

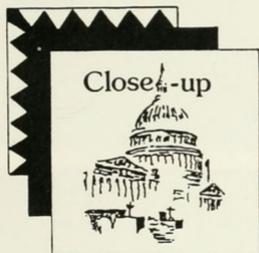

Joce Borsellino and Marc Johnson take time out of their showbiz life to smile for us.

CLOSE-UP

Close-up is an active participation in the democratic process essential to a responsive government. It organizes its Washington programs by inviting schools within the given geographic regions to participate. It has no affiliation with any branch of government, political party, or interest group. The members of the Foundations Board of Advisers hold a variety of political viewpoints and represent both major political parties. This program allows the participants to make their own political judgments.

Carmelo Blanquicett, one of the Close-up members, and Ken Younkin show off the hard earned money the group has raised.

Reaching Future Goals

Why do it? "Out of this activity I hope not only to gain experience and maturity, but to come out of it with more than just knowledge. I hope to set a foundation for deciding what career I expect to pursue," says alternate Gianni Feoli.

Close-up members are: alternate Gianni Feoli, Jana Swords, sponsor Ken Younkin, and Jenny Price. Not pictured is Carmelo Blanquicett.

Bright lights, flashy clothes, and big smiles are all a part of a Christmas night.

Turned on by the loud music, Jeremy Long gives a wide eyed smile before totally losing it!

CHRISTMAS FORMAL: A NIGHT OF FUN

The Christmas Formal set at the Gatun Yacht Club was a night full of bright lights, and joyful faces. Everyone danced to the music and ate the tropical foods that were set in a sophisticated way. The highlight of the night was the choosing of the Hall of Fame, which consisted of Best personality, Best dressed, Most Athletic, Most likely to succeed, and Mr. & Ms. CHS. With the lake glistening in the background, it was surely a night to remember.

Gianni Feoli seems shocked by the turn out of the X-mas formal.

Randy Ramirez, Jennifer Eckel, Ron Bruhn, and Bonnie Ramirez jam to the music of the Christmas Formal.

Kim Johnson and Yvette Reyes enjoy a sparkling, blissful night.

Line dancing became the trend of the evening at the Christmas Formal.

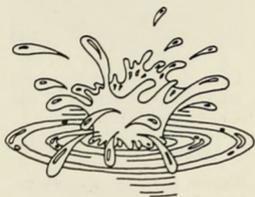

Kathie Dawson expresses her pleasure, with a smile, to be apart of this year's Christmas Formal.

Misty Landrum, Laurie Wyrick, and Pepper Grimmett pose for the camera before taking their boat to the water.

Honorine Millar walks with great concentration as she struggles to reach the water.

CAYUCO: PADDLING FROM OCEAN TO OCEAN

The cayuco race has been a tradition in Panama for many years now and has brought on many challenging trials. The biggest challenge to most C.H.S. students is the physical, mental, and social aspects of the race. Having to paddle from the Atlantic to the Pacific Ocean gives the competitors a chance to go through the famous locks of Panama, a one in a lifetime experience.

"I've got to be crazy to do this," Alex Ross seems to be saying as he gives us his final look before taking off.

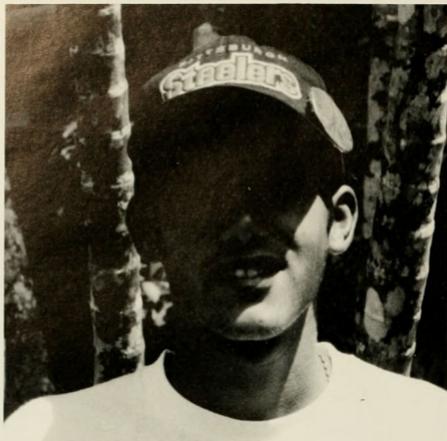

Ricky Alvarez, William Price, and Zaid Hachem swamp their cayuco before even leaving the landing.

Paddling the Daddy Most, Debbie Price, Honorine Millar, Laura Kraemer, and Jenny Price take off with perfection.

