THE FRAU DOKTOR

By Jane Wyman

A judge, a grandmother, and a good hand at making applestrudel—she thinks our courts are fascinating

THE TRIAL

The Frau Doktor, a judge, finds herself on trial in a strange land. She has decided to visit the United States, and the first place she visits is Washington, D.C. She is told by her American friend that the courts there are much more interesting than in Europe. The Frau Doktor is fascinated by the American legal system and decides to stay there for a while.

APPEAL

She appeals to the Frau Doktor, the judge, to help her with her case. The Frau Doktor is not surprised, for she has always been interested in law. She agrees to help the Frau Doktor, and the case is heard by the American court. The Frau Doktor is amazed at the efficiency of the American legal system.

CONCLUSION

The Frau Doktor decides to stay in the United States for a while longer, to learn more about the American legal system. She finds the people there to be very friendly and welcoming, and she enjoys her time there.
