More Substantial Bonus Should Be Given
Griffith Tells Bay
Land Electorate

THE BRITISH Government should have thought only of the first £100 of salary or wages and perhaps the second £100, and should have given a more substantial rate of pay to workers in those grades. Mr. Vincent Griffith, Electors' Association candidate for St. Michael in the forthcoming election, told a large crowd at the Bay Land on Friday night of his desire to see a substantial increase in wages for workers in those grades.

He said that if he were sent to the British Government he would be brought about for the workers in that grade, and that he would be more than a prophet of work and progress. He said that his whole life was devoted to the cause of the working man, and that he would do all in his power to see that the workers in those grades were given a substantial increase in wages.

Rifle Team Leaves
Today

A TEAM of seven crack marksmen selected by the Governor of the Barbados Rifle Association leaves today for Trinidad to compete in the Annual Rifle meeting of the West India Rifle Association, which will be held on November 13, 1931. The team consists of the following:

Rifle Team Leaves

Girl Guides
Hold Concert

The annual concert of the Girl Guides of Jamaica was held last week at the Court House, and was attended by a large number of the members of the Guides. A number of the guides were present, and the concert was a great success.

Education

In the same year in America, the British Government spent over $100 million on education, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.

The British Government spent over $100 million on education in America, and the British Government spent over $200 million on education. Mr. Griffith said that he was not interested in the education of the community, but that he was interested in the education of the workers in those grades.