FIGHT FOR "ASHES" BEGINS NOVEMBER 9.

I have done a lot of canvassing in recent weeks to get the opinion of the experts on the forthcoming English tour of Australia. There is no doubt that many of the critics who have seen the English team play in England before the summer will have an easy task in predicting the outcome of the series. And yet, I feel that the English team can still win if they make the most of their opportunities.

It is not difficult to predict who will win the Test match in the first place. The English team is strong, and there is no doubt that they will be able to overcome the Australians in this match. However, the second Test match will be more difficult to predict. The English team will have to prove themselves if they want to win this match.

The English team is not as strong as the English team in the first place. However, they are still capable of winning the series. They have a strong bowling attack, and they will be able to take many wickets in the match.