"Zaid, you're paddling on the wrong side!" Looks like they finally got it going.

"Uh, how do I do this, guys?!" Hall Grimmett seems to be saying as he looks on with confusion before taking off.

CHS'S ETERNAL DILEMMA

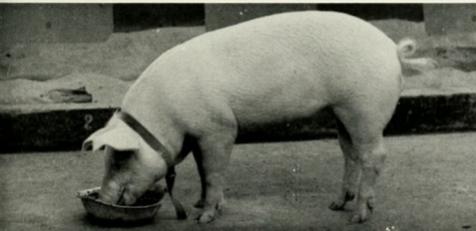

How Do I Sell This?

Raising money is an everyday part of life at CHS. Hardly a day goes by in which you are not deluged in requests to buy something. The earning objectives for this year alone reach over $33,000. With so much fundraising happening, it becomes hard to sell items, as most people can tell you. We realize the drain this fundraising has on such a small community, so thank you for your support.

Todd Cox gladly gives his money over to support a good cause.

Mr. Oliver buys his treat from Miss Gypsy's little black box. The TAG class came up with creative fundraisers to get our support.

The JROTC's raffles this year included the lovely Wilbur. He enjoyed posing for all his pictures.

JAZZIN' UP

"Jazz Choir is improving each year, and with the support of friends, we'll keep improving," say members.

Kathie Dawson smiles as she spreads the latest during choir class. Bonnie, can you believe it?

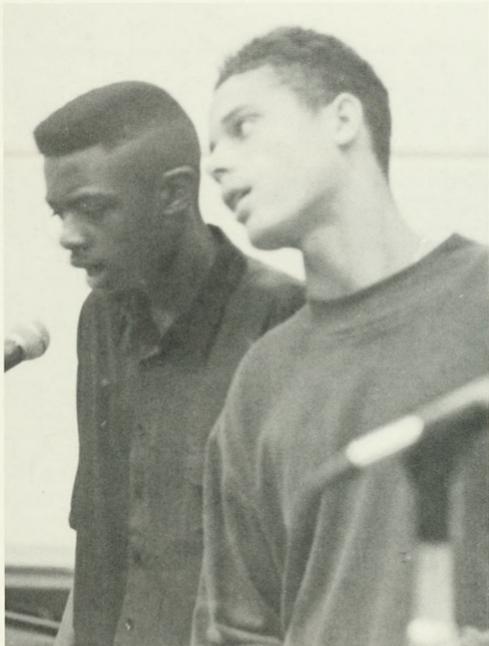

"All That Jazz" members crowd around the camera and try to smile for their group shot.

The choir girls look into past memories of Christmas, picturing the eager faces of loved ones.

"All That Jazz" bass guitarist, Jack Dewhurst, looks toward Mr. Hashman, waiting for him to give the signal.

Dan Howell attempts to be heard as Marc Johnson hogs the microphone.

Take Five! Mr. Hashman's version of "Sax Fifth Avenue" await Misty Landrum's interpretation of the music.

Staring intently towards Mr. Hashman, Francisco Spray watches for the next down-beat.

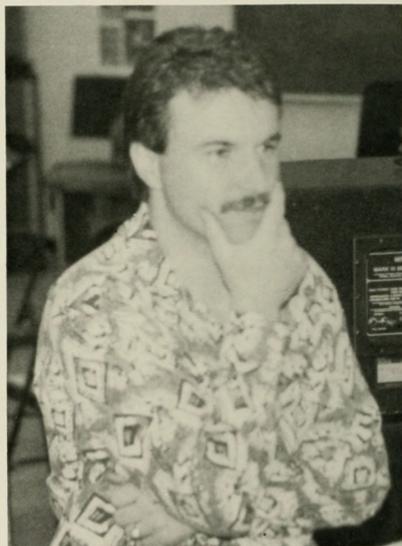

IT'S BACK

The Music Program Is Back-And They're Making A "Joyful" Noise???

