Treasure Hunt
On Lake Huron
A TREASURE-HUNTING trip to Lake Huron for Canadian and American citizens is under way. It promises to be a new experience for the adventurer. The generous sponsor, the Travelers Life Insurance Company, has provided each participant with a set of clues to lead them to the hidden treasure. The treasure is located in a cave on the north shore of Lake Huron, and the racers who locate it will be awarded a prize.

HOMEBREW HOLIDAY

MRS. JOHN HARRISON, of the Government House, has been enjoying her holiday with her family at Horseshoe Bay, in the Bahamas. The Governor-General has been there for the last two weeks, and has been making use of the opportunity to visit some of the Government's properties in the island. Miss Dorothy Clair

The treasure is worth $25,000 dollars, and will be the main attraction of the Government's properties in the island.

Jewelry Hunt

One of the major attractions of the Government's properties in the island is the Jewelry Hunt, which takes place every Saturday afternoon. The Jewelry Hunt is a popular annual event, and attracts visitors from all over the island.

The Government House

The Government House is a magnificent example of Barbadian architecture, and is a popular tourist attraction. The house is open to the public on a regular basis, and offers guided tours of the property.
