Waterfront Activity Slows Down

The sudden cessation of all activities at the waterfront, which has lasted for the past two days, is due to the arrival of a vessel from the coast. The vessel was loaded at Bridgetown with a large consignment of tobacco, and the quantity of tobacco was so large that it took the crew three days to load it. The vessel will remain at the waterfront for another two days, during which time it will be unloaded.

Married At Cathedral

On Thursday afternoon, in St. Michael's Cathedral, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Smith were married. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Smith of St. Michael, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Smith of St. James. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Smith, and the couple will leave for their honeymoon immediately after the ceremony.

KING SMILER

Makes his selection from his Loyal Subjects

HERE ARE SIXTEEN SUBJECTS OF HIS MAJESTY KING SMILER who have been selected for final judging on Saturdays, November 30th at the Barbados Atlantic Club. Usually there are twelve subjects, but this year King Smiler’s subjects had to be limited to COW AND GATE since the number had to be reduced from their predecessors.

As the final judging starts all sixteen subjects will camp before the judges and from these the final winners will be selected. After that, judging for the next winners will begin.

Prizes will be presented by Mr. J. P. O’Malley.

These are the first eleven of the subjects chosen with the hope of health and happiness associated with all COW & GATE labels.