Yes, you have probably heard them first, second and sixth period honking their horns and banging their drums. It's hard not to hear them if you are on the third floor. Mr. Hashman's arrival in Panama gave us a Jazz Choir last year and this year has supplied us with two beginning bands and an advanced band. "I was really excited when I found out I had the possibility of starting the band back up here," says Mr. Hashman, "The response from the school has encouraged me. One-fourth of the school is in band. I hope to see it grow to sixty to eighty people so we could have a marching band next year." Mr. Hashman would love to see the band perform at football games and have more public appearances next year. The students in the band really love it. "It's very exciting," says Zac Figueroa. "I like it a lot," says Misty Landrum, "It's a lot of fun. I was in band before, but I think it's better this time. We are having more fun in his class than we did in the last band."

Mr. Hashman, while sitting back and relaxing, listens to his work pay off.

"Mr. Hashman, it was the only reed I could find! No one will mind if I borrow their reed."

Rencie Woolsey takes a few moments to warm up before hitting the high notes.

The entire band, directed by "Bloody Hashman", play the school fight song at the Homecoming pep rally.

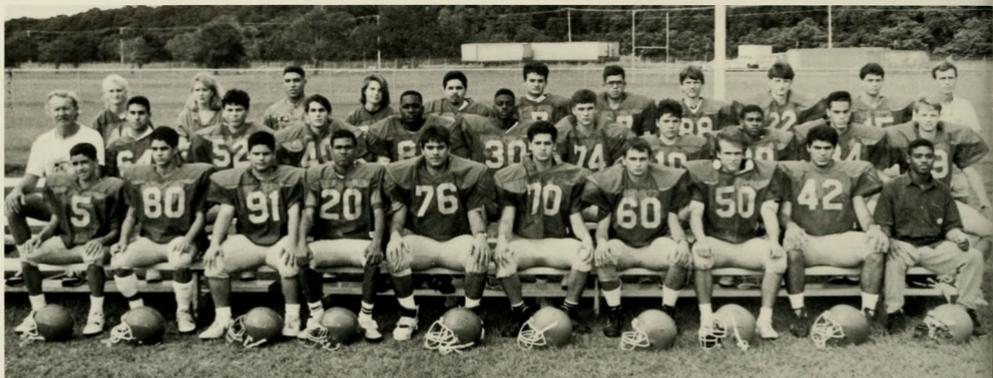

TIGER FOOTBALL TEAM

Spirits Were High

Even Though

The Scores Were Low.

Back row (L to R): J. Light, J. Rankin, A. Keith, J. Swords, D. Hernandez, A. Killborne, M. Flores, J. Laatz, S. Keffer, R. Alvarez, Coach Will. Middle row (L to R): Coach Elliott, A. Flores, W. Price, H. Grimmett, D. Smith, M. Williams, L. Gibbons, Z. Figueroa, B. Acosta, D. Howell, J. Long. Front row (L to R): H. Hogan, C. Fiol, W. Santiago, R. Rooke, F. Hachem, K. Palumbo, R. Bruhn, J. Dewhurst, Z. Hachem, N. Acosta.

R. Alvarez throws with all his might while K. Palumbo blocks a Bulldog.

Keith rushes through the defense as he fakes a pass.

Football Season Record Not An Indicator Of Their Fine Effort.

