THANK-YOU! Dr. O’Neal, the extraction of all my teeth was overwhelming, 25 to be exact. You and your staff gave me total confidence. Within 24 hours, I feel amazingly good, enjoyed the sun today, and looking forward to having a healthy, happy smile. You’re amazing! I will smile brightly and tell everyone to whom I owe the pleasure. Plus refer all I can. Thank-you Again!!

I would like to thank you Dr. O’Neal and your entire team for the most wonderful experience I had while visiting your office. I enjoyed the comfort of your office, support of your team and most importantly, the top notch service I received. I came to NuSmile Dental with multiple problems. Dr. O’Neal tackled them with much ease and professionalism. She offered me long-term solutions and the most advanced treatment that money can buy. Thank You for my beautiful veneers (the envy of all my colleagues, neighbors and family), my healthy gums and the smile to die for. My husband told me it was one of our best investments so far. Wishing you great success and prosperity. Forever grateful!!

“Dear Dr. O’Neal - Jimmie and I wanted to thank you for the beautiful work you did on our teeth. We both get many compliments. It was money well spent. Thank You guys so much. You guys are way too cool!”

French Market pulls record crowds

By BRIAN GOFF

...was pleased. She had been there with her daughter, Meryl, and they had been very pleased with what they saw. "I can see why people come from all over to see this," she said. "It's a wonderful place to shop and eat." She was especially impressed with the variety of food available at the market, including fresh produce, meats and cheeses. "It's like a mini-farm market right in the city," she said. "It's a great way to support local farmers and get fresh, healthy food." She planned to come back again next year and bring her friends and family with her. She said that the market provided a great opportunity to meet new people and enjoy the local culture. "It's a wonderful way to experience St. Petersburg," she said. "I highly recommend it to anyone visiting the area."

Legislature considers reducing vehicle fees

Sarah Ward, MPO interim executive director, talks about the role of volunteer Pinellas Trail Rangers during the March 12 meeting.

By SUZETTE PORTER

CLEARWATER — The Florida House and Senate are considering legislation that would lower the cost of vehicle registrations beginning Sept. 1. The Florida House Finance and Tax Subcommittees introduced a $40 million motor vehicle fee reduction package March 13. The same day, the Senate Committee on Appropriations unanimously approved Senate Bill 156, Motor Vehicle License Fees. Senate Bill 156 reduces certain annual fees paid to register a motor vehicle to the amount paid prior to 2010. Based on the latest estimates, the bill, if signed into law, could save Florida drivers $395 million, according to a Senate press release.

Annual vehicle registration fees went up in 2009, when the state general revenue collections declined more than 21 percent from their high in 2008-09. According to a press release from the House, if the bill passes, registration costs would be reduced by $25.55 for heavy vehicles, $25.55 for lightweight vehicles, and $15.55 for lightweight vehicles.

The House proposal continues for three years, through the 2014-15, and $839 million up an annual fee. These reductions are part of the proposed $2.5 billion tax cut, which is the ‘largest tax cut ever in Florida history’. House Bill 369 passed the House on March 12. If that bill passes, I want to make sure that we also reduce the opportunity to take advantage of that piece of legislation,” said Senate President Bill Galvano in a press release. “If we can lower the cost of registering, we can lower the cost of sending drivers. We can save money for all Floridians. The Senate is interested in this legislation and this proposal could be a great opportunity to reduce fees,” said Sen. Nelson.

Pinellas County Tax Collector Diane Nelson is taking proactive measures in anticipation of the Florida Legislature passing a bill to reduce motor vehicle renewal fees. Nelson said in a press release that the county would reduce fees by $395 million by holding off on biennial renewals until the next fee cycle is established. Nelson said, “If this bill passes, I want to thank the Florida Legislature for the opportunity to take advantage of this tax cut. But, this opportunity to save money becomes even more important.” Nelson said, “The Senate had a report on the preliminary design and environmental process for replacement of the Dunedin Causeway Bridge. A presentation is scheduled to take place at a Dunedin Commission meeting in April.

Emily Harris, right, a senior at Decatur Fundamental High School, won second place in the statewide Prestige competition for middle and high school artists. After graduating this May, she plans to go to Johnson and Wales in Miami.

Harris describes her contest submission, right, as “a bouquet of flowers made out of vegetables. The vase is a butternut squash and there are a gazillion of sprouts and carrot flowers.”

Curves Announces Annual Food Drive

SEMINOLE – The 2014 Curves Food Drive will take place through March 23 at participating Curves Clubs across the U.S. and Canada, including the club at 6062 Seminole Blvd.

