Taste of Dunedin kicks off Restaurant Week

DUNEDIN – Dunedin’s Downtown Merchants Association will present “Taste of Dunedin” on Sunday, Sept. 14, from 1 to 5 p.m. in Downtown Dunedin. Sponsored by the Dunedin Community Foundation, this event will be held on the corner of First Street and Main Street. The event will feature local restaurants and arts and crafts booths and entertainment downtown.

Dunedin is a unique place to spend a day with your family and friends. People come to enjoy the sun and stroll around historic downtown Dunedin. It’s a great place to visit any time of year, and the restaurants are a big part of that.

In addition to the indoor events, you can also enjoy the downtown Dunedin restaurants. The event will include music, food, and other entertainment. Restaurants will be offering a variety of menu items, and you can enjoy the food while listening to live music or watching a performance.

The event is free to attend, and all proceeds will go to the Dunedin Community Foundation. Visit www.dunedinfl.org for more information.

Capitol Theatre presents ’70s Movies Series

CLEARWATER – The Capitol Theatre is back – and the venue has put together a classic trilogy of films for its upcoming ’70s Movies Series. The series will begin on Friday, Sept. 26, with a screening of “A New Leaf.”

“A New Leaf” is a 1971 film directed by Woody Allen and starring the leading man himself. The story follows a wealthy heir who is left penniless when he falls in love with a con woman. The movie is a comedy that explores themes of love, money, and identity.

The series will continue with “The Sunshine Boys,” directed by Richard Quine and starring Walter Matthau and Jack Lemmon. The film is a comedy that explores the relationship between two old friends who are reunited for a one-night-only show.

The final film in the series will be “Juno,” directed by Jason Reitman and starring Ellen Page and Sandra Bullock. The movie is a coming-of-age story about a teenage girl who becomes pregnant and must make a decision about her future.

Hello,

I wanted to share with you some information about the Classifieds section of the Tampa Bay Newspapers. The Classifieds section is a valuable resource for locals looking to buy, sell, or find services in the Tampa Bay area. It features a wide range of listings, including real estate, jobs, and personal services.

One of the key features of the Classifieds section is its user-friendly format. Listings are organized by category, making it easy for readers to find what they are looking for. For example, there are sections for real estate, jobs, and personal services. Listings are updated regularly, so readers can find the latest deals and opportunities.

Another benefit of the Classifieds section is its reach. With a wide audience, the section is a popular resource for people looking to buy or sell property, find a job, or connect with local services.

In addition to the print edition, the Classifieds section is also available online. This allows readers to search for listings at their convenience and provides a platform for businesses to reach a wider audience.

Overall, the Classifieds section of the Tampa Bay Newspapers is a valuable resource for locals looking to buy, sell, or find services in the Tampa Bay area. It offers a user-friendly format, wide audience reach, and online availability, making it a must-read for anyone in the area.

Sincerely,