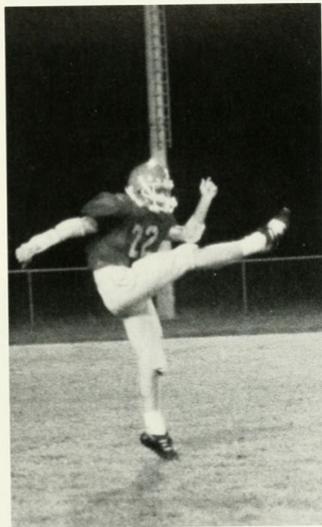

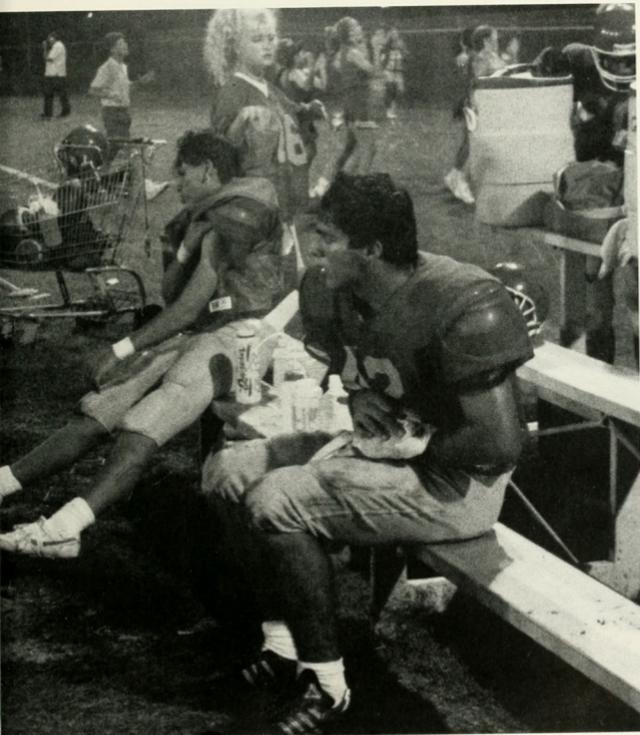

COMING THROUGH WITH POWER

The Cristobal Tiger football team started out the season with a lot of new faces behind the masks. They worked hard to achieve success levels compared to the teams ability. The team really gave their all to achieve what they have, And they showed their willingness to improve. Both the efforts and spirits were high even though the scores were low.

"The players are enthusiastic, motivated, and not afraid to jump back up after being down. I'm very proud of the team and would not trade them for anything."

Coach Elliott.

S. Keffer kicks a field goal for the Tigers as the Red try and block the kick.

The injured and tired Z. Hachem and W. Price sit and rest as J. Light brings them some water.

"You guys, this is the play," exclaims Megan.

Ellen practices her dribbling before a home game.

UNDEFEATED CHAMPS

CHS IS #1 AND DON'T YOU FORGET IT!

The Tigers started the season "SLAMMIN' & JAMMIN'" on the Bulldogs. The Tigers ended the season with a record of 8-0. For the Tigers, it seemed to be smooth sailing until the match of the season came against the PCC Green Devils. The game went into a 3 minute overtime leaving the Tigers #1 with a score of Tigers 53, Devils 44. This game proved the team motto, "DON'T LET WHAT YOU CAN'T DO INTERFERE WITH WHAT YOU CAN DO."

The Tigers continue to be successful as they hold the championship for the 7th consecutive year!

SCOREBOOK

	US	THEM		US	THEM

Lady Tigers, "RING MY BELL."

Angie Epperson, what are you surprised at? You know the Tigers are "BAD."

