Carib Calling

456 Wins A Cycle

"This is a story of love, of light, and of the stars"... said the presenter as a young man of sweet and delicate beauty stepped to the microphone in a film studio in St. Vincent. "And the stars are here tonight, because the stars have never been more beautiful..."

This was the opening for the programme "The Stars of Carib" which the station had planned for Saturday night. The programme was a farewell to the season and a celebration of the new stars who were to sing their songs and dance their dances with the stars of yesterday.

Married Yesterday

MR. AND MRS. LOUIS ST. HILL

Married yesterday were Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Wilkins, of the Aquatic Club, and Miss Joan Boyce, of the Barracudas. The ceremony took place at the St. Vincent Hotel, and was performed by Rev. Griffith, the Rev. of the hotel. The bride and groom were both in the United States for a vacation, and were married by the Rev. Griffith, who was the Rev. of the hotel.

The bride, Miss Joan Boyce, was attired in white and wore a tiara of oranger blossoms. Her bouquet was of gerberas and Queen Anne's Lace. She was married to Mr. G. C. Wilkins, who was also in the United States for a vacation.

Asthma Mucus Dissolved in 1 Day

In the United States, a mother of five children was looking for relief from the symptoms of asthma. She found it in a little-known herbal remedy... Asthma Mucus Dissolved in 1 Day. The remedy works by breaking down the mucus that collects in the lungs, allowing the sufferer to breathe more easily.