This year, Curves is inviting both nonmembers and members to take part in the Food Drive by bringing in a bag of nonperishable food or a monetary contribution of at least $30 to be donated to a local community food bank. All new members who make a food or monetary donation will receive a $0 service fee for when joining Curves as either a Fitness or Curves Complete member. A number of the two-day meetings are scheduled to take place during and after the meeting to enjoy participating in the food drive.

“Once again we are honored to offer the Curves Food Drive as a way for our community to come together and feed the needs of people in our local communities,” said Marina Szing of Curves of Seminole. “This year, during and after the meeting, we will be working with the Sunshine Concept and Vitas Geriatric Center, which will further define the Curves strategy as they continue to grow and expand its countries members.

Black Palm moves to historic location

ST. PETERSBURG — The Black Palm recently changed locations, moving to 700 Park St. N. in Seminole.

“We love feeding people,” said Lui Arango in a press release. “This is a great change for us as we have been working in Pinellas County for the past 15 years. We are excited to be part of the Seminole community and look forward to the opportunity to help those in need.”

Local Primerica expands

LARGO — Local Primerica, recently expanded and relocated the business to 4350 Duhme Rd., Madeira Beach. The business offers financial advisors to clients and is owned by Terri Arango and Terry Arango.

“We offer the best prices with an added fee for additional services,” said Terri Arango. “We help you with everything from cruises to land and take care of everything you will need to get there. We are a travel counselor.

Some advice on traveling to Oz

I recently returned from a 14-day trip to western Australia. This country went far beyond my expectations. It is...
Dolphins show how close is far

Here is a little fable. Imagine walking down the street from one end of your block to the other. You imagine walking. No traffic hampers your stroll. The entire street is safe.

There is another person all the way at the other end of the block. They walk from one end of the block to the other. You imagine walking. No traffic hampers your stroll. The entire street is safe.

Is that all?”

But dolphins can vocalize to each other from as far apart as 30 miles away.

But let us assume that they do not know if they were trading vocalizations.

Bay Pines VA to host Stand Down for Homeless Veterans

The event will be held rain or shine and feature a wide range of services available for homeless veterans and those at risk of becoming homeless. Services will include access to medical care, free meals, toiletries, hot showers and clothing items; VA health care, benefits and employment, housing, mental health, substance abuse treatment, employment, legal, community resources. Services include veterans’ access to homeless programs and resources, and reduced barriers to important VA health care, benefits and community services, said Jennifer Sprague, homeless veterans coordinator, Bay Pines VAHCS.

Veterans interested in attending the event should bring a copy of their DD214 “Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty,” birth certificate, social security card and two documents that can verify their mailing address. Veterans who currently reside in a shelter also are encouraged to furnish a copy of their shelter certificate.

“The brave men and women who served our country with honor and distinction should never be without a place to call home. Being without a home today, let our Global Referral Network work for you. Call us today for a no pressure talk about today’s market and how we can help sell your home today. Let our Global Referral Network work for you. For more information, contact Meagan at (727) 220-0045,” said Jennifer Sprague, homeless veterans coordinator, Bay Pines VAHCS.

“Through events like homeless stand downs and other outreach programs, we are able to partner with community agencies to provide various resources that are so vital to those who are at risk. Our aim is to get them back on their feet and to provide them with the care they earned through their military service,” she added.

Over the years, the Bay Pines VAHCS has participated in, and hosted, numerous stand down events across the 10-county area in the system.

Against a backdrop of sex, politics, and rock, ‘Jodorowsky’s Dune’ reveals the intimate story of a woman who spent 22 years trying to get an Academy Award-winning filmmaker, H.R. Giger, to make ‘Dune.’

For two years, Jodo and his team of ‘spiritual warriors’ worked on ‘Dune,’ from page one to page 3,000, incredible costumes, and an outrageous, moving and powerful film that was never made.

But it wasn’t just the process that was incredible – it was also the people who created it: Cartwright, Keener, LaBeouf, and a cast of international luminaries.

‘Blood Ties’

It is New York, 1974, and 50-year-old Chris has just been released on good behavior after several years in prison following a gangland murder. On good behavior after several years in prison following a gangland murder.

Waiting for his reluctantly outside the prison gates is his younger brother, Frank, a cop with a bright future. Chris and Frank have always been different, and their father, Leon, who has raised them alone, warns them to steer clear of each other. But just as they think they can influence the fate of the ministry’s home – where stress, ambition and dirty dealing are the daily currency.