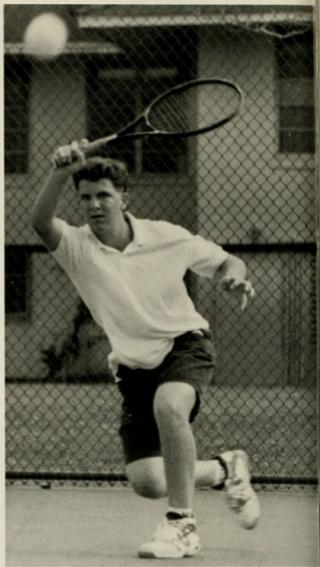

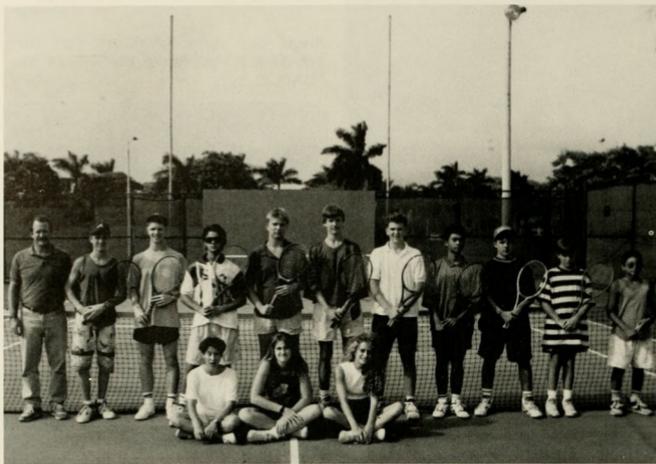

Senior Jenny Price brings in the ball.

Kent Grubbs, being in his second year as captain on the team and also voted the most valuable player, has brought many victories to Cristobal High School.

"If their improvement continues, as I'm sure it will, they will be a force."

BOYS' TENNIS

"Coach Younkin, what do you think about the boys' tennis team this year?"

"There was great improvement in the quality of play among the returning letter. Our top players were underclassmen and if their improvement continues, as I'm sure it will, they will be a force in the conference in the next season. The future looks bright for them."

Carmelo Blanquicett, returning the ball back over the net, has brought the tennis racket back into a resting position.

(top) Lori Vega, scanning quickly for the ball, reaches back to slam it into opponent's court.

Hop, Pop, And Slammin'

GIRLS' TENNIS

"Mr. Oliver, if you could wish for one more thing, what would it be?"

"More girls that will hop on the courts like Jennifer Rankin or fire-crackers to keep them hopping."

Megan did the ball hit you so hard that it knocked you off balance, or are you imitating the Leaning Tower of Pisa?

The 1992 girls' soccer team comes back bigger and better, and ready to strut their stuff on the field.

Megan Gibbons gives a wicked eye to the opponents while planning what defensive maneuver she will carry on next.

Jana Swords fights to take the ball away from the defense.

Debbie Price runs in stride showing her Tiger pride as her opponent crunches away in fear.

BOYS SOCCER

Showing his talent, Ziad Hachem watches the ball as it connects with his forehead.

William Price gives Ali Hachem practice on kicking penalty shots.

Mohammed Hachem leaps towards the ball not realizing that the ball was aimed at Francisco Burac instead of the goal.

Tufik Issa and Mohammed Hachem grapple for the ball in hopes of taking the ball down.

JUST SLAMMIN' IT!

The boys' basketball team, full of determination, went through the season with a grand slam.

Manager K. Dawson, L. Franchesci, D. Miller, M. Williams, L. Gibbons, Coach Elliot, K. Smith, T. Ramos, B. Acosta, J. Santiago, J. Castro, N. Acosta, Manager L. Smith, J. Lu, R. Rook, D. Smith, M. Johnson, R. Alvarez, Manager K. Ford.

Captain Steve Keffer flies off the ground in attempt to score a point.

Returning Letterman, Jon Lu shoots for just two more at an exciting home game.

Kenneth, you're supposed to be watching the ball, not the camera. (Below) Senior Danny Hernandez gets ready to bat.

Cristobal Tigers, 1991-1992 Baseball Team. As Tony the Tigers says, "They're GR-R-REAT!"

"SHOW THEM YOU'RE A TIGER;

"Baseball is sport of concentration and team spirit. You have to have a lot of patience at times, but at the end, of it, all pays off."

