Russia Must Abandon Aggressive Policy
If World Problems Are To Be Solved
—Attlee

WORCESTERSHIRE, March 10
PRIME MINISTER CLEMENT ATTLEE said here today that there could be no settlement of "outstanding international matters" without the abandonment of the "aggressive imperialist" which had characterized Soviet policy for the past five years.

He told a Labour Party rally, "The fact of the existence of Communist aggression means that you must be prepared if necessary to defend your freedom.

"If we get into that sort of thing, there are scores, of thousands of right-wing intellectuals today, of people who believe in that sort of imperialist policy."

Yugoslavia Will Be Enemy's Graveyard
If Attacked

COLLEGE, Near Oxford, March 9
THOMAS HARTLE, a professor at Oxford University, said today that the Yugoslavs, if the West attacked them, would be the graveyard of the Allies. He was quoted as telling friends that "a defensive war" would drive the Western powers deeper into their own countries.

Chinese Reds Kill Hundreds In Purge

HONG KONG, March 10
The Chinese Communists have been carrying out a "purge" of former KMT officials and army officers, local sources reported today.

The purges, which have been gathering momentum since the end of the Civil War, were said to be aimed at removing "traitors" from the People's army, and included the execution of many former army officers.

Truman Should Apologize

Senator Coughlin, Republican Senator from Illinois, told the American Legion yesterday in Chicago that "if the American people want an honest President, the government of the United States should demand an apology from President Truman for the lies he has told to the American people with regard to the Korean War." He said, "Every man in this country has the right to know the truth." He added, "I am prepared to go before the American people and tell them the truth as I know it."
