U.K. WOMEN, CHILDREN QUIT SUEZ

British Troops Guard Against Rioting

British forces have taken the initiative in stopping a series of riots and demonstrations by women and children in the Suez Canal Zone. The riots were sparked by a strike of women and children over working conditions and wages. Troops were deployed to restore order and prevent further unrest.

Gale Kills Six

A severe storm hit the region, causing six deaths and damaging numerous homes and businesses. The storm also led to power outages and transportation disruptions. Emergency services were overwhelmed, and the authorities are urging residents to stay indoors and avoid unnecessary travel.

Chinese Suicide squads try to dislodge U.N. forces

In Casablanca, Morocco, Chinese suicide squads attempted to dislodge United Nations forces in the Western Sahara. The United Nations has been involved in efforts to resolve the conflict, but the operation was reportedly unsuccessful.\n
French Will Discuss Tunisia With Nationalists

In Paris, France, high-level talks were held between Tunisian nationalists and representatives of the United Nations. The discussions focused on the political and social challenges facing Tunisia and the role of the United Nations in supporting democratic processes.

No Compromise

In Beirut, Lebanon, the government announced that there would be no compromise on the issue of Greater Lebanon. The decision was made in response to ongoing talks between the Lebanese government and the United Nations, which were aimed at resolving the conflict.

Aranda, Dunquerque Provide Big Upsets

In New York, sports events were marked by big upsets. Aranda and Dunquerque outperformed expectations, leading to dramatic changes in the local sports landscape.

Persia Wants Russian Sugar

In Moscow, Russia, Persia expressed interest in purchasing Russian sugar. The move is seen as a way for Persia to diversify its sugar sources and reduce its reliance on domestic production.

U.N. Propose Kaesong Be Made Neutral City

The United Nations proposed making Kaesong a neutral city in the Korean conflict. The proposal aims to stabilize the area and facilitate negotiations between the two Koreas.

Churchill Stalin Talks Distant

In London, British and Soviet leaders met, but progress in the talks was slow. The discussions centered on the Korean conflict and the role of the United Nations.

No Tangible Progress

The United Nations has made no tangible progress in the Korean conflict. The lack of progress has limited the effectiveness of the United Nations in resolving the conflict.

Eva Peron For Operation

In Buenos Aires, Argentina, Eva Peron was taken to a hospital for an operation. The operation was scheduled for the next day.

The STRONGEST bicycle in BARBADOS

RALEIGH

The all-steel bicycle

A wide variety of models always on display and ready assembled for you to ride away. For details call us today.