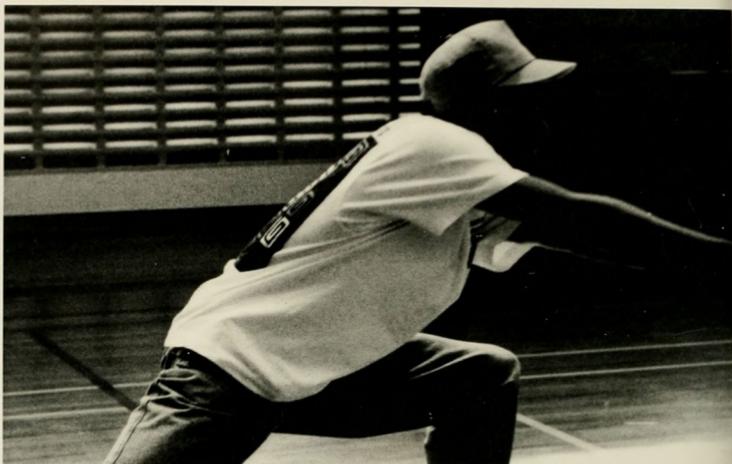

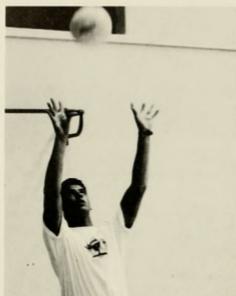

-Danny Hernandez

"To hear the cracks of the bats, to feel the ball drop in my glove, to sense the crowd cheering, that's what it's all about."

-Carlos Fiol

Carlos Fiol is twistin' and tumblin' to bump the unexpected ball.

Kenneth Palumbo shows of his first class set while in total concentration.

Senior Steve Keffer wonders questioningly if what goes up really must come down!

JUST BUMPIN' AND DIVIN' ... THE GIRLS

Senior Jenny Price shows her diving experience as she gives her mind, soul, and body before letting the ball drop.

Better Debbie Price chooses AT&T as her choice for worldwide communication as she reaches out to touch someone or something.

Elsie Botello ... play or pray?

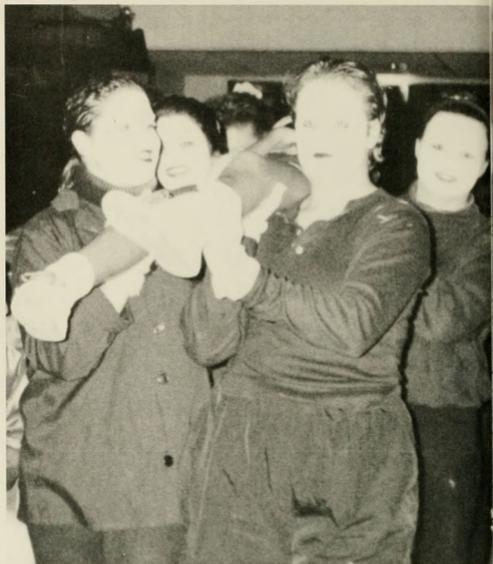

Kathie Dawson assumes her position as she anticipates the coming of the volleyball.

Senior Jennifer Rankin demonstrates 'the bump' while focusing to take it to perfection.

Senior cheerleaders Marion Northweather, Bonnie Ramirez, and Dyonne Canamas put up their "hi V's" along with fellow cheerleader Jennifer Stike.

During a C.H.S. Homecoming pep rally, the "zombified" cheerleaders carried the "Dead Red" to the ending altar.

Introducing the 1991 C.H.S. Cheerleading Team: Jennifer Stike, Honorine Millar, Erik Jimenez, Bonnie Ramirez, Marion Northweather, Pepper Grimmitt, Dyonne Canamas, Joce Borsellino, and Ivi Keith.

Erik Jimenez, our All-American Cheerleader, walks with Tiger pride.

CHEERLEADING

Teamwork, Success C.H.S.

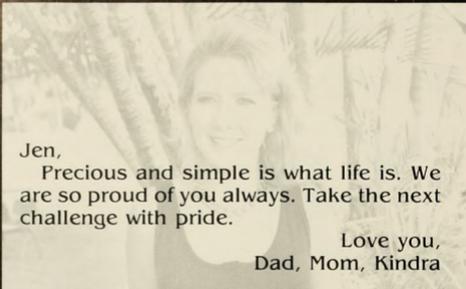

The C.H.S. Cheerleaders have been working hard all year under the coaching of Bonnie Seeley and Penny Canamas. Over the summer, the cheerleaders went to New York for a National Cheerleaders Association Camp, bringing home top honors. It was a season of surprises, but always turned out great!

The C.H.S. Cheerleaders always strive for excellence as you can see in this pyramid.

Riding on the fire truck during Jamboree is the C.H.S. Cheerleaders' everlasting tradition.

Jen,
Precious and simple is what life is. We are so proud of you always. Take the next challenge with pride.

Love you,
Dad, Mom, Kindra

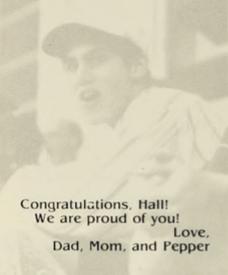

Bonnie,

Congratulations! How very proud we are of you. Our little girl has grown up into a lovely young lady. And now, as you step into a very different world, we hope that you will remember your values and morals and go out there and achieve the goals you set for yourself. We will forever be proud and supportive of you and we're here for you at anytime. We love you dearly.

Mom and Dad

Dear Dyonne,
One of the greatest joys in life
That one can ever know,
Is to have a precious daughter
And watch that small child grow.
From fairy tales and make believe,
To bruised knees that brought tears,
Dyonne, our pride in you has grown
Dyonne, our pride in you has grown
As we've watched you through the years,
And now that you have reached womanhood
And we must let you go.
Remember that we love you, Dyonne -
Just how much you'll never know.
Love you always, Mom and Dad

Congratulations, Hall!
We are proud of you!
Love,
Dad, Mom, and Pepper

Fer,
We will always love you and always be proud to have you as our daughter.
Love,
Mom and Dad

We happily remember the little girl you used to be the laughter and tears we've shared, but the most beautiful things is the joy you've brought to our lives. We proudly recognize the young woman you've become and now that you have set goals in your life the road will become tougher and full with obstacles, but you've learned something important during the past years - a good daughter is one that respects herself, loves God and has perseverance. So hold to this and you will always be successful. God bless you.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Dear Jenny,

Congratulations on this special day, your graduation day. May your future be filled with happiness and contentment, and may all your dreams come true, and your goals be reached. Always remember we love you, and we are so proud to have a granddaughter like you.

Grampa & Gramma

Jenny,

Dear Magic,

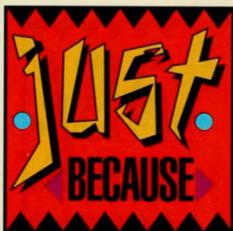

Hi Magic, my name is Roberto Rook. I live in Panama, and I'm really a great fan of yours, ever since I was about ten years old. I've always loved the way you played because it was a unique style which no one could seem to do, even Michael Jordan. I like how Michael plays also; he is great in the air, but you are the best on giving those passes.

I admire you a lot for the way you're helping people that are less fortunate than others. After I heard that you had contracted the virus, I could not believe it. I was very surprised because I never thought that you could get sick or catch any disease. To me, you were magic, someone that no one or nothing could stop.

Now I realize that you are human, too, and that you could get or contract any disease just like any other person. Now I admire you more than before because of the way you have confronted this problem. I don't think anyone else could have dealt with it better than you did.

Now that you have decided to retire, the NBA will never be the same as when you were there. Sure, there are some good players in the league like Jordan and Isiah Thomas, but to me, there is no one like you. I'm also sure that millions of people like me think you were the greatest and still are the greatest basketball player to ever step on the professional basketball court.

Sincerely, your great fan,
Roberto Rook

Just because this book would not have happened without their efforts, the Yearbook High Command would like to thank the following people: Mrs. Furtado, for her competence on the business end; Mr. Grubbs, for his computers and expertise; Mr. Younkin for his supervision and calls to California; and most of all, Mr. Tom Wright for the absolutely tireless hours in the darkroom. Thanks, guys!
